ESPN3

Beginning in 2015, EMU Athletics began producing live content aired nationally on ESPN3. The programming will be produced entirely by members of the EMU community, including athletics department staff members, distinguished professionals and students from the Department of Communication, Media & Theatre Arts. EMU students will receive valuable hands-on experience working with professional equipment and producing content for a national audience. It will be a unique opportunity for students to gain working knowledge and real-time experience. All events will be delivered on ESPN3, with the option to cut to any event for inclusion on other ESPN platforms.

In 2016-17, the Eagles will produce the 35 events between volleyball, men's basketball, women's basketball, and other special events. The schedule will include home men's and women's basketball games as well as other selected contests. Stay tuned to EMUEagles.com for the complete broadcast schedule.

WEMU Radio

Listen to EMU Basketball on the flagship station for Eastern Michigan Athletics, WEMU-FM (89.1), and on the Internet at wemu.org.

Eagle All-Access

Catch live game action along with highlights and interviews of student-athletes and coaches only on Eagle All-Access, the official multimedia source for EMU Athletics. Log on to EMUEagles.com/watch for more information.

The 2016-17 Eastern Michigan University women's basketball media guide is designed to assist the media with its coverage of EMU basketball. Additional information, statistics and photographs may be acquired by contacting Greg Steiner in the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office, Suite 307, Convocation Center, Ypsilanti, Michigan 48197.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press space should be made in writing at least one week before the date of the home contest to the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office. The request should be made by the sports director of the newspaper, magazine, radio or television outlet wishing to send a reporter(s) to the game.

Outlets that have made proper credential requests are entitled to receive copies of the final game statistics, play-by-play and a scoring summary, as well as any press information provided by the competing institutions. Confirmation of the request will be made by EMU Athletic Media Relations personnel. Press credentials WILL NOT be issued to spouses, friends or children. Press row is a working area.

Press credentials can be picked up in the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office during the week of a home contest. If credentials are requested and approved, they will only be mailed if the request is granted at least two weeks prior to the game. Any credentials not picked up will be left at the will call window.

Please make your credential requests to:

Greg Steiner
307 Convocation Center
Eastern Michigan University
799 N. Hewitt Road
Ypsilanti, MI 48197

Office: 734.487.0317
E-mail: greg.steiner@emich.edu

PARKING CREDENTIALS

Eastern Michigan University does not issue parking passes as EMU does not charge for parking for basketball.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers are issued similar credentials to press row media. Photographers are allowed to shoot from outside the dotted line surrounding the playing court.

RADIO

EMU basketball can be heard live on WEMU, 89.1 FM and on the Internet at emueagles.com and wemu.org.

VISITING RADIO

Visiting radio stations receive one reciprocal phone line and one Ethernet line for their game broadcasts. The visiting radio line is directly across from the visitors' bench. Should more lines be needed, please contact Greg Steiner for arrangements.

INTERVIEW POLICY (MID-WEEK)

Most practices are open to the media. However, all media are recommended to make an advance call to the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office to check on the status of practice for a particular day. Failure to do so may result in an individual's removal from the venue.

Head Coach Tory Verdi is available to speak to the media via phone Monday-Thursday mornings. Individual players are available for interviews Monday-Wednesday. Please contact the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office at least 24-hours in advance to set up interviews. Players should not be contacted for interviews at their residences, on their cell phones, via e-mail, Facebook, Twitter and all other social networking entities.

During regular season practices, still photographers and videographers will be allowed to shoot only during pre-practice individual drills, which usually last approximately 10 minutes at the beginning of practice.

Media members covering practices or scrimmages will not be permitted to report any scouting information (formations, personnel groupings, etc.) without first speaking with a member of the EMU coaching staff or the media relations office. Failure to adhere to this guideline could result in the closing of all practices and scrimmages to the media.

First-year players, including freshmen and transfers, will be made available to the media only after they have made a significant contribution or at the coach's discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICY (GAME DAY)

All post-game interviews will be conducted in Media Room A at the north end of the Convocation Center. Both head coaches will be available to the media after a 10-minute cooling-off period, with the visiting coach and players going first in the media room (unless circumstances warrant a change). Individual players may also be available for interviews at the conclusion of the game. Please see a member of the athletic media relations staff from either EMU or the visiting institution about player interviews.

WIRELESS INTERNET

For those with laptop computers that can automatically select an IP address, there is a wireless Internet connection available in the Convocation Center. See an Athletic Media Relations representative for the login password.

ON THE INTERNET

Information will be updated regularly at EMU's official athletics website. For media information, go to the women's basketball web page to find updated PDF files containing, notes, statistics, rosters and schedules.

GOING GREEN

Starting with the 2010 season, Eastern Michigan University no longer prints media guides. Complete information, including a record book/media supplement will be made available on the basketball page at EMUEagles.com.

EAGLES IN LID LIFTERS: In 40 seasons, the Green and White have compiled a 27-13 record in season openers. In fact, the Eagles have won six consecutive lid lifters dating back to the 2008-09 season. That year, EMU fell to North Dakota, 80-71, on the road. Most recently however, the Eagles cruised past Hillsdale, 94-77, to open the 2015-16 campaign. Phillis Webb finished the day with 18 points, six rebounds, three steals, and a block to pace the Green and White.

OPENING ON THE ROAD: The Green and White will open the season on the road for the first time in five seasons when it tips-off the first year under the direction of Head Coach Fred Castro, Nov. 12, in Morehead, Ky. as part of the Donna Murphy Classic. The last time the Eagles' lid lifter came on the road was the 2011-12 season, when EMU coasted to a 83-53 win over Northeastern. That season, the Eagles went on to post a 23-9 overall record and won the Mid-American Conference Tournament title en route to a NCAA Tournament berth.

COACHING DEBUT: The Nov. 12 clash with Georgia State will not only serve as the Eagles' season opener, it will also mark the head coaching debut for EMU bench boss, Fred Castro. A rising star in the coaching world, the 36-year old Castro has spent the past 15 years climbing the ranks from student manager to now the eighth head coach in EMU program history. During his career, he has worked tirelessly to learn and has held nearly every position within a women's basketball program, including serving as offensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator, video coordinator, and travel coordinator.

YOUTH ON THE COURT AND ON THE SIDELINES: Since becoming the head man for the Eagles, Fred Castro has assembled one of the youngest coaching staffs in the nation. Castro and assistant coaches Adam Call, Abi Olajuwon, and Cassandra Callaway have a combined average age of 30.75 years, making them the fifth-youngest coaching staff in the nation. McNeese is home to the youngest staff in the nation with an average age of 27.25 years, while Florida International (28.75) and Houston Baptist rounded out the top-three.

EMU VERSUS OPPOSING CONFERENCES: Sunday's contest versus Morehead State pits EMU against an Ohio Valley Conference institution for the sixth time in program history. The Green and White own a 2-3 record against the OVC all-time. Meanwhile, Eastern Michigan has never played a team hailing from the Sun Belt Conference.

GREEN AND WHITE DOWN LAWRENCE TECH IN EXHIBITION GAME: Eastern Michigan outlasted Lawrence Tech, 74-54, in its lone exhibition game, Nov. 6. Senior Sheyna Deans led a balanced offense for the Eagles. Deans scored a game-high 20 points, while adding 10 rebounds, three assists, three steals, and one block in a stat-stuffing performance. Freshman Esabelle Levine, senior Phillis Webb, and junior Tori Easley added nine points apiece. Meanwhile, junior Micah Robinson dished out a game-high seven assists to go along with seven points and four rebounds.

IN SEARCH OF A SCORER: EMU returns just 30.3 percent of the scoring from last season's squad, leaving the Eagles in search of a consistent point-scorer. Senior Phillis Webb and Sheyna Deans will be looked upon heavily while freshman adjust to the collegiate level. The Green and White also return juniors Tori Easley, Sasha Dailey, and Micah Robinson who are poised to have career years, while Ashley Nickens is eligible after transferring from Cincinnati ahead of the 2015-16 campaign.

CHANGING UP THE DEFENSIVE STRATEGY: Fans and media that have covered Eastern Michigan over the last several years have come accustomed to EMU's lock down 2-3 zone. This season, in its first under Fred Castro, the Green and White are expected to play man-to-man defense primarily.

YOUTH MOVEMENT: The Eagles roster is made up of five returners and seven newcomers and has combined to play just 4,635 minutes coming into the season, the least of any team in the Mid-American Conference. Senior Phillis Webb is the most experienced player on Eastern's roster, having played a total of 2,342 minutes through her first three seasons. Additionally, Webb has played more than twice as many minutes as Sasha Dailey (1,114 minutes), the second-most experienced Eagle on the roster.

12 TEAMS, 12 LEAGUES: The Eagles' 12-game non-conference schedule pits the Green and White against institutions from 12 different leagues. Eastern Michigan will face off against member schools of the Ohio Valley, Sun Belt, GLIAC, ACC, American, WAC, Southland, Horizon League, Atlantic-10, MAAC, Big Ten, and Mountain West. Collectively, the Eagles hold a combined record of 114-124 against the 12 conferences.

5TH YEAR IN MAC: The 2016-17 season marks the 35th season Eastern Michigan will compete as a member of the Mid-American Conference. Having been a member of the Cleveland, Ohio based league since the 1981-82 campaign, the Green and White have compiled a 266-317 record against conference opponents all-time.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE: Eastern Michigan has won 72 of the last 96 home games dating back to the 2008-09 season. The Eagles have racked up a solid home-court advantage inside the friendly confines of the Convocation Center since the doors opened during the 1998-99 campaign. The Green and White has won 68.0 percent of the contests played in the building, piling up a 166-78 all-time mark.

WEBB WORKING TOWARDS 1,000 POINT MARK: Senior Phillis Webb stands 329 points short of the 1,000-point mark heading into her final season donning the Green and White. Webb has amassed 671 points for her career through her first three seasons. If Webb eclipses four-digits, she will become the 21st player in program history to score at least 1,000 points during their career.

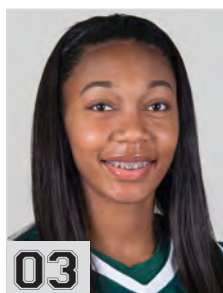

WELCOMING A NEW FLOCK INTO THE FOLD: Head Coach Fred Castro bolstered the Eagles' lineup with a strong incoming class featuring several key freshmen and two talented transfers. Nailah Mitchell, Esabelle Levine, Corrione Cardwell, Jayla Russ, and Becca Turney make up the freshman class, while Danielle Minott and Lorraine Enabulele join the Eagles from Syracuse and Kansas, respectively. While Minott and Enabulele have to sit out this season due to NCAA transfer rules, the deep freshmen class will be looked upon to contribute right away.

CATCH THE EAGLES ON ESPN3: Like last season, Eastern Michigan basketball fans can watch the live streaming of every home game on ESPN3. Thanks to the addition of EMU Athletics' own production trailer, the Eagles' men's and women's basketball games will all be provided to more than 99 million homes across the world. Fans will be able to access these games online at WatchESPN.com, on smartphones and tablets via the WatchESPN app and streamed on televisions through Amazon Fire TV and Fire TV Stick, Apple TV, Chromecast, Roku, Xbox 360, and Xbox One.

Fred Castro was named as the eighth Head Women's Basketball Coach at Eastern Michigan University, May 5, 2016, by Vice President/Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Heather Lyke. Castro will start his first season at EMU in 2016-17.

A rising star in the coaching world, the 36-year old Castro has spent the past 15 years climbing the ranks from student manager to now the eighth head coach in EMU program history. During his career, he has worked tirelessly to learn and has held nearly every position within a women's basketball program including serving as offensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator, video coordinator, and travel coordinator.

"We are incredibly proud to announce Fred Castro as our next head women's basketball coach," said Lyke. "When we had the chance to meet with Fred, he exudes confidence, preparation and passion. His intellect, personality, past coaching experiences and mentors have well prepared him to lead this team and build a winning program. Most importantly, he genuinely wants to have a positive impact in the lives of our student-athletes and will make them even better players and people. We are thrilled to welcome Fred and his family to the Eastern Michigan Athletics team."

Castro has been a part of 10 squads that have participated in the postseason since the 2001-02 campaign, including a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament Final Four. In 15 years of coaching, his teams have combined to post a 317-171 record (.650 winning percentage) and eight seasons of 20-or-more victories.

"I am thrilled and humbled to be named Head Coach of the Eastern Michigan women's basketball program," Castro added. "The leadership and vision Heather Lyke has for this program gives me great confidence that we can reach all of our goals in the future. This team has accomplished a great deal but I truly believe the best is yet to come. I am eager to get in the gym and start working with our players and doing the work necessary for us to be successful."

Castro comes to Ypsilanti following a three year stint in Seattle as an assistant coach with the Huskies, in which Washington posted a 69-35 record and a trip to the 2016 NCAA Tournament Final Four. He worked with the guards and acted as the team's offensive coordinator as the Huskies defeated 14 top-25 programs during his tenure.

A storybook 2015-16 campaign saw Washington post a 26-11 record and the program's first Final Four appearance. Dealing with a short bench due to injuries, the Huskies utilized a six-woman rotation as it tore through the NCAA Tournament, including beating No. 4 Stanford, 85-76, to win the South Regional. Washington finished the year ranked in the top 50 in 11 statistical categories including: free throws made (521 - 6th), free throw percentage (78.0% - 6th), three-pointers made (271 - 17th) and rebounds (1,437 - 23rd).

Castro tutored USBWA All-America honoree Kelsey Plum, who was fourth in the nation in scoring at 25.9 points per game, while leading the country in total points with 960. In addition to her scoring prowess, Plum averaged 3.7 rebounds and 4.2 assists, while leading the nation in both free throws made (266) and attempted (299). The junior guard broke the Washington record for points in a season, while also setting the Pacific-12 Conference record for career free throws made.

Castro's guards saw success in 2014-15 as he coached Plum and Jazmine Davis through a record-breaking season. Plum finished her season ranked seventh in the nation in scoring and second in free throws made. Additionally, she set UW single-season records in 30-point games (7), free throws made (207) and percentage (89.6%), single season scoring (746 points), and points in a game with 45 against Oklahoma. Davis completed her senior season with the Dawgs as the UW all-time leader in six categories including points, three-point field goals and free throws made. She also became the first four-time All-Pac-12 player in UW history.

In his first year with the program, Washington earned a trip to the quarterfinals of the Postseason WNIT. The Huskies finished 20-14, including 10-8 in the Pac-12. The Dawgs defeated five teams that were ranked at some point during the season, including an upset of then-No. 3 Stanford at Alaska Airlines Arena in front of a nationally televised audience. The win ended the 58-game road conference winning streak of the Cardinal.

On the recruiting trail, Washington national prominence continued to improve with the 2016 recruiting class ranked 16th-best in the country. Castro inked a McDonald's All-American in 2015 class, while UW's 2014 incoming group was ranked in the top-25 nationally.

He arrived at Washington from the University of Tulsa where he served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator from 2011-13. When Castro arrived at Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane were coming off just five wins, but in 2013 they won the Conference USA Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Castro helped put together a pair of top-50 recruiting classes at Tulsa, while also assisting with on-floor coaching, including practice planning, player development and scouting. His final recruiting class was ranked 39th nationally and fourth amongst mid-majors.

In 2012, Castro was first invited to the Nike Villa 7 Clinic for the top 30 assistant coaches in the country. He attended the clinic yearly from 2012-15.

In addition to Castro's duties at Tulsa, he worked as an advance scout for the WNBA's Atlanta Dream.

Castro worked as an assistant coach at the University of Albany during the 2010-11 season. He was responsible for on-the-floor coaching, game scouting, recruiting, game scheduling and served as the liaison to academic and athlete support services. Castro helped coach the Great Danes to their first winning season since becoming a Division I program in 1999.

Prior to his stint at Albany, Castro was an assistant coach at Mercer University for two seasons (2008-10), where he helped coach the second-best turnaround in the country during the 2008-09 season with a 17-13 record, improving from the 2007-08 season by 12 wins, and earn the No. 2 seed in the Atlantic Sun Conference a year later.

Castro was an advance scout for the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx in 2009-10.

Previously, Castro was an assistant men's basketball coach at Rogers State University, an NAIA program in the Sooner Athletic Conference, during its inaugural season in 2007-08 where they went 20-11.

He also held various positions for the University of Oklahoma women's basketball program from 2001-07, including video/travel coordinator (2005-07), volunteer coach (2004-05) and manager/scout team player (2001-04). While with the Sooners, Castro was part of six consecutive NCAA Tournament teams, including a Final Four squad in 2002 and back-to-back Sweet Sixteen teams. Oklahoma captured four Big 12 Conference Tournament championships and three regular-season crowns as well during his time on campus.

Castro, who hails from Denton, Texas, is a graduate of Oklahoma with a bachelor's degree in aviation, and was an instructor in the Aviation Department in 2004-05.

He and his wife, Cindy, have a daughter, Aliya (7) and a son, Alonzo (1).

What They Are Saying About Fred Castro

"Eastern Michigan is gaining a great family. Fred, Cynthia, Aliya and Alonso have impacted our family, campus, program, and city ever since they have been here and have been a huge in every phase of our success since arriving and I feel you can expect the exact same thing at Eastern Michigan. He has the ability to connect anybody he's around, whether that's a coach, player, recruit, booster, anybody, he has a knack for developing and maintaining relationships and fostering connections with people. You couple that with his knowledge on the court, his work ethic, and desire to build and you have got a lethal combination. You have somebody who has all the tools to be successful and make the transition from assistant coach to head coach. I think he has a support system with deep coaching roots which is why I think is coaching tree will branch quickly."

Mike Neighbors, Head Coach University of Washington

"Fred is a quintessential gym rat. He has an unrivaled passion for the game of basketball. As a scout team player here at Oklahoma and then our video coordinator, a young guy getting into the business, he had a hunger that was unquenchable. I think that's what makes him great and will continue to make him great because he never rests. He wants to continually learn and get better. I think he has a great vision of what he wants the program to look like and the framework around which he will build it. I can tell you, nobody will outwork him. He is incredibly bright, has dogged determination, and he has a great feel for the game of basketball. He sees it and has the ability to communicate with players about what he sees, which I think is key to successful coaching. It's not what he knows, it's what he can get them to know and I think that's probably where is greatest gift lies."

Sherri Coale, Head Coach University of Oklahoma claimed two Big XII Conference Tournament and regular season championships and went to the NCAA Tournament every year.

The programs he has worked for have qualified for the NCAA Tournament five times, including trips to the NCAA "Sweet 16" in 2005-06 and 2006-07.

Call holds a bachelor's degree in international area studies from the University of Oklahoma and a master's degree in liberal arts from TCU.

Entering his first year at EMU is Adam Call, who came to Ypsilanti after spending the past two seasons at Stony Brook University as an assistant coach. At Stony Brook, Call worked with the guards while also aiding in scouting, practice planning and game planning.

In two years with the Seawolves, he was part of a team that made back-to-back appearances in the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) while posting 17 victories in each season. In 2015-16, he helped mentor freshman point guard Davion Wingate to All-Rookie Team honors from the America East Conference. Wingate started 14 games at point guard, averaging 8.7 points per game over 30 contests. She won two Rookie of the Week awards in a span of three weeks from Jan. 11-25, scoring in double figures in 12 of 13 games from Dec. 18-Feb. 3.

In Call's first season, he assisted with the development of America East second team guard Kori Bayne-Walker and All-Defensive Team selection, Jessica Ogunnorin. Bayne-Walker led the conference in assists, averaging 5.26 per game, and finished the season ranked eighth in school history in assists.

The Norman, Okla. native arrived at Stony Brook after spending the 2013-14 campaign as the Director of Player Development at the University of Washington, where he helped guide the Huskies to a 20-win season and berth in the WNIT Quarterfinals.

Call was the Director of Basketball Operations at Northwestern from 2011-13, where he ran Joe McKeown Basketball Camps and supervised managerial staff, the video coordinator and interns.

The Horned Frogs of Texas Christian University made a national postseason trip in each of Call's three seasons as video coordinator, including the NCAA Tournament in 2008-09 and 2009-10. TCU claimed the Mountain West Conference regular season title in 2009-10 and played in the WNIT in 2010-11. He began his career as a sophomore at the University of Oklahoma, where he served three seasons as the student manager from 2004-07. The Sooners

Before playing professionally, Olajuwon attended the University of Oklahoma for four seasons helping the Sooners reach the NCAA Final Four in both 2009 and 2010. She also helped guide the Sooners to Big 12 Championships in 2007 and 2009.

During her senior season, she started all 38 games at center, averaging 10.6 points and 7.3 rebounds per game, while also shooting 50.6 percent from the floor. During her final year as a Sooner, she averaged 13.2 points and 8.2 rebounds per game during the team's Final Four run.

Olajuwon played high school basketball at The Marlborough School in Los Angeles and earned four varsity letters under Head Coach Trenton Jackson. As a senior, she averaged 15.9 points and 15.4 rebounds per game as she was named a 2006 McDonald's All-American, while leading Marlborough to three state championships (2003, 2004, 2005).

During her senior year, Olajuwon was named a Women's Basketball Coaches Association All-American, CIF-SS Division IV AA Player of the Year, and Marlborough High School's Athlete of the Year. Her high school accolades continued as she was named to the All-State First Team and All CIF-SS First Team four times, and was named to the USA Today All-American Team her final three seasons.

The California native earned her undergraduate degree in broadcast journalism and electronic media from Oklahoma in 2010.

Entering her first year at EMU is Abi Olajuwon (pronounced Ab-EE uh-LAH-juh-wawn), who came to Ypsilanti after spending the past two seasons at California State University-Fullerton as an assistant coach. At Fullerton, Olajuwon was the recruiting coordinator for the rebuilding Titans' program.

The 2015-16 season was a huge learning year for the Titans as five freshmen saw a combined 3,374 minutes on the floor, with four of them playing over 500 minutes each. Freshman Michelle Berry was one of five freshman named to the All-Freshmen team while also earning a All-Big West Honorable Mention after being one of the conference's top threats in both scoring and rebounding. She ended the season averaging 14.5 points per game, just shy of the freshman school record and averaged 9.1 rebounds per game. The 6-foot-2 freshman also caught the conference's attention by finishing out the regular season in the top 10 out of all Big West players in multiple categories, including: double-doubles (1st, 12), scoring (3rd- 14.5 ppg), rebounding (2nd – 9.1 rpg), offensive rebounds (8th – 2.0 rpg), defensive rebounds (1st – 7.1 rpg) and minutes played (2nd – 35.5 avg/g).

During the 2014-15 season, Fullerton recorded its ninth double-digit win season in the past 10 years and made a run into the Big West Conference Tournament semifinals for the first time since the 2013 season. The Titans worked their way into the school record book on multiple occasions, setting school records in fewest points allowed in a half, most three-point field goals made in a game, most three-point field goals made in a season, and most three-point field goals attempted in a season. Fullerton's defense was historically stingy against UC Irvine on Jan. 15, allowing only 12 points to the Anteaters in the first half en route to a 62-51 victory at Bren Events Center.

Olajuwon, the daughter of NBA Hall of Fame center Hakeem Olajuwon, spent three years playing professionally in the WNBA and overseas. In 2010, she was the fourth pick in the draft by the Chicago Sky and appeared in six games. The following season, Olajuwon was signed by the Tulsa Shock and played 16 games.

A four-year letterwinner at Bayonne High School in Bayonne, N.J., Callaway was named the Hudson County Player of the Year by the Star-Ledger and a third team all-state selection as a senior after leading the squad to a 21-7 record. In her final season, she averaged 20.9 points, 2.1 assists, 2.5 steals and 3.1 rebounds as the team's floor general.

Callaway graduated with a bachelor's degree in the arts and sciences, communication and rhetoric, and a minor in business administration.

Entering her first year at EMU is Cassandra Callaway, who came to Ypsilanti after spending the past few seasons at the high school level.

Most recently, Callaway served as an assistant coach at Saint Anthony's High School in Jersey City, N.J. There, she worked primarily with the guards, while also assisting with practice plans and various other responsibilities. Prior to her stint at Saint Anthony's, Callaway spent a season as a volunteer coach at Malcolm X Shabazz High School in Newark, N.J. In her lone season at Malcolm X Shabazz, Callaway created, developed, and implemented player workouts, oversaw game statistics, and assisted with practice plans.

A solid player at the University of Albany, she helped the Great Danes improve in every season culminating with the program's first NCAA Tournament berth in 2011-12. Overall, UA doubled its win total from her sophomore to senior seasons to finish with 50 victories in the three-year span. She finished her Albany career with 625 points, 116 assists, 81 steals and 44 starts.

During her senior season, Callaway averaged 10.8 points per game and shot a team-best 80.3 percent from the free throw line. The team went undefeated on the road during the America East Conference slate to post a 14-2 conference record. In the AE Tournament, Callaway collected all-tournament team accolades, after netting 23 points in the title game, while also handing out six assists.

In 2010-11, Callaway was tutored by Coach Castro as the Great Danes posted their first winning season since becoming a Division I program in 1999. She averaged 10.0 points per game while adding 42 steals and 39 assists.

Callaway began her collegiate career in 2008-09 at Daytona State College where she led the squad to a 20-9 record. An All-Mid-Florida Conference first-team selection after netting 12.2

Amanda Sorrier is in her first season as the Director of Basketball Operations for the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball program.

Her primary responsibilities will include coordinating Eastern's travel arrangements, directing the summer basketball camp program, supervising the managerial staff, and various other administrative duties.

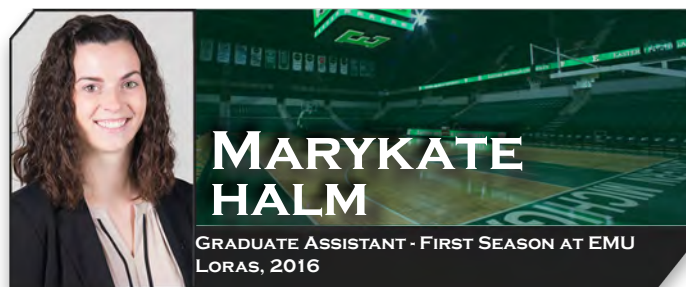

In five years in Tulsa, Sorrier helped the women's basketball team earn a pair of postseason berths. In 2012-13, the team captured the Conference USA tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. The squad followed it up with a WNIT Second Round appearance during the 2014-15 season.

With the Golden Hurricane, she was responsible for team scheduling, office administration, travel accommodations and summer camp administration, as well as serving as the liaison with athletic marketing and media relations.

Sorrier came to Tulsa after serving as the administrative assistant for the University of Arizona women's basketball team for two seasons (2009-11). Her duties included overseeing all aspects of the women's basketball office, maintaining day-to-day calendars, assisting the recruiting coordinator with official visits and coordinating travel itineraries, serving as the assistant director of summer camps, and assisting with the marketing efforts for fan events.

Sorrier's experience with collegiate women's basketball began during her tenure as head manager for the University of Kansas women's basketball team from 2004-09. She coordinated and supervised all entry-level managers, was responsible for the equipment for all road trips, aided the administrative assistant with daily practice activities, including statistics, and assisted the coaches and staff in all aspects of the program.

A native of Stilwell, Kan., Sorrier earned her degree in communication studies from the University of Kansas in 2009.

Marykate Halm, enters her first season with the Eastern Michigan women's basketball program.

Halm is responsible for coordinating all video aspects of scouting and preparation for opponents, film exchange, as well as various marketing and graphic design tasks.

A native of La Grange, Ill., Halm graduated from Loras College with degrees in sport management and marketing in 2016.

Where We're Located

Eastern Michigan University is located in historic Ypsilanti, about 10 miles east of Ann Arbor, 40 miles west of Detroit and just 20 minutes from Detroit Metropolitan Airport. It is an area rich in academic, research, technological and recreational resources. The University also has sites in Livonia, Jackson, Traverse City, Flint, Detroit and Monroe.

EMU's 800 plus-acre campus of scenic flora and wooded areas includes 18 miles of walkways and jogging trails and has 122 buildings throughout the academic and athletic campuses. Eagle Crest – Eastern Michigan's conference center, golf course, and resort – is located on the banks of nearby Ford Lake. Ypsilanti plays a leading role in industry and education. The city and the University have forged close ties that have lasted more than 160 years.

What Makes Us Unique

In 1849, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan formally paved the way for the establishment of Michigan State Normal School, with the exclusive purposes of instructing persons in the art of teaching; providing a good common school education; and giving instruction in the mechanic arts, husbandry, agricultural chemistry and the laws of the United States.

Since its inception, Eastern Michigan, first as a Normal School, then as a College and finally as a University, has grown and developed to respond to the ever-changing needs of society. Over the years, EMU has educated thousands of sons and daughters of Michigan, the nation, and the world.

The university currently serves 22,000 students who are pursuing undergraduate, graduate, specialist, doctoral and certificate degrees in the arts, sciences and professions. In all, more than 200 majors, minors and concentrations are delivered through the University's Colleges of Arts and Sciences; Business; Education; Health and Human Services; Technology, and its graduate school.

Eastern Michigan's exceptional faculty, students and alumni include CEOs from major businesses, a National Student Teacher of the Year, National Teacher of the Year, numerous Fulbright Scholars and Milken Family Foundation National Educators award winners, and several Michigan Teachers of the Year.

EMU is regularly recognized by national publications for its excellence, diversity, and commitment to applied education.

Our Students

With nearly 22,000 students, EMU provides a rich learning environment for the campus community. The University currently has approximately 18,000 undergraduates and 4,000 graduate students. Our students represent 49 states and 93 foreign countries.

Of undergraduate students, 72 percent are full-time and 59 percent are women. The most popular majors are education, business, social sciences and history, science and engineering, English, and the health professions. EMU's undergraduate population is approximately 66 percent white; 18 percent black; 3 percent international; 3 percent Asian-American; 4 percent Hispanic, 0.2 percent Native-American, and 6 percent not answered (i.e. elected not to respond to this inquiry).

Eastern Michigan offers a number of special academic programs to help students succeed. These include the Honors College; the Holman Success Center; distance learning; accelerated format programs; online, weekend and evening programs and courses; American Humanities certification; Study Abroad Tours; a specialized master's degree program for corporations offered onsite; a double master's degree; online technologies for education and training.

With more than 200 academic and social organizations, an extensive intramural sports program, 21 NCAA Division I-A sports and numerous cultural activities from which to choose, EMU students have diverse opportunities to become involved in campus life. Students' on-campus housing choices range from traditional dormitory-style rooms to apartments and include living/learning center options.

Faculty/Staff

Eastern Michigan University employs nearly 700 full-time faculty and 1,000 staff members. Ninety-four percent of EMU professors have doctoral degrees or terminal degrees in their field. The student to faculty ratio is 17:1.

Faculty work closely with students, and many involve students in their research. Recently, the University celebrated its 30th annual Undergraduate Symposium; a benchmark program for undergraduate research.

Community Outreach

Eastern Michigan is making an impact nationally by channeling its academic research as a means of solving real world problems. EMU currently has 14 research institutes and centers that focus on community building and civic engagement, quality, community and regional development, small business development, geospatial education, textiles, export assistance and product development.

EMU is well-known for merging theory and practice for the benefit of the community. Applied research leads to new knowledge, new jobs and new business. Annually, the university receives about $15 million in revenues for sponsored research and community service activities.

The Alumni Association

Representing more than 160,000 alumni and friends, the Alumni Association sponsors social and service-related programs for more than 20 geographically-based and special-interest alumni chapters.

EMU's Economic Impact

Since its founding in 1849, Eastern Michigan has provided quality services to the residents of Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, the State of Michigan and other states and nations.

EMU's total impact on the Michigan economy of an estimated $3.7 billion annually reflects a return of more than $42 for each dollar received from the state. The University's total impact on the Michigan economy results in a contribution of $166 million in state tax revenue. Thus, EMU's impact on state government tax revenue is $1.87 in taxes for each dollar received from the state.

Mission Statement

Eastern Michigan University is committed to excellence in teaching through traditional and innovative approaches, the extension of knowledge through basic and applied research, and creative and artistic expression.

Building on a proud tradition of national leadership in the preparation of teachers, we maximize educational opportunities and personal and professional growth for students from diverse backgrounds through an array of baccalaureate, master's and doctoral programs.

toral programs.

We strive to provide a student-focused learning environment that enhances the lives of students and positively impacts the community. We extend our commitment beyond the campus boundaries to the wider community through service initiatives, and public and private partnerships of mutual interest addressing local, regional, national and international opportunities and challenges.

Our History

Founded in 1849, when the state of Michigan was just 12 years old, Michigan State Normal School was designated by the state legislature as the first institution to educate teachers to serve the public schools. The University thus began, somewhat humbly, as the sixth teacher education institution in the nation. A campus that today comprises more than 800 acres was once a four-acre plot with one building and two programs of study – a classical course and an English Course.

The school's name changed several times – to Michigan State Normal College in 1899; to Eastern Michigan College in 1956; and finally to Eastern Michigan University in 1959. During its first 100 years, the institution certified thousands of teachers and developed the broad-based curricula that ultimately prepared it for university status.

Within that new university, three colleges emerged: Education, Arts and Sciences and the Graduate School. The University has since expanded three more times, adding the College of Business in 1964, the College of Health and Human Services in 1975, and the College of Technology in 1980. More recently, Eastern Michigan has developed Extended Programs and numerous community-focused institutes.

The university has enhanced its learning environment through structural initiatives during the past several years. Recent construction includes the Terrestrial and Aquatic Research Facility (1998), the Convocation Center (1998), the Bruce T. Halle Library (1998), the John W. Porter College of Education Building (1999), the Everett L. Marshall College of Health and Human Services Building (2000), the Village residence hall (2001), University House (2003), new Student Center (2006), and the new Science Complex (2010).

The City of Ypsilanti

Ypsilanti is a city in Washtenaw County with a population of 22,362. Originally a trading post established in 1809 by Gabriel Godfroy, a French-Canadian fur trader from Montreal, a permanent settlement was established on the east side of the Huron River in 1823 by Major Thomas Woodruff. It was incorporated into the Territory of Michigan as the village Woodruff's Grove. A separate community a short distance away on the west side of the river was established in 1825 under the name "Ypsilanti", after Demetrius Ypsilanti, a hero in the Greek War of Independence. Woodruff's Grove changed its name to Ypsilanti in 1829, and the two communities eventually merged.

Henry Ford and the automotive industry came to Ypsilanti in the 1930s and beautiful Ford Lake was created to generate hydroelectric power for the manufacturing plants. During World War II, Ypsilanti became home to the Willow Run Bomber Plant, a factory that would employ 100,000 workers.

Facilities

Our 803-acre campus of scenic flora and wooded areas includes 18 miles of walkways and jogging trails, and has 128 buildings, the Lake House and Rynearson Stadium located on the south side of Huron River. Eagle Crest – our conference center, golf course and resort – is located on the banks of nearby Ford Lake. Most recent additions include the Terrestrial and Aquatic Research Facility (1998); the Convocation Center (1998); the Bruce T. Halle Library (1998); the John W. Porter Building, housing the College of Education (1999); the environmentally sustainable Everett L. Marshall Building, housing the College of Health and Human Services (2000); the renovation of Boone Hall (2000), housing our Extended Programs offices; and The Village (2001), a spacious, apartment-style residence facility. There are currently 11 residence halls and three apartment complexes with 583 units housing more than 4,000 students. The EMU Student Center also opened in November of 2006.

THE BRUCE T. HALLE LIBRARY

The $41-million Bruce T. Halle Library represents the latest technological trends in libraries, integrating traditional print with emerging electronic sources. The 218,000-square-foot facility has 520 computer workstations, 300,000 volumes of open-shelf books, 800,000 volumes in an automated retrieval collection, 3,000 network connection ports, a 100-seat auditorium with seats wired for laptop computers, a 70-seat teleconferencing room, a 130-station computing commons with six learning labs (electronic classrooms), a distance learning lab, a television studio, the Paradox Cafe, individual and group study areas, and self-direction stations.

THE EMU STUDENT CENTER

Since Nov. 6, 2006, EMU Student Center has become the new vibrant hub of activity on EMU's main campus in Ypsilanti, MI. In fact, in April 2007, it was voted the "Best Place to Hang Between Classes" by Eastern Echo readers. From the wide range of eatery choices to the fireplace lounges, there's so much more in between: EMU Bookstore, Chase Bank, wireless Internet access, a 24/7 computer lab, two art galleries, meeting/conference/banquet rooms, a dining room stage, and an auditorium for movies, live performances and guest lectures. Additionally, students will find many EMU student services, programs and organization offices all under one roof. When you view it altogether, EMU Student Center lives up to its slogan: Centered on You!

The Board of Regents is the governing body of Eastern Michigan University. Its current format was created when the State of Michigan ratified a new constitution Jan. 6, 1964. The Board comprises eight regents who are appointed to eight-year terms by the governor.

"Other institutions of higher education established by law having authority to grant baccalaureate degrees shall each be governed by a board of control which shall be a body corporate. The board shall have general supervision of the institution and the control and direction of all expenditures from the institution's funds. It shall, as often as necessary, elect a president of the institution under its supervision. He shall be the principal executive officer of the institution and be ex-officio a member of the board without the right to vote. The board may elect one of its members or may designate the president to preside at board meetings. Each board of control shall consist of eight members who shall hold office for terms of eight years, not more than two of which shall expire in the same year, and who shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Vacancies shall be filled in like manner."

— Michigan Constitution of 1963 (ratified 1964), Article 8

Mike Morris
Chair

Mike Morris was appointed by Governor Rick Snyder in February 2011 to replace Gary Hawks, whose term had expired. He is appointed for a term expiring Dec. 31, 2018. He is the former chairman and chief executive officer of American Electric Power (AEP). From 1997 to 2003, Morris was chairman, president and CEO of Northeast Utilities System. Before joining Northeast Utilities, he was president and CEO of Consumers Energy, principal subsidiary of CMS Energy, and president of CMS Marketing, Services and Trading. He was previously president of Colorado Interstate Gas Co. and executive vice president of marketing, transportation and gas supply for ANR Pipeline Co., both subsidiaries of El Paso Energy. Morris was the founder and president of ANR Gathering Co., one of the first gas marketing companies in the United States. Morris is past chairman of the Edison Electric Institute, Institute of Nuclear Power Operations and Nuclear Electric Insurance Limited. He also serves on the U.S. Department of Energy's Electricity Advisory Board, the National Governors Association's Task Force on Electricity Infrastructure, Business Roundtable (chairing the Business Roundtable's Sustainable Growth Initiative). He serves as a director of the boards of Alcoa, Battelle and The Hartford Financial Services Group, Inc. Morris graduated from Eastern Michigan University with both bachelors and masters degrees in biology. He served on the Board of Regents at Eastern Michigan University from 1997-2004. He is currently serving a second term through 2018. In 1995 he received the university's Distinguished Alumnus Award. During his graduate years, he was commander of the ROTC Brigade. Morris received a law degree, cum laude, from the Detroit College of Law and is a member of the Michigan Bar Association. He previously served as chair of the Finance, Audit and Investment Committee, vice chair of the Educational Policies Committee, chair of the Personnel and Compensation Committee, and vice chair of the Board. He currently serves as a member of the Education Achievement Authority and the EMU Audit Committee.

Mary Treder Lang
Vice Chair

Mary Treder Lang was appointed to the Board of Regents by Governor Rick Snyder in December of 2012 to fill the seat vacated by former Chairman, Roy Wilbanks, with a term ending in December of 2020. After earning a Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting and Marketing from the University of Dayton, Treder Lang began her career at KPMG, located in Detroit where she specialized in financial institutions, non-for-profits and mergers, and acquisitions. Following her time at KPMG, she spent five years in various management positions at SBC/Ameritech. She spent considerable time in the Computer Security District and became a recognized computer security expert amongst the Bell Operating Companies. She ultimately left SBC/Ameritech to establish a new Midwest Office for LINX Technologies, assuming the position of North American (NA) Sales Director. LINX Technologies was acquired by Mosler, Inc. and there she held various senior management positions providing coverage throughout North America. After her time spent with Mosler, Inc. she began working for Siemens, Inc. where she held various positions ranging from NA Sales Director, Sales Manager, and District Manager (first woman), to lastly becoming the Senior Executive-Government for Siemens Building Technologies, Inc. She eventually transitioned her career to Accretive Solutions where she was a Business Development Manager and later joined Baker Tilly in Michigan as Director of Business Development. She currently owns her own CPA firm, Mary Treder Lang, CPA. Mary Treder Lang has held many different leadership positions throughout the years. Her positions have ranged from senior level positions with employers, to executive positions on Board of Directors, to voluntary Treasurer for many organizations. She is active in the Michigan Women's Foundation as a Power of 100 Women Leadership Advisory Cabinet Member, Women's Forum and the East Side Club. In September, 2011 she was appointed by Governor Rick Snyder to the Michigan State Parks and Outdoor Recreation Blue Ribbon Panel. In October, 2012 she received the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Emerging Leader Award given by the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MACPA) for the first time in the State of Michigan. In addition, she is active in her community as a member of the St. Paul's Catholic Church, the Fraternal Order of Police (FOP), the Rotary Club, the Mother's Club for Grosse Pointe South High School, the League of Women Voters, the Grosse Pointe Chamber, the Detroit Regional Chamber, the Detroit Economic Club, a Volunteer Council Member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra (DSO), Past Commodore of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and a Board member of the MACPA. She is also active in philanthropic efforts for the March of Dimes, Leukemia Lymphoma Society, American Cancer Society and Michigan Women's Foundation. Regent Treder Lang is currently Vice Chair of the Board, Chair of the Personnel and Compensation Committee, Vice Chair of the Audit Committee and a member of the Finance and Investment Committee and Student Affairs Committee. In addition, she serves on the Education Achievement Authority Board. She is former vice chair of the Faculty Affairs Committee and former chair of the Finance and Investment Committee.

Dennis Beagen

Dennis Beagen was appointed by Governor Rick Snyder in December 2014 to replace Floyd Clack, whose term had expired. He is appointed for a term expiring December 31, 2022. He currently serves as vice chair of the Faculty Affairs Committee and vice chair of the Student Affairs Committee. Beagen was born and raised in Detroit, Michigan. Upon graduation from high school in 1963, he enrolled at Eastern Michigan University. He received his undergraduate degree from EMU in three years majoring in speech-communication with a minor in business management. After receiving his BS degree from Eastern Michigan University, he was admitted to graduate school at the University of Michigan while serving as a graduate teaching assistant at EMU. While serving as graduate teaching assistant in the Department of Speech & Dramatic Arts, Beagen volunteered to coach EMU students competing in intercollegiate forensics and debate. After completion of his MA degree from the University of Michigan in the summer of 1967, he was hired at EMU as a full-time instructor of speech, and assistant coach for the EMU Forensic/Debate team. He then enrolled at Wayne State University, and completed all course work for his doctoral program. In 1970, Beagen was appointed director of the EMU Forensic program. A position he held until 1981. During his tenure as director of forensics, EMU students achieved eight national team championships, four top speaker in the nation titles, and 27 individual national championships. In the summer of 1981, he was appointed administrative head of the Department of Communication, Media & Theatre Arts. He served in that role for more than three decades. During his tenure as department head for CMTA, Beagen also was appointed to interim administrative positions as associate provost for Academic Affairs, and dean of Continuing Education. Beagen was also appointed to numerous special assignments and task forces, including numerous EMU negotiating teams (faculty, professional technical, and clerical); chair of the 2005 President Search Committee; special assistant to the Provost for the Campaign for Scholars, and the recent Comprehensive Campaign; and chair of the Planning Committee for EMU's prestigious Undergraduate Research Symposium. He is the recipient of the EMU Alumni Association's Teaching Excellence Award, and the Dr. John Porter Distinguished Service Award. In 2003 he received the Institutional Values Award for Team Excellence (Undergraduate Symposium). He was also the recipient of the 2011 Presidential Award for Faculty and Staff Leadership in Advancement. After more than 45 years of service, Dennis Beagen was granted emeritus faculty/administrative status from the Department of Communication, Media & Theatre Arts and Eastern Michigan University.

Michelle Crumm

Michelle Crumm was appointed by Governor Rick Snyder in December 2014 to replace Francine Parker, whose term expired. She is appointed for a term expiring December 31, 2022. She serves as chair of Educational Policies committee, and serves as Founder/CEO of Present Value executive coaching company. As a high energy, serial entrepreneur, Michelle is accomplished in helping leadership teams develop and implement strategy. As co-founder and chief business officer of Adaptive Materials, Inc., Michelle's leadership was instrumental in helping the fuel cell company transition from start-up to second stage, fast-growing advanced manufacturing company. Grown and built in to a successful fuel cell manufacturing company, Adaptive Materials, Inc. was acquired by defense industry giant Ultra Electronics in 2011. Since that time, Michelle has actively participated in many other start-ups as a founder and/or investor and currently has ownership in many local companies. Widely recognized for her leadership, Michelle was named "Executive of the Year" from Ann Arbor, "Most Influential Woman" by Crain's Detroit Business, and one of Entrepreneur Women's "Women of the Year." She was also awarded the prestigious title "Entrepreneur of the Year" by Ernst and Young. During her 12 years leading Adaptive Materials, Adaptive Materials was recognized for its dynamic growth with Ann Arbor SPARK FastTrack, Inc. 5,000, and Inc. 100 Energy Company awards. As a dynamic community participant, Michelle serves on the Board of the Center for Entrepreneurship at the University of Michigan. She is the Vice Chair for the Ann Arbor Area Community Foundation, Chair of the Capital Campaign for Arbor Hospice, and Chair of the Capital Campaign and former Chair of the Board for Emerson Schools. She is an enthusiastic participant of Women's President Organization and Women in Public Policy. Prior to founding Adaptive Materials, Michelle spent nearly five years at Kellogg Company. During her tenure at Kellogg, she was able to accelerate her career with experiences in internal audit, investor relations, and procurement. In addition to Kellogg Company, Michelle has served as an accountant at an automotive supplier and obtained her Certified Public Accountant license while working as an auditor with Plante and Moran. Michelle earned a bachelor of science degree in accounting from Purdue University and a master of business administration degree from University of Michigan.

Beth Fitzsimmons

Beth Fitzsimmons was appointed by Governor Rick Snyder in February 2011 to replace Beth Fitzsimmons was appointed by Governor Rick Snyder in February 2011 to replace Mohamed Okdie. She has served as chair of the Educational Policies Committee, chair of the Student Affairs Committee, and currently is chair of the Finance and Investment Committee, Vice Chair of Educational Policies and a member of the Personnel and Compensation Committee.

Michael Hawks

Michael Hawks was appointed by Governor Rick Snyder in February 2011 to replace Phil Incarnati, whose term had expired. He is appointed for a term expiring Dec. 31, 2018. He serves as chair of the Athletic Affairs committee and a member of the Joint Oversight committee, and chairman of the Eagle Administrative Services Board. He previously served as Vice Chair of Finance and Audit. Hawks was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan and grew up in Ypsilanti Township. He graduated from Ypsilanti High School where he excelled in football and received a full athletic-scholarship from Eastern Michigan University. Hawks earned a varsity letter as a true freshman and went on to be the team's starting Noseguard the next three seasons. While at EMU, he earned a BA in Business Administration and subsequently earned a MA in Higher Education Administration from Michigan State University. After completing his Higher Education, he served as Chief of Staff for the Majority Floor Leader in the Michigan House of Representatives and on the Staff of the Speaker of the House. He currently serves as a director of Governmental Consultant Services Inc. (GCSI) in Lansing, Michigan. GCSI is a multi-client lobbying firm that is consistently recognized as Michigan's number one rated firm. Hawks individually has consistently been voted among the 10 best lobbyists in the state by independent political surveys of Capitol insiders.

James F. Stapleton

James F. Stapleton was appointed by Governor Jennifer Granholm in January of 2007 to replace Karen Valvo. Stapleton was reappointed by Governor Granholm in January 2009 to his own eight-year term that expires December 31, 2016. Stapleton is President and CEO of B&R Consultants. From 2001 through July of 2004 (while continuing to fully own and operate B&R), Stapleton assumed the responsibilities of Senior Vice President of Business Affairs of the Detroit Tigers, making him (for a good majority of his tenure) the highest ranking African-American within the business operations of a Major League Baseball franchise. In July of 2004, Stapleton left Major League Baseball to participate in a group that, in June of 2005, purchased the Minnesota Vikings. He is the former president of the Think Twice Foundation, an organization comprised of African and Jewish American Community Leaders that raised more than $1 million and provided more than 200 units of new and/or refurbished housing for Detroit residents. He is also a past chairman of the Detroit Chapter of the Urban League. Stapleton has also served on several profit and not-for-profit boards, including the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Wayne State University's Shiffman Medical Library Board of Visitors, Ontario Michigan Rail, and the Board of Directors of Detroit Commerce Bank. He currently serves on the Personnel and Compensation Committee and is chair of the Faculty Affairs Committee.

James Webb

James Webb was appointed by Governor Rick Snyder in December 2012 to replace the vacated seat of Thomas Sidlik. He is appointed for a term expiring December 2020. Webb received an A.A. in Business Administration from College of the Sequoias in 1968, a B.B.A. in Management from Eastern Michigan University in 1971, and an M.B.A. in Finance from EMU in 1976. Webb worked for the United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company from 1971 to 1974 as a Property Underwriter, from 1974 to 1976 he worked as a Corporate Insurance Analyst for Masco Corporation, he was an Assistant Insurance Manager for The Budd Company, and from 1977 to 1981 he worked as an Assistant Risk Manager for Republic Steel Corp. Webb is currently the Chairman of Aon Risk Services, Inc. of Michigan. In addition to his work experience, Webb has been very active in the EMU community. In 1988 he received the Alumnus Achievement Award, and in 1989 he was Chair of the Campaign for Champions. He was an original member of the Foundation Board, served as treasurer from 1993 to 1995, vice chair from 1995 to 1997, chair from 1997 to 1999, and in 1999 he became an Emeritus member. He received the Dr. John W. Porter Distinguished Service Award in 1992, was a member of the President Search Committee in 2005, Ethos week Supporter from 2007 to 2012 as well as Ethos Week Speaker in 2007, and was on the College of Business Dean Search Committee in 2012. Webb has also been involved in numerous Not-for-Profit activities. He is a member of the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce, Farmington Hills Police Benevolent Association, Michigan Property & Casualty Association, and was a Director of the Detroit Athletic Club. He is also active in Rainbow Connection (Brooks Patterson's Charity Grants Wishes for Terminally Ill Children) and the City of Cleveland/Operation Improvement Task Force. In addition to the Not-for-Profit activities, he is involved in the Boards of FDI Insurance Limited (Ireland) and FCE Reinsurance Limited (Ireland). Regent Webb is currently the EMU Foundation Board of Trustees representative and is a member of the Joint Oversight Committee, the Eagle Administrative Services Board, Chair of the Audit Committee, Chair of the Faculty Affairs Committee, Vice Chair of Finance and Investment and Vice Chair of Athletic Affairs.

James M. Smith, Ph.D.
President

Dr. James M. Smith is the 23rd president of Eastern Michigan University. He began his duties July 1, 2016.

Before coming to EMU, Smith served as president of Northern State University (NSU) in Aberdeen, South Dakota since June 2009. For the past seven years (2008-2015), NSU has been named by US News and World Report as one of the best undergraduate public institutions in the Midwest.

He has been an active fundraiser and was instrumental in helping NSU obtain the largest donation in its history, a $15 million gift.

Another NSU success was collaborating with the University of Jinan, in Jinan, China, to develop the first and only Confucius Institute in the Dakotas. The Confucius Institute has a specific three-part focus dedicated to the teaching of Chinese language, culture, and business practices. In addition to the traditional start-up funding provided, he was able to gain local and regional support of nearly $500,000 to launch the initiative.

Smith, 60, who grew up near Columbus, Ohio, in Washington Court House, knew early on he wanted to be a teacher. He always had admired teachers and enjoyed school. He became an elementary and middle school teacher after earning his Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education, from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, in 1979. He would go on to earn a Master of Education, Educational Administration, from Xavier University in Cincinnati and a Doctor of Philosophy, Educational Leadership, from Miami University.

Over the next 28 years, he served as an elementary school principal, a teaching fellow and assistant professor at Miami, director of the Experiential Program for Preparing School Principals at Butler University in Indianapolis, and director of the Educational Leadership Program and coordinator of doctoral studies at West Texas A&M University. Smith was also vice president for Economic Development at Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio, before heading to NSU.

Smith's wife, Dr. Connie Ruhl-Smith, has an impressive resume of her own. She has been a teacher, author and administrator, and has done extensive work in student retention and student academic support, introduction of international partnerships, and much more.

Heather Lyke
EMU Vice President/Director of Athletic

Eastern Michigan University's (EMU's) first ever Mid-American Conference (MAC) Cartwright Award for all-around athletic department excellence... EMU's first ever MAC Jacoby Award for female athletic excellence... The highest overall GPA in EMU Athletic History (3.259)... The highest graduation rates in EMU Athletic History... 5000+ hours of student-athlete community service in a single year... 'Champions Built Here' has been more than an athletics mantra during the first three years of Heather Lyke's tenure as EMU Vice President and Director of Athletics, it has defined a new era.

Lyke, the 13th Director of Athletics in Eastern Michigan history, and the first woman to hold the full-time athletic director position at EMU, oversees the MAC's most comprehensive and one of its most successful collegiate athletics programs. The department sponsors 21 fully-funded varsity sports with more than 550+ student-athletes regularly competing for MAC Championships and NCAA Championship selection.

With a firm commitment to student-athlete experience and comprehensive excellence, Lyke has set about transforming EMU into the MAC's dominant athletic program. Under her leadership EMU Athletics has hired 10 head coaches and 12 key administrators. During her three year tenure, EMU coaches and staff have won 15 MAC Coach of the Year Awards, and mentored 13 MAC team champions, 17 MAC Players of the Year, 80 MAC individual champions, 215 All-MAC student-athletes and 364 All-MAC Academic award winners.

Lyke's unwavering emphasis on academic achievement has supported student-athletes who have broken and reset EMU academic records under her watch. In 2013-14, EMU student-athletes turned in a then all-time high overall GPA of 3.159 in the fall, and followed it up with the second highest all-time GPA (3.145) in the winter. 67 student-athletes earned 4.0 GPAs during at least one term and 68% of all student-athletes had a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. EMU's Graduation Success Rate of 77% and Federal Graduation Rate of 61% were also both new EMU records.

Not to be outdone, the 2014-15 EMU fall student-athlete GPA of 3.242 set another all-time record, only to be bested once more when the winter GPA registered at 3.259. The academic year included 73% of all student-athletes, and 16 of 21 teams, achieving a GPA over 3.0. An astonishing 67 student-athletes achieved a 4.0 GPA during at least one term for the second year in row. EMU also held steady at its record 61% Federal Graduation rate and achieved its second highest ever Graduation Success Rate of 75%.

Then in 2015-16, EMU posted a 3.194 GPA during the winter semester for its 13th straight term over a 3.0. Of EMU's athletics programs, 17 teams finished the semester with a GPA better than 3.0.

Lyke is fond of saying great coaches and student-athletes need great teaching environments, and she has wasted no time spearheading a number of necessary capital upgrades, including: substantial completion of the EMU boathouse (rowing), ADA improvements and restrooms at Varsity Field (softball), bleachers and an ADA walkway at Scicluna Field (Soccer), a new Daktronics scoreboard, bleacher motors and electrical upgrades at Jones Natatorium (swimming), an upgraded student-athlete lounge area (football), new turf field (football), new basketball and volleyball practice court, remodeling and design of the EMU nutrition/fueling station and a complete interior re-branding of the Convocation Center atrium, office suites, hallways and Eagles Nest suite.

During the spring of 2015, Lyke and her administrative team also began designing the future of the EMU Athletics footprint. EMU Athletics contracted with construction design firm, AECOM, to create an athletics championship building plan which set forth the vision and priority plan for all facility improvements in the next five years.

Lyke's penchant for facility trend-setting and creative branding was on full display almost immediately with the installation of college football's first gray Revolution Field Turf football field in 2014. As phase one of a comprehensive branding plan for EMU Football and Rynearson Stadium, the new turf received immediate recognition as a USA Today fan vote ranked EMU's new field No. 2 in the nation behind only the University of Tennessee.

With a field designed for players 'tough enough to play on a parking lot,' Lyke and her team have embraced South East Michigan's blue collar roots and automotive history, inspiring an organic re-branding of Rynearson Stadium to become "The Factory." This comprehensive campaign has included Factory signage upgrades throughout the stadium, a re-design of the football team's student-athlete lounge, Factory driven merchandise options and in-game team and fan elements, along with a football game day website, EMUGameday.

com, that takes fans inside The Factory for more details on its history and traditions. The campaign is emboldened by the ever-present slogan 'Champions Built Here.' Now a fixture throughout EMU facilities, social media and marketing materials, Champions Built Here aggressively pronounces that at EMU, and in The Factory, we build champions on the field, in the classroom and in life.

It takes champions to build champions, and from day one Lyke set about upgrading the business model of Eastern Michigan Athletics. Just a few of the companies that have developed first-ever partnerships with EMU during Lyke's two year tenure include: IMG, Learfield Licensing, Aspire, Follett, Fanatics and Google. She has also re-negotiated lucrative new pouring rights and apparel contracts with Pepsi and Adidas that position EMU's agreements as some of the most competitive in the Mid-American Conference.

Lyke's resource development focus has also led to the creation of two critical new groups already making major contributions to the future of the department: Eagles Pride, EMU Athletics' first ever annual fund, was founded in 2014 complete with benefit structure and dedicated website to encourage enrollment. The fund is committed to providing financial support for all EMU teams and providing donors an entry level platform to impact EMU Athletics and its student-athletes. 2015 also saw Lyke's recruitment of the EMU Champions Advisory Board. This group of committed EMU donors plays a number of key roles for EMU Athletics as ambassadors, advocates, advisors and major donors to the department. This group is currently reviewing and participating in the championship building plan process.

Lyke's ability to build relationships has also extended into the Ypsilanti and Southeast Michigan community. With her undergraduate degree in education and a passion for reading, Lyke immediately set about establishing EMU Athletics as a key partner with the 2nd and 7 Foundation, whose goal is to "tackle illiteracy" by having student-athletes visit, deliver books and read to 2nd grade classrooms. In total, EMU averaged better than 10 community service hours per student-athlete in the 2014-15 academic year with 5000+ hours of service performed. In 2014-15 she also served as Chair of the Washtenaw County American Heart Association Heartwalk, setting a university record for fundraised dollars and registered walkers. Lyke has also reached out to some of Detroit's most underfunded neighborhoods and schools by striking a long-term partnership with buildOn, a program for inner city youth to overcome the cycle of poverty through community service leadership. In 2014, Lyke cultivated an anonymous donation of $100,000 to the buildOn program and is developing an annual on-campus visit for all interested buildOn students to tour EMU and enjoy a weekend football game.

An ardent proponent of growing the profession, Lyke is a sought after national speaker, presenter and leader in the business of college athletics. In 2014, she became the first woman ever to chair the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Committee, and led the Mid-American Conference as chair of their Cost of Attendance Task Force. She is an active member of the NACWAA Board of Directors and the Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti Convention and Visitors Bureau Sports Commission.

Lyke came to EMU from The Ohio State University where she was a member of the athletic department's executive team and responsible for the assessment, design and development of the department's strategic plan. She directly oversaw 10 of OSU's 36 athletic programs and managed/supervised 31 full-time coaches and staff. She also had oversight over all facets of the athletic councils involving budget oversight, revenue generation and facilities as well as the golf course operations. Additionally, she supervised the sport performance division of the department, which includes the strength and conditioning coaches, athletic training staff and sports medicine staff. In 2013, she developed the first ever student-athlete internship program within the Department of Athletics, 'Bucks Go Pro.'

Her previous roles at OSU included associate athletic director for sport administration (2002-12) and associate athletic director for sport administration, compliance and camp operations (1998-02). Prior to Ohio State, Lyke was at the University of Cincinnati for two years, serving as the assistant athletic director for compliance as well as the senior woman administrator. Lyke began her athletics administrative career at the NCAA national office as an intern in the enforcement and student-athlete reinstatement department. She also has worked for the Big Ten Network as a color analyst for softball games.

Lyke grew up in Canton, Ohio, and attended the University of Michigan on a softball scholarship. While at U-M, she was a four-year letter winner as a first baseman, two-time team captain, Big Ten champion and Academic All-Big Ten honoree. She earned a Bachelor's of Science in Education from University of Michigan and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Akron School of Law. She was admitted to the Ohio Bar in 1995.

Lyke and her husband, David Catalano, have three children, Elle, Sophie and Eli.

JOEY ALIOTA

MARKETING COORDINATOR

Joey Aliota recently finished his first year as Marketing Coordinator for the Eastern Michigan University athletics department. Aliota joined EMU in the fall of 2015 after spending one season at the University of Oregon as the Marketing & Promotions Assistant.

While at Oregon, Aliota was in charge of the daily management of all marketing and promotional efforts, including developing and executing marketing plans and promotions, while also serving as a game day producer. Additionally, he implemented ticket sales strategies, oversaw in-game sponsor fulfillment, and managed the budget.

Before joining the Ducks, he held the same position at the University of Tulsa. There, Aliota developed and executed marketing plans for the women's soccer, women's basketball, and softball teams. He also played a role in developing promotional strategies for the football and men's basketball programs.

The Oconomowoc, Wis. native is a 2013 graduate of the University of Wyoming, where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and was a student-athlete on the football team.

JENNIFER BROWN

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/SPORTS MEDICINE

Jennifer Brown is in her second year as the Associate Athletics Director for Sports Medicine for the Eastern Michigan University athletic department.

In her role, Brown will be based in the Convocation Center athletic training facility and responsible for the daily sports medicine operation for EMU's 21 varsity sports programs. She will supervise four assistant athletic trainers, numerous graduate and student athletic trainers, and also have primary responsibilities with the school's football team.

Brown arrived in Ypsilanti following an 11-year tenure in the Northwestern University Athletics Department where she most recently served as the Associate Athletics Trainer. At NU, Brown worked directly with the Wildcats' football team.

While in Evanston, Brown was a member of the University's Alcohol and Other Drug Collaborative Team and Biennial Review Committee as well as being a key stakeholder in the NU AOD policy revision last year. She has been active in professional organizations at the state, district, and national levels, most recently serving as the Planning Committee Chair for the Great Lakes Athletic Trainers' Association Annual Meeting and Symposium. Brown has also presented at numerous sports medicine conferences.

Prior to the return to her alma mater, Brown served as an athletic trainer at the University of Colorado (2000-01), the University of Nebraska at Omaha (2001-03) and Northern Illinois University (2003-04).

A native of Machesney Park, Ill., Brown graduated from Northwestern in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in human development and psychological services before going on to earn her master's degree in fitness and wellness management from the University of Nebraska at Omaha in 2003.

She is a NATABOC Certified Athletic Trainer, licensed athletic trainer in Illinois, Michigan and Nebraska, and is an American Heart Association Healthcare Provider.

BECKY DEMEDUK

EAGLES PRIDE FUND DIRECTOR

Becky Demeduk is in her second year as the Eagles Pride Fund Director for the Eastern Michigan University athletic department.

In her role as the Eagles Pride Fund Director she will lead efforts in the development of an annual giving program to support all EMU student-athletes and directly assist head coaches in sport specific fundraising efforts. Demeduk will also play a lead role in athletics events and donor stewardship.

Demeduk comes to Ypsilanti following an eight-month tenure as the finance assistant on a US Senatorial Campaign which raised more than 10 million dollars. Prior to her stint with the US Senatorial Campaign, the Almont, Mich. native spent five years at Oxford Academy of Dance and Performing Arts and Amber's Dance Academy.

A graduate of Central Michigan University, Demeduk spent five years as the Annual Giving Supervisor and two years as a graduate assistant in the athletics marketing department.

Demeduk graduated from Central Michigan University in 2007 with a degree in interpersonal and public communication before earning her master's degree in sport administration from CMU in 2009.

BRYAN FINK

CO-SPORTS PERFORMANCE DIRECTOR

Bryan Fink is in his third year as the Assistant Sports Performance Coach at Eastern Michigan University. Fink joined the EMU Sports Performance staff in 2013-14 after serving as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at Briar Cliff University.

Fink ran the strength and conditioning efforts for Briar Cliff from 2011-14. During his three seasons at BCU, Fink designed and implemented the performance programs for all 18 varsity sports for the Sioux City, Iowa-based institution, in addition to heading up all pre- and postseason speed, agility and conditioning programs for Briar Cliff's football, basketball and volleyball programs. Fink was in charge of all operations within the weight room at BCU, including maintaining and improving the weight room by purchasing and organizing all sport performance equipment.

Before joining the Briar Cliff staff, Fink ran the Sioux City North High School strength and conditioning program for two years. During his time at North, he was in charge of overseeing, developing and implementing all workouts for each athletic team, including the Stars' summer workouts. In addition, Fink oversaw the weight room and other sport performance facilities in order to maximize efficiency.

Prior to joining North High School, Fink served in an internship role for two seasons with Heelan High School in Sioux City. While working at Heelan, he received his first hands-on experience coaching student-athletes about proper sports performance and weight lifting technique.

On top of his professional experience, the Wayne, Neb. native earned his Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) certification through the National Strength and Conditioning Association in January of 2011.

Fink graduated from Morningside College in Sioux City where he was a four-year letterwinner on a three-time national tournament qualifying men's basketball team. He earned a bachelor of arts degree in business administration in 2009, before garnering a master's degree in exercise science from Wayne State College (Neb.) in 2013.

FRED HALE

CO-SPORTS PERFORMANCE DIRECTOR

Fred Hale is in his third year as the Assistant Sports Performance Coach at Eastern Michigan University. Hale joined the EMU Sports Performance staff after serving as a sports performance coach at Power Train Sports Institute for one year.

Prior to his time at Power Train Sports Institute, Hale was an intern for the Buffalo Bills before spending a year with the University of Tennessee, working primarily with the football, baseball and track and field teams.

Hale attended Mercyhurst University where he graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Exercise Science in 2011. The 26-year-old went on to earn his master's in exercise science in 2012 from Mercyhurst while working with the rowing team. In the 2011-12 season, the rowing team won the Dad Vail Regatta, which is the largest collegiate regatta in the United States.

He is Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) under the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA).

A native of Mentor, Ohio, Hale was a three-sport athlete participating in football, wrestling and track and field while garnering all-state honors in football and wrestling at Mentor High School. Hale went on to play football and wrestle at Mercyhurst University where he earned all-conference and All-American honors.

ANDREW HENSLEY

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FACILITIES AND OPERATIONS

Andrew Hensley is in his second year as the Assistant Director of Facilities and Operations for the EMU athletic department.

BEN HERMAN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS

Ben Herman is in his second year as the Assistant Athletics Director for Equipment Operations for the EMU athletic department.

Before coming to Ypsilanti, Herman worked as the Assistant Director for Athletic Equipment Services at San Diego State University where he was responsible for budgeting, purchasing, and issuing athletic equipment for baseball, football, volleyball, lacrosse, swimming, water polo, tennis and golf. Herman was also responsible for a staff of employees and students workers while developing updated policies and procedures for the equipment room.

During his tenure at SDSU, Herman helped guide the transition to ACS, an inventory system for tracking equipment and apparel. Herman's other duties included: coordinating logos and branding for team and staff apparel, fitting athletes with helmets, shoulder pads and footwear, as well as managing school contracts with athletic equipment vendors. During the spring semesters, Herman enjoyed his time collaborating with Head Coach Tony Gwynn and the SDSU baseball program, managing the team's Nike promotional budget and designing innovative custom uniforms.

Prior to his time at San Diego State, Herman did a two year stint as the Assistant Equipment Manager at the University of San Diego where his primary equipment responsibilities were related to football. While at USD, he coordinated a staff of student workers in executing equipment operations and stadium set up for the team's practices, home contests and road trips.

A 2006 graduate of the Ohio State University with a bachelor's degree in sociology, Herman spent three years as a student equipment manager for the Buckeyes where he helped organize and distribute equipment and apparel for OSU's 36 varsity sports, while also assisting the football equipment staff in preparation for practice, games and yearly bowl trips.

Upon graduation from Ohio State, Herman served as the Assistant Equipment Manager at SDSU for one year before doing a full season internship with the San Francisco 49ers, assisting the team with practice set up, laundry and preparation for home and road contests. Herman spent game days with the 49ers representing the team as a member of the NFL blue crew, game ball staff.

A certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA), Herman served as the 2013 AEMA District IX Chairperson and was an Assistant Coordinator for the 2014 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament at Viejas Arena in San Diego, Calif.

A native of Toledo, Herman and his wife, Jamie, have one son, Oliver (3), and one daughter, Ruby.

CHRIS HOPPE

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/ADMINISTRATION

Chris Hoppe is in his sixth year as a member of the Eastern Michigan University athletics department and his third as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Administration.

In his role Hoppe serves as the sport administrator for baseball, rowing, soccer, swimming, tennis and volleyball. He also oversees the equipment, sports medicine, and sports performance staffs.

The 37-year-old Hoppe earned two degrees from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and is currently working on a third. He completed his undergraduate degree, with honors, in English literature in 2000 and earned his Juris Doctorate in the spring of 2003. Hoppe has also been working on a Ph.D in postsecondary education and leadership at UW.

A native of Rhinelander, Wisc., Hoppe began his professional career as a court commissioner for Oneida and Vilas County Circuit Courts in 2003-04.

Upon returning to the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2004 for his Ph.D work, Hoppe began his career in collegiate athletics as an athletic compliance intern for the Badgers in 2005-06.

In 2006, Hoppe joined the San Diego State University Aztecs as a student-athlete eligibility/student services coordinator.

From San Diego State, Hoppe was named the Assistant Athletics Director for compliance and sport supervisor at Robert Morris University in 2008, a post he held until joining EMU as the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance in the summer of 2011. He was promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director for Administration in September 2013.

Hoppe remains a member of the Wisconsin State Bar Association.

SEAN HOSTETTER

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC MEDIA RELATIONS

Sean Hostetter is in his fourth year full-time with the Eastern Michigan University Athletic Media Relations Office serving as a graduate assistant before taking on the role of Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations in Jan. 2013.

Hostetter's responsibilities include the handling of all publicity and publications for the men's basketball, volleyball and tennis teams. In addition to those tasks, Hostetter will coordinate the department's social media efforts.

Prior to coming to EMU, Hostetter spent the 2010-11 season as the Assistant Sports Information Director at Brevard College in North Carolina. There he was the primary contact for the Tornados' soccer, cross country, women's basketball, softball, and track & field teams. He also was the analyst on the men's basketball radio broadcasts.

A native of Livonia, Mich., Hostetter served as the Media Relations

Intern for the Quad Cities River Bandits, then single-A affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals in 2010. He was in charge of the organization of the press box, as well as distributing statistics to media, coaches, and broadcasters, and producing game notes for all media outlets. He also was a webmaster of the River Bandits website and a columnist for the Bandits' monthly gameday program, "Play Ball." Hostetter also served as one-of-three River Bandits radio broadcasters during the season.

Additionally, Hostetter held the title of Broadcasting & Media Relations Intern in the summer of 2009 while he worked for the Burlington Royals, the rookie-A affiliate of the Kansas City Royals. He was the solo radio broadcaster, while serving as the main media contact for the team.

A 2009 graduate of Albion College, Hostetter earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication Studies and Political Science. While at Albion, he served as a sports information student assistant. Hostetter earned a Master of Science in Sport Management from Eastern Michigan in 2013.

He currently resides in Farmington, Mich. and is a member of the College of Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

GARRETT HOTCHKISS

ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Garrett Hotchkiss is in his 10th year as an Academic Counselor for the athletic department at Eastern Michigan University. Hotchkiss joined the Student Athlete Support Services staff full time in 2007 after spending 2006 as a Compliance Assistant and Learning Specialist within the EMU athletic department.

Hotchkiss is currently responsible for providing academic support and monitoring student-athletes academic progress in the sports of men's and women's golf, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track, gymnastics, and tennis.

The 38-year-old Hotchkiss earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Central Michigan University in 2001. He completed his master's degree in sports administration from Xavier University in 2005.

Prior to his time here at EMU, Hotchkiss worked as a research assistant in the Government Affairs office in Washington D.C. for Corning Incorporated. He also worked as a game day operations coordinator at the University of Cincinnati and graduate assistant for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the College of Mount St. Joseph in Cincinnati, Ohio, during his time as a graduate student.

MATT JAKOBSZE

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/COMPLIANCE

Matt Jakobsze is in his fourth year as the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance for the Eastern Michigan University athletic department.

At EMU, Jakobsze serves as a member of the athletic department's Executive Staff. Jakobsze directs and manages all operations associated with the Athletic Department's Compliance Office, with responsibility for legislation, governance, and policy. Jakobsze serves as EMU's liaison to the NCAA and Mid-American Conference offices for NCAA rules interpretations and other matters. Jakobsze's specific duties include dealings with agents, and issues regarding amateurism, promotions, donation requests, financial aid, waivers, and investigations.

Jakobsze joined Eastern Michigan after serving as the Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance at the University of Nebraska Omaha.

Jakobsze joined the Omaha Athletic Department after serving as the Compliance Coordinator at Mid-American Conference member Northern Illinois University. In addition, he supported the Assistant Athletics Director of Compliance and Student Services areas of financial aid, legislation, and playing seasons, and assisted student-athletes' personal growth through the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program.

Prior to serving as the Compliance Coordinator at NIU, Jakobsze started the Huskie Athletic Compliance Office's externship program while attending Northern Illinois University's College of Law.

A 2008 magna cum laude graduate of Dominican University, Jakobsze majored in psychology and political science and was a Northern Athletics Conference Scholar-Athlete. While at Dominican, Jakobsze captained the men's soccer team, and led the Stars to regular and conference tournament championships in 2006 and 2007, NCAA Tournament appearances in 2006 and 2007, as well as to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament in 2006.

In 2011, Jakobsze received his Juris Doctor cum laude from Northern Illinois University's College of Law. While at NIU, Jakobsze was an editor of the Northern Illinois University Law Review, President of the College of Law's Sports & Entertainment Law Society, and represented NIU in the Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition. He has published three articles, including an award winning comment discussing Major League Soccer, collective bargaining, and the antitrust implications of diverging ownership interests.

In addition to serving on the Communications Committee of the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC), Jakobsze is licensed to practice law in the state of Illinois and is a member of the Sports Lawyers Association.

ERIN KIDO

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/ADMINISTRATION

Erin Kido is in her third year as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Administration for the Eastern Michigan University athletic department. Kido came to EMU following a seven-year tenure in the Xavier University Athletics Department where she most recently served as the Associate Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator.

At Xavier, Kido was primarily responsible for coordinating all facets of the Musketeers' comprehensive athletics compliance program and overseeing all of the department's student-athlete welfare priorities, including sports medicine, strength and conditioning, academic support services, gender equity and diversity. She was the athletics department's liaison to the Offices of Admissions, Financial Aid and Residence Life and also served as the sport administrator for the baseball and men's and women's cross country and track and field programs.

Kido is also extensively engaged in intercollegiate athletics nationally. She currently represents the Mid-American Conference on the NCAA Student-Athlete Experience Committee, which has oversight responsibility of nonacademic operating bylaws that impact the overall student-athlete intercollegiate experience. She is also a member of the NCAA Degree Completion Consultants Task Force, which annually awards nearly $1 million in scholarships to former student-athletes who completed their eligibility, but did not complete graduation requirements. She was recently selected to serve as the chair of the MAC's Infractions Committee. Kido previously served on the Board of Directors and the Legislation and Governance Committee of the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC), NCAA Legislative Council, NCAA Recruiting and Athletics Personnel Issues Cabinet and NCAA Subcommittee for Legislative Relief.

Prior to arriving at Xavier in 2007, Kido served as the Director of Compliance for the University of Oklahoma Department of Athletics. While at Oklahoma, she played an integral role in building a strong, comprehensive compliance program that included broad-based rules education, as well as effective and efficient monitoring systems.

In addition to her compliance experience at OU, Kido was the Compliance Graduate Assistant at The Ohio State University. She joined the Ohio State staff after serving as the Championships and Marketing Assistant with the West Coast Conference and working as a student assistant in the UCLA Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

A native of San Jose, Calif., Kido graduated from UCLA in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in physiological science before going on to earn her master's degree in sport and exercise management from Ohio State in 2005.

Kido and her husband, Jared, have a daughter, Sydney.

MIKE MALACH

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/FINANCE AND OPERATIONS

Mike Malach is in his 20th year as a member of the Eastern Michigan University athletics department and his third as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Finance and Operations.

In his role, Malach oversees the department's budget and financial planning, event management, facilities and game operations staff, IT services and is the liaison to the Convocation Center.

The 48-year-old Malach joined the EMU staff in September 1998 after a two-year stint as the athletics business manager at Southeast Missouri State University. He was responsible for the development and control of the entire athletics budget at Southeast Missouri and he assumed the same responsibilities at Eastern, as well as overseeing facilities and game operations.

A 1990 graduate of Carroll University in Waukesha, Wisc., Malach went on to earn a master's degree from Eastern Kentucky University in 1992. After completing his M.A., he joined the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point as an assistant athletics director from 1992-95.

Malach then became a systems engineer with Office Technology Company in March 1995 before moving to Cape Girardeau, Mo., as a member of the Southeast Missouri staff in January 1996.

A native of Denmark, Wisc., Malach attended Denmark High School and was a member of the 1985 boys basketball team that won the Class B state championship. He also participated in baseball and football as a prep.

Malach lives in Milan, Mich. with his wife, Joan, and their son, Brevin (19) and daughter, Elaina (11).

ADAM MARTIN

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS/ASSISTANT FACILITIES COORDINATOR

Adam Martin is in his seventh year with the Eastern Michigan University Athletic Facilities department, and his fourth as the Director of Facilities and Operations.

As the Director of Operations, Martin is responsible for the daily supervision of all athletic facilities at EMU including facility scheduling, maintenance and preparation, and assisting in the planning, management and execution of all athletic events, campus events and external events. Martin hires, trains, and supervises all event management staff along with graduate assistants and student staff. He also assists with various capital, facility maintenance and renovation.

Additionally, Martin also serves as the secondary liaison to all campus-operating units which include: physical plant, public safety, facility management, custodial, outside contractors and other various campus departments.

Martin is also responsible for game management of NCAA Division I-A football, Division I-A men's and women's basketball and all other Olympic sports. He also assists in the coordination of athletic facilities scheduling with coaches and administration in accordance with department scheduling policies.

A native of Albion, Mich., Martin was a four sport athlete as a member of the soccer, baseball, basketball and swimming and diving teams.

Martin earned his bachelor's degree in sports management in 2008 from Siena Heights University, playing soccer for the Saints before earning his master's degree from Eastern Michigan in 2009.

Martin resides in Ypsilanti, Mich. with his wife, Tracy, and their daughters, Natalie Marie and Peyton.

DAN MCLEAN

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/DEVELOPMENT

Dan McLean is in his third year as the Associate Athletic Director for Development for the Eastern Michigan University athletic department. McLean came to EMU after working as a Major Gifts Officer for the Mountaineer Athletic Club at West Virginia University.

McLean joined the Mountaineer Athletic Club staff in August 2012. He was responsible for securing high-end annual gifts and funds for major capital projects, as well as endowing student-athlete scholarships. While working for the MAC, he was a part of a team raising more than $23 million annually for WVU Athletics as a part of the $750 million "A State of Minds" campaign for West Virginia University. During his two years, McLean was accountable for more than $1.8 million in annual gift, major gift and planned giving revenue.

A native of Canton, Mich., McLean went to WVU after spending two years at Fresno State, serving as the director of major gifts before ascending to the assistant athletic director for development position in July 2011. In that position, McLean managed the day-to-day operations of the Bulldog Foundation, including the annual fund, major gifts and sports clubs. McLean led fundraising efforts that raised more than $7 million annually for Fresno State Athletics as a part of the $200 million University "Campaign for Fresno State."

McLean previously served as an athletic development assistant at Fresno State from 2008-09. In between his different appointments at Fresno State, he served as the regional director of development at Oregon State University's Beaver Athletic Student Fund from July 2009-Aug. 2010. While at OSU, McLean was involved with fundraising efforts that raised more than $10.5 million annually for OSU athletics. He also was directly responsible for implementing two new giving programs: "110% Beavers" and "Next Level Beavers," which resulted in more than 1,400 donors increasing their donation and over 800 new donors generating upwards of $1.1 million in new revenue.

McLean received his bachelor's degree in applied arts from Central Michigan University in 2004 and his master's degree in sport administration from Wayne State University in 2007.

He and his wife, Lindsay, have three children, Moxon, Emilia, and Callen, and two dogs, Darby and Barksdale.

TONY ORLANDO

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR / MARKETING

Tony Orlando is in his fourth year as a member of the Eastern Michigan University athletics department and the first as the assistant athletic director. Orlando joined EMU in August 2013 after working two seasons as the Director of Athletic Marketing and Promotions at Eastern Illinois University.

The 30-year-old Orlando joined EIU in 2011. His duties included the coordination of marketing and promotions for each of the Panthers' 21 Division I athletic programs. He also was responsible for social media strategy, purchasing media-buys, organizing football tailgating and the oversight of the spirit squads, Panther Pack Kids Club and the Panther Nation student fan club.

Prior to joining the Panthers, Orlando worked in minor league baseball for the AA affiliate of the Oakland Athletics, the Midland RockHounds. The RockHounds also owned a soccer club, the West Texas Sockers. As the director of game entertainment, presentation and promotions, he oversaw all aspects of the video board operation for both franchises, as well as the gameday management and promotions for each home event. He also played a role in the organizations branding/theme, which led to two all-time attendance records and a Franchise of the Year award in his three seasons with the ball club located in Midland, Texas.

The Algonac, Mich. native is a graduate of Central Michigan University, earning a bachelor's degree in sport management and journalism in 2009. Orlando lives in Westland with his dog, Coconut.

ANN O'SULLIVAN

ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Ann O'Sullivan is in her 14th year as an academic counselor for the athletics department at Eastern Michigan University.

CHRISTIAN SPEARS

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Christian Spears is in his third year as the Deputy Director of Athletics for Eastern Michigan University. Spears arrived in Ypsilanti following a five-year tenure in the Northern Illinois University Athletics Department.

A part of the the athletic department's Executive Leadership Team, Spears oversees the External Division including development, marketing, corporate partnership efforts, fan experience and media relations. He also leads strategies to increase ticket sales, merchandise and other revenue streams. In addition, Spears assists with the administration of the football program and is responsible for football scheduling.

Before coming to EMU, Spears served as the Deputy Director of Athletics and as the sport administrator for the NIU football team. He also served as the acting director of athletics for nearly five months while NIU conducted a national search for their new Director of Athletics following the football team's Orange Bowl appearance in 2013.

While in DeKalb, Spears' responsibilities included serving as the primary liaison between several campus units and Intercollegiate Athletics, including Academic Affairs and Student Affairs as well as the Office of General Counsel.

Additionally, Spears directly supervised the following administrative areas for NIU: Academics, Compliance, Life Skills, Strength and Conditioning, Sport Psychology, Football Operations and Equipment. Moreover, he coordinated the department's Academic Progress Rate (APR) and Graduation Success Rate (GSR). He was also the sport AD for football, men's basketball, baseball, cross country and track and field.

In addition to his duties at Northern Illinois, Spears served as president of the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC) in 2012-13 and on the NAAC Board of Directors from 2008-14.

Prior to joining NIU, Spears served for six years at Southern Illinois University, where he was the Assistant Athletic Director. Spears came to SIU in fall of 2003 from Harvard University.

Spears began his career as a graduate student working in the athletic marketing office at Long Beach State University; he then served as the Big Ten Minority Intern for Ohio State University working in their athletic compliance office while he matriculated through the Moritz College of Law at Ohio State.

Spears is a graduate of the University of Washington, where he majored in political science. He obtained a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Long Beach State University in 1998 and he received his Juris Doctorate from The Ohio State University, Moritz College of Law in 2002.

Christian and his wife, Julia, have three children, Rainier, Kai and Skyla.

GREG STEINER

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR / MEDIA RELATIONS

Greg Steiner is in his 15th year with the Eastern Michigan University Athletic Media Relations Office and his first as the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations. From Dec. 2004 until Oct. 2012, he was the office's assistant director before serving as the assistant athletic director from 2012-16.

He serves as the primary contact for the football women's basketball and golf teams, while aiding in game-day help with nearly all 21 sports.

During his tenure in Ypsilanti, Steiner has directly promoted numerous Academic All-Americans, worked with seven Mid-American Conference championship teams and instituted an aggressive approach to web development through a partnership with SIDEARM Sports to provide better online coverage of Eagle athletic events.

Steiner also oversees the EMU-ESPN initiative and mobile production unit, in which EMU students receive valuable hands-on experience working with professional equipment and producing content for a national audience on ESPN3.

In addition, he has worked as the play-by-play voice for radio and ESPN television broadcasts of EMU sporting events. In 2015, he took over as the host of the weekly

30-minute "All E Coaches Radio Show." Well-known throughout the region, Steiner was part of the media relations staff at the 2008 NCAA Men's Basketball Regional, the 2009 Final Four and the 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Regional.

Steiner has also overseen the statistics crew for the past eight MAC Football Championship games, nine MAC Basketball Tournaments and the previous 10 MAC Baseball Tournaments.

The 35-year-old Steiner worked as a student athletic media relations director at Eastern Michigan for three years. A 2003 graduate of EMU, he graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

During his tenure as a student assistant, Steiner was responsible for the development of the athletics department Web site, as well as most of the office's publications.

Steiner worked four years (2001-05) for WOHL television in Lima, Ohio, as videographer and co-host of "The Friday Night Frenzy" and "The Ottawa Oil Pre-Game Show," a local high school sports show. He completed an internship at Bluffton University during the summer of 2002, where he assisted with the day-to-day operations of the sports information office.

A native of Bluffton, Ohio, Steiner graduated from Bluffton High School in 1999. He is a member of the College of Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Whitney is a certified Master Gardener and has also volunteered with Hospice and animal rescue organizations.

His wife Amy, is a pharmacist.

EM CUP CHAMPIONS

1. Eastern Michigan
2. Coastal Carolina
3. Oregon
4. Texas - Arlington
5. Buffalo

The Eastern Michigan University Convocation Center, in its 18th season as the crown jewel of EMU athletics, opened up a new era of excitement on the west campus of EMU in the fall of 1998.

The state-of-the-art, $29-million facility is the result of a decade-long effort to improve and upgrade university facilities and followed closely the opening of the $41-million Bruce T. Halle Library on the main campus.

Construction of the Convocation Center began in the spring of 1997 and culminated with its dedication game, Dec. 9, 1998, with a men's basketball game against the University of Michigan in front of a crowd of 7,647.

Since its opening, the Convocation Center has served as home court for the Eagles' men's and women's basketball and volleyball teams. The EMU wrestling team and women's gymnastics team have held several meets on the arena floor.

The Convocation Center has also served as the site for six Mid-American Conference Championships. EMU hosted the 2000, 2007 and 2014 MAC Gymnastics Championship and the 2002, 2009 and 2016 MAC Wrestling Championship. The arena has been the host site for 10 first-round MAC Women's Basketball Tournament games, seven first-round games for the men's basketball squad and four first-round MAC Volleyball Tournament games. The building also played host for the EMU women's basketball team's upset of the University of Michigan in the First Round of the 2011 Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT) and a pair of contests during the 2014 Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI). Meanwhile, the EMU men's basketball team hosted the first round of the 2014 CollegeInsider.com Tournament for the program's first postseason home game.

The Convocation Center also played host to the 2008 WNBA's Eastern Conference Finals and the WNBA Championship, as the Detroit Shock utilized the facility for the playoffs.

Along with their commitment to EMU Athletics, the Convocation Center staff has brought some of the finest entertainers in the world to Ypsilanti. The Convo has hosted acts by the Black Crowes, Indigo Girls, Godsmack, Smashmouth, Ludacris, Bob Dillion, Toby Keith, Matchbox Twenty, Goo Goo Dolls, Dave Chapelle, John Mayer and Jay-Z.

The Convocation Center is also the site for EMU's spring and winter commencement ceremonies.

Among other events that have taken place include numerous youth sporting competitions, high school commencements, trade shows, job fairs, conventions, charity and community awareness events as well as a circus.

The 204,316-square-foot facility features three user-friendly levels — arena, concourse and office — and three seating configurations to maximize crowd capacity and space usage. The largest seating capacity is for center-stage entertainment activities, with 9,500 seats available. The capacity for basketball games is approximately 8,800.

EMU's athletic administration is located on the office level, along with offices for the EMU football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball coaching staffs. The EMU Athletic Media Relations Office, as well as offices for the Convocation Center staff, are located on the office level.

The main athletic training room and office space for EMU's sports medicine staff is located on the arena level as are strength and conditioning facilities and equipment rooms.

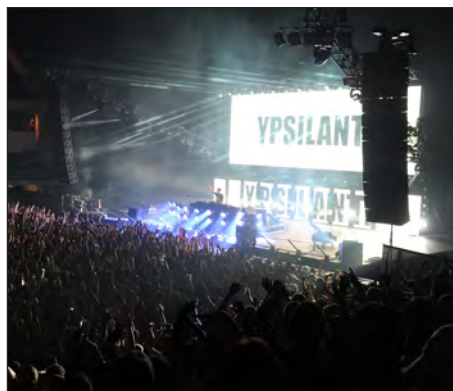

In the summer of 2012, the Convocation Center received a major face-lift, as a YESCO four-sided ceiling hung display sign, featuring video boards on all four sides, was installed above center court in the arena.

The fixture features four 10MM full color video boards, with each board's active area measuring 15.7-foot wide by 11.5-foot tall. In addition, the system also features three ribbon displays on the west and east sides and under the scoreboard. The arena will also showcase an integrated light emitting diode (LED) courtside scorer's table.

There is no doubt that the Convocation Center has become a special place for athletic events, but there is a warm spot in the hearts of Eastern Michigan fans for Bowen Field House, the home for men's and women's basketball games for 43 years.

Bowen was built in 1955 at a cost of $1.25 million. The facility has 79,529 square feet of floor space and includes an eight-laps-to-the-mile indoor track. An additional 9,394 square feet, along with new permanent seating, a new court and upgrading of the facility was completed in 1982 at a cost of $506,938.

Bowen still serves as home to EMU's track teams and also serves as a practice facility for many of Eastern's varsity squads.

WHAT IS NCAA COMPLIANCE?

Eastern Michigan University is committed to operating its intercollegiate athletics program with the highest degree of integrity, sportsmanship, and professionalism, and we urge you to conduct yourself accordingly.

The Eastern Michigan University Office of Athletics Compliance is committed to a comprehensive compliance program that ensures institutional control over the department of athletics.

Our goal is to educate student-athletes, prospective student-athletes, institutional employees, community members, and boosters about the importance of adhering to NCAA, Mid-American Conference, and institutional rules.

A successful athletic department depends on the willingness of coaches, administrators, staff, student-athletes, and boosters to be aware of NCAA, MAC, and institutional rules.

All of us at Eastern Michigan University appreciate your support. Your commitment to rules compliance is necessary to ensure that the University, its student-athletes, and coaches remain in good standing. Our success is due to support from individuals who are cautious and knowledgeable of NCAA rules. Help us win with integrity!

QUESTIONS?

The information on this page contains only a small portion of the existing NCAA rules and regulations. If you have any questions about any NCAA, MAC, or institutional rules, please

FIVE RULES TO REMEMBER

1. FANS HAVE RESPONSIBILITIES

As an individual who is a season ticket holder, a member of an Eastern Michigan University booster organization (e.g., Eagles Pride, E-Gridiron Group), has made financial contributions to EMU, or been involved in promoting EMU's athletic program, you are considered a "Booster" and are required to adhere to an atmosphere of compliance. As a booster, your conduct reflects on the integrity of the entire university.

Once you support EMU Athletics, you retain that identity as a booster forever - the rules still apply! This is true even if the individual no longer contributes to, or is involved with, EMU's athletics program.

2. DON'T GIVE BENEFITS OR INDUCEMENTS

Student-athletes can only receive benefits that other students in the general population can receive. An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an EMU employee or booster to provide a current or prospective student-athlete (or the athlete's relatives or friends) a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of impermissible benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Gifts of cash, clothing, equipment or any other tangible item;
- A special discount, payment arrangement or credit on any purchase or service;
- Loan of money or co-signing of loans;
- A vehicle, use of a vehicle, or any transportation expenses;
- Free or reduced-cost services, purchases or rentals;
- Entertainment on- or off-campus; or
- Free or reduced-cost rent or housing.

The best way to support EMU student-athletes is by donating to Eagles Pride!

3. LEAVE THE RECRUITING TO US!

You're passionate about your EMU Athletics programs and you want everyone to know it! But remember, only EMU coaches and athletic department staff members are permitted to be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters should be aware of the following:

- Do not contact a prospective student-athlete (or members of the prospect's family) by letter, telephone, e-mail, text, online (Facebook, Twitter), or in-person (on- or off-campus) for the purpose of soliciting their participation in EMU's athletic programs.
- Do not contact a prospect's coach, principal, or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect;
- Do not become involved in making arrangements for a prospect (or the prospect's relatives or friends) to receive money or financial aid of any kind;

- Do not visit a prospect's school to acquire films or transcripts in an attempt to evaluate the prospect's academic or athletics eligibility;
- Do not have contact with a prospect (or the prospect's relatives or friends) during any of their visits to EMU's campus;
- Do not contact student-athletes enrolled in other four-year institutions regarding the possibility of transferring to EMU.

Even though there are many rules prohibiting your involvement with prospects and the recruiting process, as a booster you are permitted to do the following:

- Notify EMU coaching staff about noteworthy prospects in your area;
- Attend a prospect's athletics event on your own initiative, as long as you do not have contact with the prospect (or the prospect's parents or coach);
- Continue existing friendships, provided you do not solicit the prospect's enrollment.

Please note, a prospective student-athlete (prospect) is a student who has started classes for the 9th grade (7th grade for Basketball). Students enrolled in preparatory schools and two-year colleges are also considered prospects. An individual remains a prospect even after he/she signs a National Letter of Intent.

If you know of a talented athlete, please let the coaching staff know, and we'll do the rest!

4. KNOW THE CONSEQUENCES!

EMU is responsible for the actions of its boosters. If a booster recruits or provides impermissible benefits to a current or prospective student-athlete (or the athlete's relatives or friends), EMU may be subject to penalties from the NCAA and Mid-American Conference. When a violation occurs, regardless of the intention, it can:

- Jeopardize the eligibility of prospective and current student-athletes;
- Result in the EMU athletics program being penalized by the NCAA and/or the Mid-American Conference; and
- Cause you to lose benefits or privileges associated with the athletics department (i.e., booster membership, ticket privileges).

5. ASK BEFORE YOU ACT!

The NCAA Rules are not limited to the above, and they are often misunderstood. If you have any doubt or questions, please contact the Office of Athletic Compliance. We strongly encourage open communication between fans, supporters, and the EMU Athletic Department.

Remember, our success is due to support from individuals who are cautious and knowledgeable of NCAA rules. Help us win with integrity!

NOT ALWAYS THE EAGLES

Since the 1991 season, Eastern Michigan University athletic teams have gone by the nickname "Eagles."

The Eagles name was officially adopted on May 22, 1991, when the EMU Board of Regents voted to replace the existing Huron nickname and logo with the new one.

EMU originally went by the nicknames "Normalites" and "Men from Ypsi" and various other titles down through the years before "Hurons" was adopted in 1929.

The "Hurons" first came into being as the result of a contest sponsored by the Men's Union in 1929. On Oct. 31 of that year, a three-person committee, composed of Dr. Clyde Ford, Dr. Elmer Lyman and Professor Bert Peet, selected the name "Hurons" from the many entries in the contest.

The name was submitted by two students, Gretchen Borst and George Hanner. Hanner was working at the Huron Hotel at the time of the contest and was no doubt as much influenced by his place of employment as by the Huron Indian tribe. The runner-up name in that contest was Pioneers.

EMU began investigating the appropriateness of its Huron Indian logo after the Michigan Department of Civil Rights issued a report in October 1988 suggesting that all schools using such logos drop them. The report indicated that the use of Native American names, logos and mascots for athletic teams promoted racial stereotypes. At that time, four colleges, 62 high schools and 33 junior high/middle schools in Michigan used Indian logos or names.

The EMU Board of Regents voted to replace the Huron name with Eagles, taken from three recommendations from a committee charged with supplying a new nickname. The other two final names submitted were Green Hornets and Express.

Eastern Eagles Fight Song

"Eastern Eagles, hats off to you!
Fight, fight, fight for ole EMU.
Look to the sky, the Eagles will fly,
the bravest we'll defy.
... Rah,rah, rah!"

"Hold that line for ole Green and White.
Sons and daughters show your might.
So, FIGHT, FIGHT! for ole EMU and vic-tor-y!"

EMU Alma Mater

Eastern, sacred Alma Mater to your name we shall be true.

Ever marching on to victory, we'll stand by to see you through,

Softly floating on the breeze, verdant green with white of snow,

This our banner we will carry in our hearts whe'er we go.

Go Green

Go Green, roll up the score.

Go Green, let's get some more.

Raise a cheer for old Green
and White.

Let's show them we came here to fight.

Go Green, vic'try we'll claim.

Go Green, let's win this game.

We'll always fight for old
EMU.

Come on and let's go Green!

E | EAGLES PRIDE

Eagles Pride provides vital financial support to more than 550 student-athletes at Eastern Michigan University as they strive for excellence on the court and in the classroom. Nearly 1,000 donors generously supported our outstanding scholar-athletes each year.

Established in 1994, Eagles Pride (formerly the EMU Athletic Club) raises funds in three key areas for EMU's 21 varsity athletic teams: annual-use operating funds, endowment, and facility related projects.

Today, annual-use giving is the most critical area of support needed by the Athletic Department. These contributions directly support the operating budgets of our teams and help provide the most basic needs to our coaches and student-athletes, including comprehensive national recruiting efforts, out of region travel to maintain nationally competitive schedules, equipment such as uniforms, balls, nets, bats, and much more.

Gifts to any of our teams, or to the Eagles Pride Fund (which will be used for the most urgent needs of the athletic department), are an investment in the future leaders of the state of Michigan. Join Eagles Pride today and make a difference for EMU Athletics.

Providing leadership in education and diversity, the Mid-American Conference moves into its 70th year of service to our students.

Since its inception in 1946, the Mid-American Conference has progressively grown and developed into one of the most aggressive Division I conferences in the country. One of only 10 football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences, the MAC named Dr. Jon A. Steinbrecher as its eighth commissioner in March of 2009.

The league has grown its commitment to championships by expanding its commitment to neutral site post-season events – football (Ford Field, Detroit), men's and women's basketball (Quicken Loans Arena, Cleveland), softball (Firestone Stadium, Akron) and baseball (All Pro Freight Stadium, Avon, Ohio). The MAC secured a four-year contract extension with Ford Field to host the Marathon MAC Football Championship Game through the 2019 football season, anchored a six-year contract extension for the MAC Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments at Quicken Loans Arena through the 2023 season, and stabilized a five year contract extension through the 2020 season for the MAC Baseball Tournament at All Pro Freight Stadium in Avon, Ohio.

In addition to growing its commitment to MAC championships, Steinbrecher has strategically positioned the MAC's participation in hosting NCAA events and championships. The MAC recently served as the host for the 2015 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Midwest Regional at Quicken Loans Arena in Cleveland and will also serve as host of the 2018 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, also at Quicken Loans Arena. The MAC has previously hosted both the 2012 and 2014 NCAA Women's Bowling Championships under Steinbrecher's direction.

In the summer of 2014, the MAC and ESPN announced a historic 13-year rights extension deal through the 2026-27 season for expanded national television and digital distribution. This is the largest and most extensive agreement in the history of the Conference and brings long-term security for the MAC through the 2026-27 academic year.

ESPN has exclusive television and digital distribution rights for all MAC sporting events, and guarantees coverage of every football game, and select men's and women's basketball and Olympic sporting events. The MAC and ESPN will establish on-campus production capabilities that will provide a significant increase in the national coverage of baseball, softball, soccer, volleyball, wrestling and Olympic sports on ESPN3. This will open up nearly 92 million households from ESPN3 for exposure to MAC sports for the first time in Conference history. Through this ESPN partnership, the MAC and CBS Sports Network announced a four-year sub-licensing agreement to expand its national coverage of football and basketball through the 2018-19 season.

Last season the MAC had five programs receive football bowl invitations: Northern Illinois (Boca Raton Bowl), Bowling Green (Raycom Media Camellia Bowl), Toledo (GoDaddy Bowl), Central Michigan (Popeyes Bahamas Bowl) and Western Michigan (Famous Idaho Potato Bowl).

In December of 2013, former Northern Illinois quarterback Jordan Lynch finished third overall in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest ever finish by a MAC student. Lynch was invited to the Heisman Trophy Award ceremony in New York City and became only the third MAC student-athlete to receive an invitation to the ceremony – Marshall QB Chad Pennington (1999) and Marshall WR Randy Moss (1997).

During the 2014 NFL Draft, Buffalo Bulls linebacker Khalil Mack was the fifth overall selection by the Oakland Raiders. Mack's selection was the highest-ever for the Buffalo program and the second highest ever selection for a MAC student. This marked the second consecutive year for the MAC to have its two highest ever selections in the NFL Draft. In the 2013 NFL Draft, Central Michigan offensive tackle Eric Fisher was selected as the first overall selection by the Kansas City Chiefs, making Fisher the first-ever football player from the MAC selected first overall in the NFL Draft.

In 2012, the MAC witnessed a record setting seven teams receive bowl invitations, including the first ever BCS Bowl invitation with Northern Illinois playing in the Discover Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 2013. The MAC also had four football programs ranked in the top 25 of national polls – Northern Illinois, Kent State, Toledo and Ohio – as the BCS Standings had two MAC programs in the Top 25 at the end of the regular season with No. 15 Northern Illinois and No. 25 Kent State. The MAC also set a conference record for the most wins against FBS opponents with 16 victories.

In the fall of 2013, the MAC announced the creation of newly created bowl games in Boca Raton, Fla., Nassau, Bahamas, Miami Beach, Fla., and Montgomery, Ala. for a six-year period (2014-2019). The creation of the Boca Raton, Popeyes Bahamas and Miami Beach Bowls is the centerpiece of a joint agreement between several FBS conferences and will be supported by several FBS conferences on a six-year rotating basis.

The Boca Raton Bowl will be owned and operated by ESPN and will be played at FAU Stadium, an open air stadium which seats nearly 30,000 fans on the campus of Florida Atlantic University. The Popeyes Bahamas Bowl will be played at Thomas A. Robinson Stadium. The Miami Beach Bowl will be played at Marlins Park. The Camellia Bowl, based in Montgomery, Ala., is owned and operated by ESPN and will be played in the Cramton Bowl, a 25,000 seat stadium.

The MAC is also a partner with the San Diego County Credit Union Pointsettia Bowl as a primary partner in 2017 and 2019, and a secondary partner in 2015, 2016 and 2018 bowl seasons. The MAC will play the Mountain West in both the 2017 and 2019 bowl seasons, played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego.

Each football season the MAC has a minimum five guaranteed bowl opportunities. The MAC has long-term primary contracts with the GoDaddy Bowl (based in Mobile, Ala.) through the 2017 season and Famous Idaho Potato Bowl (based in Boise, Ida.) through the 2019 season.

During the 2014 football season, NIU won the Marathon MAC Football Championship for the third time in the last four years. Kent State safety Jordan Italiano and Bowling Green kicker Tyler Tate were named CoSIDA Capital One First Team Academic All-Americans, while Central Michigan quarterback Cooper Rush added Second Team recognition. Western Michigan freshman running back Jarvion Franklin was named USA Today Freshman All-American. Toledo senior center Greg Mancz was named by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) as Second Team All-American. The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame named 25 MAC students as members of the 2015 Hampshire Honor Society, which recognizes college football players that maintained a 3.20 GPA or better throughout their college career. Four more MAC students were drafted into the NFL, including MAC Defensive Player of the Year and Miami defensive back Quinten Rollins by the Green Bay Packers in the second round.

In men's basketball, the MAC witnessed the No. 2 seed Buffalo Bulls win its first ever MAC Tournament Championship. The MAC had six programs invited to postseason tournaments (NCAA-Buffalo; NIT-Central Michigan; CIT-Bowling Green, Kent State and Western Michigan; CBI-Eastern Michigan). Kent State advanced to the CIT Quarterfinals with wins over Middle Tennessee State and Texas A&M Corpus Christi.

During the 2014-15 academic year, Akron men's soccer team won its 11th MAC Championship, third consecutive and seventh overall in the last eight years. Akron made its 29th NCAA Tournament berth, however it ended as Ohio State advanced on penalty kicks after 15 rounds in a 1-1 tie. Western Michigan's Andy Bevin was named Capital One Academic All-American. Bowling Green assistant coach Eric Reed was named Great Lakes Region Assistant Coach of the Year by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA). NSCAA also named Akron's Adam Najem, Bowling Green's Pat Flynn and West Virginia's Andy Bevin First Team recognition, while Akron's Saad Abdul-Salaam (Second Team) and Bowling Green's Ryan James (Third Team) also received recognition. Akron senior Saad Abdul-Salaam became the tenth Zip to be selected in the first round of the MLS SuperDraft with his 12th overall selection by Sporting Kansas City. West Virginia's Andy Bevin was drafted in the fourth round, 80th overall, in the MLS SuperDraft by the Seattle Sounders FC.

In wrestling, Missouri won its third consecutive MAC Tournament Championship and finished fourth overall at the NCAA Wrestling Championships. Missouri senior Drake Houdashelt won the National Championship at the 149-lb. weight class becoming the tenth MAC National Champion in wrestling, including the third in the last five years. The MAC had 38 wrestlers invited to the 2015 NCAA Wrestling Championships, where eight wrestlers were named All-Americans – Drake Houdashelt, Missouri (1st place at 149); Alan Waters, Missouri (3rd place at 125); Ian Miller, Kent State (5th place at 157); J'Den Cox, Missouri (5th place at 177); Chris Mecate, Old Dominion (6th place at 141); Lavion Mayes, Missouri (7th place at 141); Alexander Richardson, Old Dominion (7th place at 149) and Willie Miklus, Missouri (7th place at 184).

Eastern Michigan claimed its 19th MAC Championship in men's cross country, while Miami's Joe Stewart placed eighth at the Great Lakes Regional and was the first RedHawk to qualify for the national meet since 2008. Eastern Michigan won its 32nd swimming & diving championship. In men's tennis, Buffalo won its first ever MAC title. In men's golf, Miami ended Kent State's six-year reign as the RedHawks won its 13th MAC Tournament title in program history.

Akron won its second consecutive MAC Indoor Track and Field Championship and its fourth title in the last five years. Akron junior Shawn Barber won his second consecutive indoor National Championship in the pole vault and also set a new indoor NCAA Championship record. Barber was also named a finalist for the prestigious Sullivan Award. Akron's Clayton Murphy was named USTFCCA Great Lakes Region Track Athlete of the Year, while Zips Coach Dennis Mitchell was named Coach of the Year. Buffalo's Jonathan Jones was named Field Athlete of the Year, while 10 MAC students were named USTFCCA All-Americans, including six first team and four second team.

In men's outdoor track and field, Eastern Michigan won its 23rd Conference Championship in program history and a total of 62 male athletes from the MAC participated in the 2015 NCAA Men's Track & Field Preliminary Championships, while twenty male athletes advanced and qualified for the NCAA Track & Field Championships.

Buffalo senior Jonathan Jones won the gold in the shot put and became the first National Champion in Buffalo's Division I history with a 20.78-meter heave. Akron junior pole vaulter Shawn Barber won his first-ever NCAA Outdoor Championship as he surpassed 18-4.50 (5.50m) to win his school-record third overall NCAA Championship and in the process become a six-time All-American. The U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) named five MAC students as First-Team All-Americans – Shawn Barber, Akron (Pole Vault); Clayton Murphy, Akron (800 Meters); Jonathan Jones, Buffalo (Shot Put); Donald Scott, Eastern Michigan (Triple Jump); Matthias Tayala, Kent State (Hammer) and four students as Second-Team All-Americans – Miles Dunlap, Kent State (4x400 Relay); Andrew O'Leary, Kent State (4x400 Relay); Matthew Tobin, Kent State (4x400 Relay) and Danny Young, Kent State (4x400 Relay).

In baseball, Ohio won the MAC Tournament Championship for the first time since 1997. Ohio's Connor Sitz threw a no hitter to lead Ohio to a 6-0 win over Bowling Green in the MAC Baseball Tournament, while his no hitter was the first no hitter for the Ohio baseball program since 1996 and is the first no hitter against a Division I program in school history. His no hitter was also the first ever no hitter in MAC Baseball Tournament history. Ball State outfielder Alex Call, Eastern Michigan infielder John Rubino and Kent State pitcher Jared Skolnicki earned Capital One Academic All-America Third Team honors. Ten MAC students were selected in the 2015 MLB Draft – including Akron pitcher J.T. Brubaker, selected by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the sixth round, and Bowling Green catcher Trey Keegan, selected by the Atlanta Braves also in the sixth round.

Women's athletics continued to shine for the MAC this past year. In women's basketball, Ohio won its third MAC Tournament Championship. Seven programs were invited to postseason tournaments (NCAA-Ohio; including a MAC record six to the WNIT-Akron, Ball State, Buffalo, Eastern Michigan, Toledo and Western Michigan). Central Michigan's Crystal Bradford became the highest ever drafted women's basketball player in MAC history as Bradford was selected seventh overall by the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks.

In volleyball, Western Michigan won its fifth MAC Championship and first title since 2000, before falling to Wisconsin in the NCAA Tournament First Round. Eastern Michigan's Jill Briner and Miami's Meg Riley earned CoSIDA Capital One All-Americans. NIU's Mackenzie Roddy and Ohio's Abby Gilleland were named American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) First Team Midwest Region, while Ball State's Hayley Benson and Ohio's Kelly Lamberti were named Honorable Mention.

In women's soccer, Buffalo won its first MAC Tournament Championship. Buffalo suffered a 4-1 loss to Penn State in the programs first ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament First Round. Eastern Michigan's Emily Dzik was named to the Capital One Academic All-America Second Team and CLASS First Team Senior All-American.

In women's cross country, Toledo captured its sixth MAC Championship in program history. Toledo received one of 13 at-large bids for the championships meet after placing third at the Great Lakes Regional.

In field hockey, Kent State won the MAC Championship. The Golden Flashes won the program's first NCAA Tournament game in program history as they defeated Delaware in the NCAA Tournament First Round, before losing to defending national champion, UConn.

Akron won its second consecutive MAC Swimming Championship. Miami's Pei Lin finished second in the three-meter dive and 10th in the one-meter dive at the NCAA Division I Swimming & Diving Championships.

In gymnastics, Kent State won its fifth consecutive MAC Tournament Championship. Central Michigan was selected to compete as a team at the NCAA Regionals. Six additional gymnasts from the MAC were also invited to the Regionals as Bowling Green's Alyssa Nocella finished sixth all-around.

In women's indoor track and field, Eastern Michigan won its fourth MAC Championship in program history. Six MAC student-athletes were named USTFCCA All-Americans, including four first team and two second team.

In women's outdoor track and field, Akron claimed the women's MAC Title. A total of 61 women athletes from the MAC participated in the 2015 NCAA Women's NCAA Track & Field Preliminary Championships, while fourteen women qualified for the NCAA Track & Field Championships.

The U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) named three MAC students as First-Team All-Americans – Alexis Cookes, Akron (Shot Put and Discus); Claudia Garcia Joy, Akron (High Jump); Brooke Pleger, Bowling Green (Hammer) and nine MAC students as Second-Team All-Americans – Alexis Cookes, Akron (Hammer); Caroline Hasse, Akron (Pole Vault); Devone Brown, Central Michigan (Discus); Sarah Chauchard, Eastern Michigan (Heptathlon); Dace Dreimane, Eastern Michigan (Triple Jump); Victoria Voronko, Eastern Michigan (Steeplechase); Jackie Lippelmeier, Kent State (Hammer); Danniell Thomas, Kent State (Shot Put) and Amelia Strickler, Miami (Shot Put).

In women's tennis, Miami won its third consecutive MAC Tournament Championship. In women's golf, Kent State won its 17th consecutive MAC Tournament Championship and finished ninth at the NCAA Regional.

In softball, Ball State won the MAC Tournament Championship. The Cardinals won their first NCAA Regional victory in program history with a 6-3 win over Notre Dame. Ball State's Loren Cihlar, Buffalo's Alexis Curtiss, Kent State's Emma Johnson and Northern Illinois' Emily Naegele were named to the Capital One Academic All-District First Team. Eleven MAC student-athletes were named to the 2015 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Division I All-Region Team.

From two-time Super Bowl quarterback winning Ben Roethlisberger (Miami University), NFL Defensive MVP James Harrison (Kent State University), NFL Pro Bowlers (OT Joe Staley, TE Antonio Gates, WR Antonio Brown), British Open winner Ben Curtis (Kent State University), World Series winning manager Bob Brenly (Ohio University) and Olympic bobsled team member Brock Kreitzburg (University of Toledo), the Mid-American Conference continues to excel in producing leaders in the world of athletics.

History of the MAC

Based in Cleveland since July 1999 following a 15-year stay in Toledo, Ohio, the MAC has established historic measurements in both football and men's and women's basketball since moving to Northeast Ohio. The MAC was founded as a five-school league on February 24, 1946 in Columbus, Ohio with Ohio, Butler, Cincinnati, Wayne State and Western Reserve admitted as charter members. The Mid-American Conference membership consists of 12 universities across five states (Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, New York and Ohio).

In 1946 men's basketball was the first competitive sport in the MAC, which now sponsors a total 23 sports. Women's sports were brought into the conference's structure in 1980. For men, there are 11 championships sponsored in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, golf and tennis. For women, 12 championships are sponsored in basketball, softball, volleyball, cross country, field hockey, golf, soccer, swimming and diving, gymnastics, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and tennis.

GAME 1 • Nov. 17, 2015 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

	Hillsdale	77
	Eastern Michigan	94

YPSILANTI, Mich. – Despite a slow start in the first quarter, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team battled its way to a 94-77 victory over Hillsdale College in its 2015-16 season opener at the Convocation Center, Tuesday Nov. 17.

Junior Cha Sweeney led the Eagles (1-0, 0-0 MAC) in scoring on the day with 25 points, while also dishing out a game-high seven assists. Fellow juniors Phillis Webb and Janay Morton had 18 and 16 points respectively.

The EMU full court press defense was the biggest hassle to the Chargers' attack throughout the day, forcing 20 turnovers. Morton and Webb led EMU with three steals each. The Green and White turned the Hillsdale miscues into 17 points on the day.

As a team, the Eagles shot 46 percent from the floor while going 10-of-21 (48 percent) from three-point land. They used their distinct size advantage throughout the contest outscoring the Chargers 40-32 in the paint while blocking six of their shots. Senior Chanise Baldwin led EMU with three swats in her EMU debut.

As for Hillsdale, they were led by the 20 points of senior Kelsey Cromer, while junior Becca Scherting and freshman Allie Dewire chipped in 17 each.

Both teams came out firing in the first quarter, going back and forth throughout the duration of the period. The difference maker was EMU forcing eight Hillsdale turnovers and turning them into eight points. Despite that, the score was tied 14-14 after one.

The Eagles began to find their stroke in the second quarter, jumping out to a 33-17 advantage on the tail of a 19-3 run, with Webb accounting for 10 of the points. The Eagles shot a scorching 50 percent from the floor in the half, while holding Hillsdale to just 28 percent. At halftime, the Eagles held a 41-26 lead heading into the locker room.

In the second half, Sweeney began to take over, scoring the first eight Eagle points of the period and 10 points total in the third frame. Hillsdale continued to battle though, as they cut the deficit to nine halfway through the quarter. They would get the lead down to as little as eight before EMU took a 64-53 lead into the fourth.

Hillsdale tried to keep the momentum into the final quarter, hitting a three out of the gate, but Morton answered with a three of her own to put the lead back at 11. Morton led the way in the final frame with 10 points in the quarter.

Despite Hillsdale battling close throughout the period, EMU pulled away late in the game sealing the 17 point victory.

GAME 2 • Nov. 17, 2015 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

	UT Rio Grande Valley	56
	Eastern Michigan	78

YPSILANTI, Mich. – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team (2-0, 0-0 MAC) overwhelmed the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (3-2, 0-0 WAC) on their way to a 78-56 win Saturday afternoon, Nov. 21, at the Convocation Center. The Eagles' zone defense forced 17 turnovers while holding the Vaqueros without a field goal for more than 14 minutes in the second half.

Junior Janay Morton led the defensive charge with a career high seven steals to go along with her team-high 19 points. Junior Cha Sweeney also reached double figures on the day, scoring 18 points, while three Eagles led the team in rebounds with seven.

EMU's defense was the main factor on the day, holding both of UTRGV's leading scorers to season-low shooting percentages and point totals. In all, the Vaqueros were held to just 28.6 percent from the floor, including a mere 15.4 percent in the second half. Sophomore Hildur Kjartansdottir led UTRGV offensively, scoring 15 points.

The Eagles got out to a quick start, jumping all over the Vaqueros for a 10-2 lead, but UTRGV battled back off a couple Eagle turnovers to make the score 12-8 midway through the first quarter.

EMU outscored UTRGV 15-5 the rest of the frame before a buzzer-beating three gave by the Vaqueros the Eagles a 27-16 first quarter advantage.

Out of the break, fueled by back-to-back three pointers by senior Sera Ozelci (Ankara, Turkey-TED Ankara College), EMU scored the first 10 points of the frame to take a commanding 37-16 lead. UTRGV did not back down before the half however, and outscored EMU 20-12 in the final seven minutes. The Green and White held a 49-36 edge at halftime.

Morton led the Eagles in the first half on both sides of the ball, dropping 12 points while tying her career-high in steals with five takeaways.

The third quarter saw both teams begin to slow down on the offensive side, as the score sat at 55-39 midway through the period. Sweeney accounted for all six of the Eagle points in that timeframe. In total she scored eight points in the quarter, outscoring the Vaqueros 8-5, and giving EMU a 61-41 lead going into the fourth.

The Eagle defense held UTRGV without a field goal in the entire third quarter, as the Vaqueros shot 0-for-14 in all.

The Green and White continued to stifle UTRGV defensively in the final quarter, holding them without a field goal until the 5:47 mark. The offense couldn't pick them up though, as the Eagles only scored five points themselves in that time. The teams combined for just 22 points the rest of the way, sealing the 78-56 win for EMU.

The contest pitted a pair of standouts from the country of Turkey as EMU's Sera Ozelci and UTRGV's Idil Turk. The game is believed by some media reports to be the first NCAA Division I women's basketball game in which to players from that country played against each other.

GAME 3 • Nov. 22, 2015 • Memorial Coliseum • Lexington, Ky.

	#12/11 Kentucky	89

LEXINGTON, Ky. – Hitting the road for the first time this season, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team squared off against No. 11/12 Kentucky in Memorial Coliseum. The Eagles (2-1, 0-0 MAC) hung with the nationally ranked Wildcats (5-0, 0-0 SEC) but ultimately could not overcome their hot shooting, falling 89-67 in the non-conference affair.

Junior Janay Morton paced the Eagles, scoring a season-high 21 points while adding nine rebounds, five assists, and three steals. Fellow juniors Cha Sweeney and Phillis Webb joined Morton in double figures scoring, chipping in 15 and 10, respectively.

Taking on their first ranked opponent this season, the Green and White did not shy away from the tall task that stood in front of them. Fueled by the early play of Sweeney and Morton on both ends of the floor, the Eagles hung with Kentucky basket-for-basket. While the junior duo combined for 11 of Eastern Michigan's first 13 points, their tenacious defensive effort atop the 2-3 zone forced the Wildcats into eight first quarter turnovers.

With the Eagles in front by three, UK called a timeout hoping to break the Green and White's momentum. Returning to the court, sophomore Sasha Dailey forced a turnover in the backcourt. The extra possession gained by Dailey's high-pressure was capped by a three-pointer by senior Sera Ozelci, lifting the Green and White to a 16-15 lead with 3:30 remaining in the opening frame.

Eastern Michigan went on to outscore the Wildcats, 6-4 en route to a 22-19 lead after 10 minutes of play.

The second quarter was a tale of two runs as UK opened the period with a 10-2 run over the first four and half minutes of the frame. Trailing by as many as 10, the Eagles clawed their way back within two courtesy of an 11-2 run.

Returning to the floor for the second half, trailing by two, the Eagles turned to their captains for production. A buckets by Sweeney, Morton, and Webb allowed the Green and White to regain the lead, 43-42.

EMU's lead did not last long however, as the home team rattled off eight unanswered points to take a 50-43 lead into the media timeout midway through the quarter. The Eagles went on to score the first basket out of the break but it did little to cut UK's momentum. Kentucky outscored the Eagles 24-4 over a seven minute stretch to distance themselves and take a 66-47 lead into the final quarter. Eastern Michigan hit just 2-of-11 shots during the Wildcats' run.

Kentucky increased their lead throughout the fourth quarter despite every effort by the Eagles, eventually handing the Green and White their first setback of the season, 89-67.

GAME 4 • Dec. 1, 2015 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

	Oral Roberts	69
	Eastern Michigan	77

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – Behind a 25-point outing from junior Janay Morton and a double-double from senior Chanise Baldwin, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team bounced back with a 77-69 victory against Oral Roberts University (2-5), Dec. 1, at the Convocation Center. While both teams struggled to score early, the Eagles (3-1) used a substantial advantage in the paint (34-8) to outlast the Golden Eagles Tuesday evening, Dec. 1.

Morton shot 53 percent on 8-of-15 shooting from the floor, while knocking down 66 percent of her shots from beyond the arc. Baldwin posted the first double-double of her Eagle career, as she posted 15 points and 14 rebounds on the night, both of which were season bests.

In addition to Morton and Baldwin, junior Phillis Webb nearly turned in a double-double as well, finishing with 12 points and nine rebounds on the night.

As a team, the Eagles shot 43.5 percent from the floor and converted on a third of their three-point attempts. The Green and White dominated inside, holding a 34-8 advantage in points in the paint. In addition, EMU's 2-3 zone caused problems throughout the game for the Golden Eagles, forcing them into 15 turnovers on the night. The Eagles cashed in on the Golden Eagles' miscues scoring 19 points off turnovers.

The first quarter began with both teams struggling to find their offensive rhythm. The Eagles struck first on a layup from Webb, and from there the Golden Eagles couldn't keep up with the Green and White offense. Throughout the entire quarter, Oral Roberts shot 2-of-12 from three-point land, and just 4-of-20 from the floor, allowing the Eagles to hold a 17-10 edge through 10 minutes of play.

The second quarter saw more of the same, as the Golden Eagles failed to hit shots. At the end of the first half, Oral Roberts was 9-of-33 and 4-of-19 from long range. Defensively, the Eagles managed to force six turnovers in the second period, which led to eight points and kept the momentum in favor of the Green and White. Baldwin anchored the defense, grabbing eight rebounds in the first half. At half, the score stood at 36-23 with the Eagles ahead.

Following the break, the Eagles opened the second half with a three from senior Sera Ozelci. However, the Golden Eagles began to find their shot throughout the quarter, but Morton continued to respond with baskets of her own, as well as setting up her teammates. Morton also closed out the third by hitting a three pointer at the buzzer. After three, the Eagles clung to a 59-45 lead.

Oral Roberts continued to chip away at the Eagles' lead, but the Green and White exploited their advantage in the paint. The Golden Eagles clawed their way back, however, as the EMU lead shrunk to 64-62 mid-way through the fourth. The Green and White responded with a quick 9-0 run following a steal off the inbound by Morton, who then dropped in a layup and converted a free throw. Although Oral Roberts kept it close, the Eagles prevailed 77-69.

GAME 5 • Dec. 4, 2015 • Clune Arena • USAF Academy, Colo.

	Eastern Michigan	72
	Air Force Academy	59

USAF Academy, Colo. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team opened play at the Air Force Classic with a 72-59 win over the Falcons of the Air Force Academy (0-7), Friday, Dec. 4. The Eagles (4-1) overpowered the Falcons for three quarters before withstanding a late run to hold on for a 72-59 victory.

Junior Cha Sweeney led all scorers with 19 points on the night while fellow junior Phillis Webb added 15. Sophomore Sasha Dailey recorded 12 while senior Chanise Baldwin registered her second consecutive double-double (11 points, 10 rebounds). Senior Sera Ozelci led the team, grabbing a career-high 11 caroms.

The Eagles overcame an early 10-4 deficit behind strong 11-of-17 shooting to take a 26-17 lead through the opening period. Sweeney knocked down all four of her shots from the field while Morton and Ozelci hit from deep to fuel a 16-0 run by the Eagles.

Eastern Michigan's defensive effort stepped up in the second half, holding the Falcons to just nine points on 4-of-20 shooting. While Air Force struggled to score, EMU distanced themselves thanks to the dynamic play of Sweeney.

Shooting 50 percent (17-of-34) from the floor, the Eagles took advantage of their size inside to the tune of a 20-2 edge on points scored in the paint.

Holding the Falcons scoreless for the last three minutes of the half, the Green and White held a 41-26 lead at the break.

The full-court pressure of the Eagles kept the Falcons in a frenzy in the early part of the third quarter. Air Force struggled to combat the tenacious backcourt pressure of the EMU guards, turning the ball over three times in the opening minutes.

Air Force broke their scoring drought two minutes into the half, converting a jump shot but it did little to tame the Eagles momentum. Webb caught fire in the third quarter, scoring eight of her 15 points in the frame to help EMU push its lead to as many as 26. Behind Webb's hot hand and another stout defensive sequence in which the Eagles held the Falcons scoreless for nearly three minutes, the Green and White held a 61-39 lead heading into the final quarter.

Despite being outscored 20-11 in the final quarter, the Eagles held off a late push by the Falcons to take a 72-59 win.

GAME 6 • Dec. 5, 2015 • Clune Arena • USAF Academy, Colo.

	Eastern Michigan	59
	Abilene Christian	83

USAF Academy, Colo. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team closed out the Air Force Classic, Dec. 5, with a 1-1 record after an 83-59 setback at the hands of Abilene Christian University. A season-high 18 turnovers paired with shooting struggles plagued the Eagles in the loss.

Shooting 28.6 percent from the floor, the Eagles could not keep pace by Abilene Christian's 43.3 field-goal percentage. The Wildcats shot 40.0 percent from deep, connecting on 14-of-35 attempts from distance while the Green and White converted just 8-of-21 shots from beyond the arc.

Junior Cha Sweeney led the Eagles with 15 points while senior Sera Ozelci added 12 points on 4-of-6 shooting from long range. Senior Rachel Kehoe grabbed a season-high nine rebounds while junior Phillis Webb matched her with nine caroms of her own. For her efforts during the weekend, Chanise Baldwin was selected to the all-tournament team after averaging 9.5 points and 8.0 points in the two games.

Alexis Mason led all scorers with a career-high 29 points, besting her previous record of 28, which was set last season vs. George Mason. She also broke her single-game three-pointers made and attempted records vs. Lamar last season, hitting 7-of-16 shots as the Wildcats set season highs with 14 treys and 3-point field goal percentage (.400).

It was a battle from beyond the arc to start as Abilene Christian converted their first two shots from distance to take an early lead. Ozelci answered the Wildcats challenge, knocking down a three ball from the wing before Webb's layup pulled the Eagles within one, 6-5.

While the Eagles tried to gain their first lead of the contest, the Wildcats fed off of the energy of Mason's hot start from beyond the arc. At the first media timeout, the Eagles found themselves trailing by five, 15-10.

Over the next five minutes, the Eagles played the Wildcats nearly even but could not close the gap. After the opening period of play the Eagles found themselves trailing by six, 21-15.

The Green and White created countless opportunities for themselves around the rim but could not convert, resulting in a three minute long scoreless drought to open the second quarter. Baldwin ended the drought from the charity stripe, converting a pair of free throws. Feeding off the energy of Baldwin's hustle play, the Eagles defense forced an ACU turnover and capitalized via a three-pointer by Ozelci.

Pulling within two on Ozelci's triple, a plethora of miscues and untimely fouls allowed the Wildcats to extend their lead to nine. Despite the deficit, the Eagles did not back down, rallying behind a momentum shifting play by Morton. Driving to the basket, Morton earned the hoop and the harm for an old fashioned three-point play. On the Eagles' next possession, Kehoe corralled an offensive rebound and put it in for two before Webb hit a layup to pull the Eagles within four, 31-27, with 2:15 to play in the quarter.

Unfortunately for the Green and White, Abilene Christian knocked down 5-of-7 shots to close out the half, giving the Wildcats a 37-29 lead at the break.

Back-to-back three pointers by the Wildcats extended the Eagles' deficit to 14 and forced Head Coach Tory Verdell to call a timeout less than two minutes into the third quarter.

Abilene extended their lead to as many as 17 before the Green and White pieced together an 8-0 run over a four minute span. Shrinking the deficit to nine, the Eagles could not combat ACU's hot-handed three-point shooting. Converting 7-of-11 attempts from beyond the arc in the quarter, ACU held a 58-40 lead through three quarters of play.

The Eagles chipped away in the fourth quarter but ultimately could not overcome their own miscues, falling by a final score of 83-59.

GAME 7 • Dec. 8, 2015 • Lavietes Pavilion • Cambridge, Mass.

	Eastern Michigan	85
	Harvard	81

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (EMUEagles.com) – Behind a season-high 31 points by junior Cha Sweeney, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team came back from a late 10-point deficit to top Harvard University (4-5), 85-81, Dec. 8 in Lavietes Pavilion. The Eagles (5-2) withstood a few late runs while an all-around effort led by Sweeney fueled EMU past the Crimson.

Sweeney shot 12-of-26 from the field and a perfect 6-of-6 from the free throw line on her way to eclipsing the 30-point mark for the first time this season. Fellow junior Phillis Webb added 18 points while falling one rebound short of a double-double. Junior Janay Morton also reached double figures, scoring 11 points to go along with six rebounds and four steals.

The Eagles clean play throughout the game gave them a +14 turnover margin as the Green and White forced the Crimson into 20 miscues. Eastern made the most of Harvard's turnovers, cashing them in for 22 points.

After Harvard opened with an early lead, Morton evened the score at five with a three-pointer, but the shot from long-range did little to quiet the Crimson as Harvard scored six unanswered points to regain control. With his team trailing 11-6, Head Coach Tory Verdi called a timeout with hopes of cutting Harvard's momentum.

Out of the break, back-to-back three-pointers by senior Sera Ozelci reenergized the Eagles before sophomore Sasha Dailey scored an easy layup. Webb then intercepted a pass on the ensuing in-bounds. Swiping the pass at midcourt, Webb attacked the defense and laid it in for two, tying the score at 15.

Looking as though Harvard would close the opening period with control, graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin stepped and imposed her will in the paint. Corraling an offensive rebound, Baldwin's put back pulled the Eagles within three, 22-19, through one quarter of play.

In the second quarter, foul trouble forced the Eagles to rely heavily on the play of their bench. Dailey, along with fellow sophomores Tori Easley and Mich Robinson, were up to the task, fueling the Green and White to their first lead of the game. A pull-up jumper by Robinson was followed by an easy bucket by Webb, putting the Eagles in front for the first time, 27-26, with six minutes to play in the half.

For the remainder of the second quarter, the Eagles kept it within one behind balanced scoring. Another triple by Ozelci and a jumper from the elbow by Easley made the score 33-32 in favor of the home team. Over the next three minutes of play however, the Eagles were outscored 8-4, allowing Harvard to take a 41-36 edge into halftime.

Harvard extended their lead to double-digits, 50-40, early in the second half. With his team facing a 10-point deficit early, Head Coach Tory Verdi burned a timeout to regroup. The break in play proved to be just what the Eagles needed. Fueled by 11 points from Sweeney and four points by Webb, the Eagles went on a 15-0 run to take a 55-50 lead. The Crimson clawed their way back before the end of the quarter, regaining the lead with 20 seconds left in the period.

Trailing 62-59 with 10 minutes to play, the Eagles offense stalled. Back-to-back empty possessions by the Green and White were answered by back-to-back buckets by the Crimson, extending their lead to eight, 67-59. Baskets by Webb, Dailey, Sweeney, and Morton allowed the Eagles to tie the game at 75 with two minutes to play.

After a defensive stand by the Eagles that forced a shot-clock violation by the Crimson, Sweeney drove the lane and hit a floater to give EMU a 77-75 lead. From there, the Crimson pulled within a basket several times, but the Eagles closed it down from the free throw line, hitting 8-of-8 from the line, to secure the 85-81 win for Eastern Michigan.

GAME 8 • Dec. 10, 2015 • Multipurpose Activity Center-West Long Branch, N.J.

	Eastern Michigan	78
	Monmouth	68

WEST LONG BRANCH, N.J. (EMUEagles.com) – Junior Janay Morton scored the 1,000th point of her career as the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team escaped with a 78-68 non-conference win over Monmouth University, Dec. 10, at The MAC. The Green and White led by as many as 18 before the Hawks (2-6) took the lead early in the fourth quarter only to have the Eagles regain the lead late in the period on their way to a 78-68 victory.

Junior Phillis Webb recorded her first double-double of the season in the win, scoring 20 points while grabbing 11 rebounds while junior Cha Sweeney led all scorers with 26 points. Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin added 10 rebounds in the win.

Defense dictated play early, as the Eagles benefited from a steal by Morton, a block by Baldwin, and MU miscues over the first four minutes of play to take a 5-1 lead while holding Monmouth without a made basket through their first seven attempts. The Hawks scoring drought ended with 4:21 left in the opening period as Sarah Olson knocked down a three-pointer to cut EMU's lead to 9-4 but the Eagles responded on their next offensive possession.

Behind five points by Morton and high-pressure backcourt defense, the Eagles held a 16-9 edge through the first ten minutes of play.

Eastern Michigan scored the first nine points of the second quarter, capped by a three-pointer by senior Sera Ozelci to extend their lead to 14. Like the first quarter, the Green and White held the Hawks scoreless for the first three minutes of the period but back-to-back three-pointers pulled Monmouth within eight points.

Shooting 52.9 percent from the field in the quarter as a team, Sweeney's balanced play fueled the Eagles to a 15-point halftime lead. Knocking down shot after shot, Sweeney slipped passes to Baldwin and senior Rachel Kehoe on pick-and-rolls before hitting a step-back three with time expiring to give the Green and White a 38-23 lead at the break.

Seven third quarter three-pointers by Monmouth pulled the Hawks within one late in the third period. The Eagles maintained an eight-point cushion for most of the period, but a three-minute low scoreless drought allowed the Hawks to mount a comeback.

The Eagles opened the final quarter of play clinging to a one point lead, 54-53. Monmouth's hot shooting from the previous period carried over into the final frame as the Hawks gained their first lead of the game with 6:34 to play. MU went on to extend its lead to as many as seven before Webb took over. Scoring 10 of her 20 points in the final 4:32 of play, Webb highlighted a 9-0 run by the Eagles in which the Green and White reclaimed the lead.

As Webb and the Eagles heated up, the Hawks faded allowing EMU to push its lead to double digits. Free throws down the stretch by Sweeney sealed the deal for the Eagles, as they claimed a 78-68 win.

The Thursday night match up marked the return of EMU Assistant Coach Carly Thibault to her alma mater for the first time since graduating in 2013. A four-year member of the Monmouth women's basketball team, Thibault was a prominent player from beyond the arc, finishing third in program history with 166 made three-pointers.

GAME 9 • Dec. 18 2015 • Activities Center • Livonia, Mich.

	Eastern Michigan	104
	Madonna	45

LIVONIA, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – With final exams in the rearview mirror, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team returned to the hardwood Friday, Dec. 18, to wrap up a five-game road trip. The Eagles (6-2) made the short trip to The Activities Center to take on Madonna University (3-8, 3-4 WHAC), where seven Eagles scored in double digits to overpower the Crusaders, 104-45.

The balanced box score of the Eagles marked the first time since Nov. 30, 2013, that seven players recorded double-digit scoring efforts and believed to be just the second time in school history the feat has been accomplished. Additionally, the Eagles forced the Crusaders into 32 turnovers in the contest, the most forced miscues by EMU since Niagara committed 31, Dec. 28, 2011.

Junior Janay Morton led the way, scoring a team-high 16 points while adding five assists. Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin registered the third double-double of her EMU career with 15 points and a team-high 10 rebounds. Senior Sera Ozelci added 12 points on 4-of-8 shooting from beyond the arc while senior Rachel Kehoe and junior Cha Sweeney added 11 each and sophomore Tori Easley chipped in career-high 10.

Eastern Michigan's defensive pressure overwhelmed the Crusaders early on, holding them to just three points over the first four minutes of play. The stout defensive effort of the Green and White fueled a strong offensive start, paced by the play of Kehoe and Webb. Together the duo combined for eight of the Eagles' first 10 points, as Eastern grabbed an early 10-3 lead.

Following a media timeout midway through the quarter, Ozelci knocked down a baseline triple before Easley converted a pull-up jumper to extend EMU's lead to 12, 15-3.

Madonna hit a few shots late in the opening period but the Eagles controlled the game, 26-9, through 10 minutes of play.

The Eagles kept their foot on the gas in the second quarter, forcing the Crusaders into nine turnovers while shooting nearly 58 percent from the floor. Kehoe and Baldwin led the charge in the second quarter, combining for 14 points and six rebounds, giving the Eagles a 62-19 lead at halftime.

EMU's offensive explosion of 36 points marked its most scored in a quarter this season while the 62-point first half performance ranks fourth in program history.

Madonna hit a three to open the half, but a 13-2 run by the Eagles extended their lead to 53, 77-24, with five minutes to play in the third period. From that point forward, the Eagles outscored the Crusaders 10-0, to take a 63-point lead into the final quarter of play.

The Eagles led by as many as 72 in the fourth quarter, before overpowering Madonna by a final score of 104-45. With the win, the Eagles finished 4-1 on a season-long five-game road trip.

GAME 10 • Dec. 23, 2015 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

Michigan	63
Eastern Michigan	64

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team knocked off Washtenaw County rival, University of Michigan, for the first time since the 2012-13 season in a thrilling game at the Convocation Center, Dec. 23. The Eagles (8-2) trailed for 39 minutes before regaining the lead with one minute to play, upending Michigan (8-3) by a final score of 64-63.

Junior Phillis Webb led EMU with 22 points while finishing just one rebound shy of the double-double. The other Eagles in double figures were graduate student Chanise Baldwin with 14 points and juniors Cha Sweeney and Janay Morton with 12 and 11 points, respectively.

The Green and White out-shot the Maize and Blue in the contest 45 percent to 40 percent, while also converting 10-of-11 from the free throw line. Eastern also out-rebounded Michigan by a 37-35 margin, and forced 18 turnovers, which they turned into 20 points.

The game got out to a blistering start with both teams shooting just about 50 percent from the floor in the first quarter. Neither team could take much of a lead in the first frame, with the largest only being six points which came right at the end of the first quarter on a buzzer beating layup. U of M took a 21-15 lead into the second period.

U of M continued building the lead in the second quarter, holding EMU without a field goal until the 5:07 mark, while building a 32-19 lead in that span. The lead got as high as 16 before a pair of EMU three-pointers from Morton and senior Sera Ozelci helped get the lead down to as few as 12 with about two minutes left. The 12 points was the differential going into the half, with the Wolverines in front 43-31.

The second half started off slowly for both squads, as the two combined for just five points in the first four minutes. At the media timeout, the score stood 50-36 in Michigan's favor. The Eagles finally got the deficit down into single digits around the three minute mark on a Morton three pointer to make it a 50-41 game. It was the first time the lead was single digits since the seven minute mark of the second quarter.

EMU could not get any closer in the third frame however, after another buzzer beating shot, U of M took a 57-45 lead into the final period.

Out of the final break, EMU went on a 9-0 run in the first three minutes to cut the U of M lead down to three. Michigan stopped the bleeding with a three pointer with seven minutes to play, putting the lead back at six, but back-to-back buckets by Sweeney made it a one score game at the midway point.

After both teams traded possessions for three minutes, a Sweeney layup tied the game at 60. Following a missed Wolverine jumper, the Eagles ran the floor, ultimately taking the lead on a putback by Baldwin. The layup by the Pontiac, Mich. native gave the Eagles their first lead since the seven minute mark in the first quarter.

Michigan answered right back with a layup of their own, but EMU had the response with a Webb jumper to get the lead back, 64-62. With the shot clock off, U of M drew the foul, getting a chance to tie the game from the line. Converting just one-of-two, Webb corralled the rebound on the missed free throw and immediately drew a foul. With 5.5 seconds left on the clock, the Eagles inbounded the ball to Sweeney who dribbled out the clock, sealing Eastern Michigan's comeback win, 64-63.

GAME 11 • Dec. 30, 2015 • Calihan Hall • Detroit, Mich.

Eastern Michigan	85
Detroit	68

DETROIT, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team made the short trip into the Motor City for their final non-conference contest of the season Wednesday, Dec. 30, looking to secure their fifth consecutive victory. Taking on the Titans of the University of Detroit Mercy (4-7) in Calihan Hall, the Eagles (9-2) closed out the calendar year with an 85-68 road win.

Junior Cha Sweeney scored a team-high 23, while filling in the box score with seven assists, seven rebounds, and four steals. Sophomore Sasha Dailey (Toledo, Ohio) added a season-high 18 points and junior Janay Morton scored 16, while junior Phillis Webb and graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin chipped in 14 and 10 points, respectively.

Eastern Michigan outshot the Titans in every aspect of the game, converting 53.1 percent (34-of-64) of its shots from the field compared to Detroit's 39.3 field goal percentage (22-of-56). Additionally, the Eagles held the upper hand from long range (36.0 to 33.3 percent) and the charity stripe (80.0 to 75.0 percent).

Back-to-back-to-back three-pointers by Morton put the Eagles in front 9-0 four minutes into the contest, and set the pace for a majority of the first quarter. Dailey knocked down a shot just inside the three-point arc before Detroit broke their scoring drought, with 3:20 left on the clock.

Another three by Morton and six points by Dailey lifted the Eagles to a 20-8 lead after the opening frame.

With the shot clock winding down, a baseline jumper by Sweeney kick started a 12-4 run by the Green and White in the opening minutes of the second quarter.

Following a triple by the Titans, the Eagles turned up the pressure defensively. A pair of steals in the back court by Sweeney resulted in easy buckets for Dailey and Baldwin as Eastern Michigan extended their lead to 20 with just under three minutes remaining in the half.

EMU closed out the half on a 9-3 run, capped by a baseline three-pointer by Sweeney, to take a 47-21 lead into halftime.

The Eagles shot an astonishing 63.3 percent from the floor over the first 20 minutes of play, highlighted by a 7-of-14 showing from beyond the arc. Meanwhile, the tenacious defense of the Green and White held the Titans to 24 percent shooting from the field.

Detroit's shooting woes of the first half fell by the wayside in the second half as the Titans drained four three-pointers in the first four minutes of the third quarter.

Despite a valiant effort by UDM to cut into their lead, the Eagles stood strong. Morton and Webb scored early on before Sweeney turned defense into offense. Taking advantage of the Titans youth at point guard, Sweeney's on-ball defense flustered Detroit forcing a pair of miscues and cashing them in for points, giving the Eagles a 60-33 lead midway through the quarter.

Over the next five minutes of the period, the Titans outscored the Eagles 18-11, cutting EMU's lead to 20, 71-51, through three quarters of play. The Titans pulled within 15 several times in the final frame but the Eagles kept their cool, hanging on for an 85-68 victory.

GAME 12 • Jan. 2, 2016 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

Buffalo	56
Eastern Michigan	67

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team opened Mid-American Conference play with its sixth consecutive victory, 67-56, over the University at Buffalo, Saturday Jan. 2, inside the Convocation Center. Facing off against the conference's top defense, the Eagles (10-2, 1-0 MAC) led by as many as 16 before coming away with an 11-point win.

Junior Cha Sweeney led all scorers with 22 points on 7-of-17 shooting. The 5-foot-2 point guard also registered six rebounds, four assists, and three steals. Fellow junior Phillis Webb registered double-digit scoring for the sixth straight game, finishing with 12 points and seven rebounds. Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin chipped in five points while leading the Green and White with nine rebounds.

Eastern benefited from an 18-5 advantage in points off turnovers as Buffalo committed 21 turnovers in the game compared to 11 miscues by the Eagles. A relentless effort by the Bulls however, kept them in the game as UB used 20 offensive rebounds to score 23 second chance points.

The Bulls (8-4, 0-1 MAC) used a series of offensive rebounds to take an early lead before a 6-2 run by the Eagles gave EMU a 6-4 edge with 6:18 to play in the opening frame. Unfortunately for the Green and White, Joanna Smith led the Bulls' charge as EMU's offense stalled, scoring seven points of UB's 13 points. Held scoreless for more than six minutes, the Eagles found themselves trailing by five, 13-8, after one quarter of play.

In the second period, the Eagles forced Smith to the bench leaving the Bulls without their leading scorer for the remainder of the half. As Buffalo searched for offense, the Eagles chipped away at the deficit, pulling within two with 6:30 to play.

Scoping up an errant pass near half court with the shot clock winding down, Sweeney attacked a double team and tossed up a desperation heave. Fouled on the shot, Sweeney converted three shots from the line to give the Eagles a 16-15 lead.

EMU extended its lead to 18-15 before a three-pointer by Stephanie Reid tied the game at 18 and ended a seven-minute scoring drought for the Bulls, with 3:10 to play in the period.

Looking as though the Eagles would head into the half with a four point lead, sophomore Sasha Dailey snagged a rebound and immediately passed to Sweeney. Moving down the court with just 4.2 seconds left on the clock, Sweeney dishd to senior Sera Ozelci for a three-pointer at the buzzer. The triple by the Turkish sharpshooter gave EMU a 28-21 lead at the midway point.

The Eagles opened the second half with seven points by Sweeney before Buffalo knocked down their first bucket with 7:20 left in the frame. Inconsistent scoring paired with repeated struggles to break the Eagles' full court press shutdown the Bulls as Eastern extended their lead to as many as 16.

In front 48-34 heading into the final quarter of play, EMU quickly saw its lead shrink to nine as the Bulls rattled off seven unanswered points to force Head Coach Tory Verdi to burn a timeout with 7:21 left on the clock.

The brief regrouping session did little to tame the Bulls as Karin Moss' jumper pulled them within three, 52-49 with just under five minutes to play.

Returning to the floor, the Eagles pushed their lead to five as Sweeney sank a floater on a drive to the hoop, ending a four-minute stretch in which Eastern was held without a basket.

The bucket by the Toledo, Ohio native reenergized the Green and White as back-to-back makes by Morton and Sweeney gave the Eagles a six-point cushion with 3:41 left.

After Buffalo's Karin Moss hit her second three-pointer of the game, the Eagles closed out the game on a 10-2 run to escape with a 67-56 conference-opening victory.

GAME 12 • Jan. 6, 2016 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

Akron	68
Eastern Michigan	65

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com)—The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team's six-game winning streak came to an end in overtime Wednesday, Jan. 6, as the Eagles dropped a Mid-American Conference contest at the Convocation Center to the University of Akron, 68-65.

Junior Phillis Webb recorded her second double-double of the season, scoring 16 points to go along with a career-high 15 rebounds. Junior Cha Sweeney led the Eagles in scoring with 20 points while adding six rebounds and five assists.

Eastern Michigan's defense controlled the majority of the first period, while the helping hand of Morton allowed the Eagles to take control early. Morton dished out assists to Webb and senior Rachel Kehoe before knocking down a pull-up jumper to give the Green and White an 8-2 lead.

Akron burned an early timeout after senior Sera Ozelci hit a three-pointer from the wing to extend EMU's edge to nine, 11-2.

The game's first timeout did little to cool off the Eagles as the team returned to the floor and forced Akron into a shot clock violation on its first trip down the floor. EMU's disruptive defensive pressure forced another timeout moments later, with the score 15-4 in favor of the Green and White.

The Zips settled into a groove offensively late in the first quarter, closing the frame on a 7-3 run. Despite the push by the visitors, the score stood in favor of the Eagles, 18-11, after the first 10 minutes of play.

After the Eagles extended their lead to as many as 12, the Zips rattled off 11 unanswered points to pull within one, 23-22, with two and a half minutes left in the half. Sweeney ended the Zips' run with a jumper before her three-pointer just before the buzzer sent Eastern Michigan into the locker room in front, 28-22.

Seven third quarter turnovers by the Eagles allowed Akron to take its first lead of the game (34-32) with 4:45 to play in the period. The Zips lead did not last long however as Morton hit from long range before sophomore Sasha Dailey swiped a pass near half court and pulled up for a jumper in transition to even the score at 37. Sophomore Tori Easley scored the final basket of the quarter, giving EMU a 39-38 lead through 30 minutes of play.

Despite carrying a lead into the final quarter, the Eagles trailed by five, 51-46, after a three-pointer by Akron's Hannah Plybon with 3:01 left on the clock.

A jumper by Dailey sparked the Eagles with 2:10 to play as Sweeney hit a free throw and a floater to level the score at 51 with under a minute left in the game.

Akron converted 1-of-2 from the free throw line after drawing a foul to take a one-point advantage but Webb knocked down two from the line to give the home team a 53-52 lead with 29 seconds on the clock.

With the Zips searching for the final shot of the game, Dailey stepped in and swiped a pass near the three-point arc and went coast-to-coast for the layup, giving the Eagles a 55-52 lead.

Akron took a timeout, advancing the ball to half court, with 3.2 ticks remaining. On the inbound, the Zips ultimately skipped a pass across the baseline to Anita Brown who was spotting up on the three-point line. Controlling the pass cleanly, Brown's three-pointer swished through the net as the buzzer sounded, forcing overtime.

In extra time, a bucket by Webb gave the Eagles an early edge but Akron sat in the driver's seat, 67-62, with 26 seconds remaining.

Trailing by five with 13 seconds to play, Sweeney hit a triple to pull EMU within two, 67-65. The Zips failed to convert free throws after Ozelci fouled, giving the Eagles another chance to even the ledger. Driving down the lane, Morton split a pair of defenders and put up a floater but it bounced off the back iron, only to be pulled down by the Zips.

Fortunately for the Green and White, Akron's struggles at the line continued as Plybon split a pair from the charity stripe, giving the Eagles on last shot to force a second overtime. Dribbling up the court, Morton crossed over her defender to create a shot for the Eagles the last second heave fell short as the Eagles fell 68-65.

Eastern Michigan	87
Northern Illinois	80

DEKALB, Ill. (EMUEagles.com)—The #MACtion scriptwriters were at it again Saturday, Jan. 9, as Northern Illinois and Eastern Michigan battled in DeKalb. Janay Morton forced overtime with two free throws and vaulted the Eagles to an overtime victory, 87-80. Game-tying free throws by EMU with 57 seconds left, followed by a go-ahead layup with 31 seconds left, put Courtney Woods in a position to drain a go-ahead three-pointer with 10 seconds left on the clock, 70-69.

After an Eastern Michigan (11-3, 2-1 MAC) timeout with 7.1 seconds left, the Eagles' leading scorer Cha Sweeney drove to the basket and attempted a layup but a fingertip block by Ally Lehman put the ball of the rim and into the hands of Kelly Smith with three seconds left.

Hitting one free throw to put NIU (8-6, 1-2 MAC) on top by two, 71-69, EMU was forced to inbound the ball with 2.8 seconds left and had the chance as a deadball foul on Lehman put Morton on the line for two free throws, forcing overtime, 71-71, and fouling out Lehman in the process.

Eastern Michigan would outscore the Huskies 16-9 in overtime to take their first game in DeKalb since 2013, 87-80. NIU was within five points with 1:19 left on the clock but a 10-for-13 free throw clip by EMU in overtime sealed the Eagles second conference win.

Sweeney led the Eagles with 28 points on the day, while senior Chanise Baldwin just missed a double-double, notching 17 points and eight rebounds. Junior Phillis Webb also nearly had a double-double, posting 12 points and nine rebounds, while Morton chipped in 14 points, including the two free throws that forced overtime. The final double-digit scorer for the Green and White was sophomore Sasha Dailey with 14.

NIU took control of the game early, nailing a jumper within the opening 30 seconds. A three from Webb briefly gave the Eagles the lead, but the Huskies promptly responded with a three of their own. NIU receded out to an early lead, with Sweeney stopping the run and making the score 9-5 with seven minutes left in the opening frame.

EMU eventually took the lead, 16-15, after a pair of free throws and a Dailey layup on a nice dish from Sweeney. The Huskies responded, however, and the teams remained tied, 20-20, as the first quarter expired. The Huskies gained control early in the second quarter, leading 26-22 with seven minutes to go. A Sweeney jumper put the Eagles behind by one, and then a free throw from Baldwin tied the game at 29 apiece. The Pontiac, Mich. native continued getting to the line, and knocking down a pair to put the Eagles ahead, 32-29. From there, the Huskies offense got into a rhythm, scoring eight unanswered. At half, the score stood at 37-32, with the Huskies leading.

EMU took the first score out of the break, increasing their lead to 39-32. Senior Rachel Kehoe (St. Clair, Mich. - St. Clair) lifted the lid for the Eagles in the quarter, making the score 41-34. Baldwin continued getting to the line, converting 1-of-2 at the line to put the Eagles within six, 43-37. After nice back-to-back layups from Sweeney gave the Eagles a quick four points, the Eagles still trailed, 48-41, with 3:27 to go in the third. After a three from Morton, the Brooklyn Park, Minn. native then nabbed a quick steal, which Dailey then turned into points on a layup. The Eagles pulled within four, as the score stood at 50-46 with two minutes to go. Sweeney ended the third with a jumper just before the buzzer, making the score 52-48 going into the final quarter of play.

EMU eventually took the lead with a driving layup to pull the Eagles within two. However, the Huskies responded with a quick three, putting their lead back to 5. Following a technical foul on Webb, the Huskies converted both free throws and followed with a quick jumper, putting them ahead by nine. Baldwin then took over down low, bullying her way to three consecutive layups and giving the Eagles offensive momentum. Sweeney followed up with another layup of her own, dropping NIU's lead to just one.

After a bucket for NIU, Sweeney responded with one of her own, keeping the NIU lead at one. The team's continued trading baskets, with the Huskies ahead 67-64 with one minute remaining, Morton then drove to the hoop, scoring and getting fouled in the process. After sinking the free throw, the teams were tied at 67. Dailey then stole a Huskies pass and converted the layup, giving the Eagles a 69-67 lead with 26 seconds to play. The Huskies then converted a three, taking the lead, 70-69, and giving the Eagles 8 seconds to respond. With their possession, the Eagles went to Sweeney, who barely missed on a layup. After NIU converted one-of-two free throws on the other end, the Huskies fouled Morton on the following possession, giving her a chance to tie it up at the line. After sinking the first, the second rattled around before falling through, tying the game at 71. The Huskies were unable to get a shot off before the buzzer, forcing overtime for the second consecutive game.

Sweeney opened the overtime period with a drive to the hoop, converting a layup to put the Eagles ahead 73-71. After a Webb jumper put the Eagles up by four, Baldwin sank a layup and was fouled in the process. With the free throw falling, the Green and White led 78-71 with 2:36 to go. After nailing two at the charity stripe, the Eagles led 82-75 with one minute remaining. The Huskies continued fouling the Eagles, but the Green and White converted the majority at the line to preserve the lead. After the Huskies came up short on the offensive end, the Eagles ran out the clock and took the win, 87-80.

GAME 14 • Jan. 13, 2016 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

Ohio
Eastern Michigan

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com)—In a rematch of the 2015 Mid-American Conference Championship game, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team fell at home, 71-64, against Ohio University in league action at the Convocation Center Wednesday, Jan. 13. Individually, junior Phillis Webb and graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin led the Eagles (11-4, 2-2 MAC), posting double-doubles on the night.

Both Webb and Baldwin were key in EMU's 60-38 rebounding advantage, as Webb tied a career-high with 15 while Baldwin had 12. Senior Rachel Kehoe contributed as well with a stat line of six points and 10 rebounds, many of which came at important points in the game. In total, the Eagles' 60 caroms were the most the Green and White have corralled this season and highest total since EMU's 2014-15 season opener against Kent State Tuscarawas. Both senior Sera Ozelci and junior Cha Sweeney had nine points apiece, with Sweeney posting five rebounds and four assists. Finally, sophomore Sasha Dailey had four key steals throughout the game and was disruptive on the defensive end.

The first quarter got off to a slow start, as both teams came up empty on a few consecutive possessions. Webb lifted the lid for the Eagles before a three from Ohio (12-3, 4-0 MAC) put the Bobcats ahead 3-2. With 6:20 left in the period, a three from Ozelci tied the game at five apiece, after which another three from Webb put the Eagles up 8-7 with 5:30 to play. At the media break, the teams were knotted at eight apiece. Coming out of the timeout, Ozelci drained another three before Dailey stole a Bobcat pass and converted a layup to put the Green and White ahead 13-8. The Eagles then raced to a 17-10 lead on back-to-back baskets from Webb. At the end of the first, EMU led the Bobcats, 19-14.

Similar to the first, both teams could not get the offense in rhythm within the opening minutes of the quarter. The Bobcats offense then rattled off two quick baskets to tie the game back up at 19. A Baldwin layup following an offensive rebound then put the Green and White back on top by two. Neither team could pull away, however, as the Eagles and Bobcats continued trading baskets throughout the quarter.

With 3:30 left in the half, the score stood at 24-23 in favor of the Bobcats. A Sweeney layup got EMU back on track, but the team still trailed by one, 26-25, with two minutes left in the half. Two clutch free throws from Kehoe with under a minute to go tied the game at 29, after which she picked up a big rebound to give the Eagles an opportunity to retake the lead heading into halftime. On a dish from Sweeney, Kehoe scored yet again to give EMU a 31-29 lead heading into the break.

Coming out of the locker rooms, the Bobcats quickly retook the lead with a three. The Green and White answered with a three of their own, as Ozelci nailed her third of the game to put EMU back up, 34-32. Kehoe continued making impactful plays, as she drew a charge that led to a Webb bucket on the other end. At the seven minute mark, EMU held a 37-32 lead. A huge three from Morton gave the Green and White a six point lead, 40-34, with just over five minutes to go in the third.

A pair at the line from Sweeney then gave EMU their largest lead of the game at eight. The Bobcat offense quickly roared back and cut the Eagle lead down to just two, 42-40. With one minute to go in the quarter, Sweeney hit a shot from downtown to retake the lead, 47-44. A triple from OU shortly after tied the game back up at 47 before a free throw from Webb made the score 48-47 in favor of EMU. Heading into the final quarter of play, EMU clung to a one point lead.

Ohio opened the quarter with a quick three and a floater to retake the lead, 52-48. The Eagles responded with two quick baskets of their own to tie the game at 52 apiece. Webb then recorded back-to-back baskets to take a 56-52 lead before OU quickly tied it up once again. After an 11-0 run from the Bobcats to make the score 63-56 with 4:19 remaining, the Eagles called a timeout. Baldwin nailed key free throws to bring EMU back within seven, 65-58, as the clock approached two minutes to play. Dailey then picked up an offensive rebound on her own shot and put it back to bring the Eagles within five. However, the EMU offense could not get into a rhythm in the closing minutes of the game, and the Eagles fell by a final score of 71-64.

GAME 15 • Jan. 16, 2016 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

	Kent State	51
	Eastern Michigan	72

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team ground out a 72-51 home Mid-American Conference victory over Kent State University Saturday, Jan. 16, at the Convocation Center. Although the game was close through three quarters, the Green and White (12-4, 3-2 MAC) pulled away in the final frame, outscoring the Golden Flashes (3-12, 0-5 MAC) 23-6 over the final 10 minutes.

Juniors Janay Morton and Phillis Webb paced the Eagles, scoring 19 and 17 points, respectively. Morton was 3-of-5 from deep, while Webb also pulled down five rebounds and had four steals. Senior Chanise Baldwin and sophomore Sasha Dailey also had double digit scoring efforts, with Baldwin notching 12 and Dailey finishing with 10.

As a team, the Eagles shot 45.8 percent from the floor while the Golden Flashes finished with a shooting percentage of 37.5. The Green and White zone defense caused trouble for Kent State throughout the game, as KSU had 22 turnovers, 10 of which resulted in EMU steals. EMU, on the other hand, only had 11 turnovers on the evening. Finally, Eastern also out-rebounded Kent State, 34-31, grabbing 11 offensive boards in the process.

Morton got the Eagles on the board first with an early three, and Webb followed shortly after with a jumper of her own. Webb continued scoring for the Green and White, downing another long two for an 8-5 lead. After a missed jumper from junior Cha Sweeney, senior Rachel Kehoe picked up the board and converted a nice layup. EMU's hot start continued with another three from Morton, and at the first media timeout, the score stood at 12-5 in favor of the Eagles. After a couple of EMU turnovers, Kent State closed the gap, bringing the score to 12-8. The Eagles quickly regain their lead after a pair at the line from Baldwin and a Dailey jumper made it 16-8. Another three from Morton gave the Green and White a 10-point lead with 40 seconds to go in the quarter. At the end of the first, EMU maintained a 22-10 lead over the Golden Flashes.

Kent State came back with a few baskets of their own to bring the score to 22-17 with 7:30 to go in the half. The Golden Flashes' full-court press began to cause the Eagles some problems, leading to an EMU timeout with 6:14 to go. A Dailey jumper got the team back on track, increasing their lead to five. Both offenses could not get going mid-way through the quarter, and the score remained at 25-21 in favor of EMU with four minutes to play before half. Senior Sera Ozelci then got on the board with a shot from outside the arc, increasing the Green and White lead to seven. After KSU brought the lead down to three, Morton drove to the hoop, getting fouled while sinking a layup. Although she missed the free throw, the Eagle lead increased back to five. After a pair from the line by Kent State, Dailey drove the lane, converting a fast-break layup. At half, EMU led the Golden Flashes, 34-30.

Kehoe opened the second half with a pair from the line, after which Morton drove the lane and sunk a layup in traffic. Like the second half, both teams could not get into an offensive rhythm, with the score being 40-36 at the halfway mark of the quarter. A KSU three brought the Golden Flashes within one, and a layup on the next possession gave Kent State the lead. The Eagles retook the lead, 42-41, on a pair from the line by Baldwin, and then extended it on two more from Webb. A buzzer beater from Webb left the score at 49-45 going into the final quarter.

The Eagles opened the final quarter with back-to-back jumpers from Dailey to open up an eight point lead, 53-45. Webb, continuing her solid game, knocked down a short jumper to push the Eagle lead to double digits. With seven minutes to play, EMU led 56-45. The Green and White offense continued to click, taking a 62-47 lead at the five-minute mark after back-to-back Baldwin layups. With three minutes remaining in the game, EMU maintained a 66-47 lead after a Morton drive and layup. The Eagles then began burning clock, assisted by multiple offensive rebounds to keep possession. A late bucket from senior KaBria Walker gave EMU a 72-49 lead as the clock continued running down. Despite an early push from the Golden Flashes, the Eagles came out on top, 72-51.

GAME 16 • Jan. 20, 2016 • Worthen Arena • Muncie, Ind.

	Eastern Michigan	54
	Ball State	76

MUNCIE, Ind. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team could not keep pace with Mid-American Conference West Division leader Ball State University Wednesday, Jan. 20, at Worthen Arena. A season-high 21 turnovers and field goal woes led to the Eagles (12-5, 3-3 MAC) demise, as the Cardinals (13-4, 5-1 MAC) earned a 76-54 win.

Junior Janay Morton scored a team-high 23 points on 8-of-15 shooting, including converting 5-of-9 shots from long range. Morton's five triples marked the most she's made this season. Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin added 10 points, as the only other Eagle to reach double figures in the loss. Senior Rachel Kehoe fell one rebound shy of her career-high, grabbing a team-best 12 boards.

Nathalie Fontaine and Jill Morrison paved the way for Ball State, scoring 27 and 21 points, respectively. Fontaine converted 10-of-14 shots from the floor while Morrison's seven three-pointers stretched the EMU defense.

Shooting struggles paired with six first quarter turnovers hindered the Eagles in the opening quarter. While defense controlled the game for both teams early on, Ball State broke the seal first as Moriah Monaco's triple gave the home team the edge.

Eastern was held scoreless for nearly six minutes before a late three-pointer by Morton ended the quarter with Ball State in front, 19-8.

The Cardinals extended their lead to as many as 15 before Morton and Webb heated up from three. As the Brooklyn Park, Minn. duo knocked down shots from deep, Eastern Michigan's defense began to lock in, forcing the Cardinals into timely turnovers. The empty possessions by Ball State allowed the Eagles to pull within eight, 30-22, at the media timeout.

Over the next four minutes, the Eagles held the Cardinals to just five points, but failed to make a basket themselves. Plagued by a 25.8 field goal percentage, the Green and White trailed 35-22 at halftime.

The Eagles scored the first four points of the second half to pull within single digits as Baldwin put one in off the glass and knocked down the Green and White's first two free throw attempts of the game.

After Ball State pushed its lead back to double digits, junior Cha Sweeney kicked to senior Sera Ozelci. Spotting up on the three-point line, Ozelci drilled the baseline three to pull the Eagles within eight once again.

For the remainder of the period, the Eagles momentum was stalled by the hot-shooting of the Cardinals as they carried a 53-38 lead into the final frame.

Holding the Cardinals scoreless for the first five minutes of the quarter, the Eagles scored seven straight points behind the strong play of Morton, to cut the deficit to eight before Ball State knocked down its first shot of the quarter.

That was as close as the Eagles would get however, as the Cardinals lights-out shooting late, downed the Green and White, 76-54.

GAME 17 • Jan. 23, 2016 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

	Toledo	41
	Eastern Michigan	59

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team used an early lead to top the University of Toledo, 59-41, in the Convocation Center, Jan. 23. The Eagles (13-5, 4-3 MAC) led by as many as 20 on their way to an 18-point win over the Rockets (9-9, 4-3 MAC).

Junior Janay Morton posted her fourth 20-point performance of the season, while narrowly missing a double-double. Morton led all scorers with 23 points on 6-of-11 shooting, including 5-of-7 from three-point range, while also grabbing a game-high nine rebounds to go along with six steals and three assists. Juniors Cha Sweeney and Phillis Webb added 14 and nine points, respectively. Sweeney also registered a team-best four assists while Webb added nine rebounds.

Morton fueled the Eagles in the early goings, knocking down a pair of triples before handing out an assist to lead the Green and White to an 8-2 lead. A three-point play by Sweeney followed by a rejection by senior Rachel Kehoe, gave EMU an 11-4 edge with 4:58 to play.

Eastern extended its lead to as many as 14 behind the defensive play of graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin. A pair of swipes on the defensive end by Baldwin were cashed in for five points on the other end. Morton sank a layup in transition before sophomore Sasha Dailey converted an old-fashioned three-point play. Baldwin's stifling defense helped the Eagles hold the Rockets scoreless for more than six minutes, giving them an 18-6 lead through one quarter of play.

Toledo knocked down the first basket of the second frame but the Eagles came right back. Grabbing a board, Baldwin sent the Eagles running in transition. The 6-foot-3 forward ran the break before dishing to senior Sera Ozelci who sent an extra pass to Morton in the corner. Spotting up for the three-ball, Morton drained the long-range shot, pushing EMU's lead to 15.

Coming out of halftime in front 33-20, the Eagles saw their lead shrink to single digits as back-to-back-to-back baskets by the Rockets forced an EMU timeout with 8:20 to play.

As Toledo continued to chip away, Baldwin, Sweeney, and Morton scored, giving the Eagles with an 11-point cushion midway through the third period. Trading baskets for the remainder of the period, Eastern eventually carried a nine-point lead into the final quarter.

The Eagles outscored the Rockets 17-8 over the last 10 minutes of play to escape with a 59-41 win.

Prior to tip, the Eagles were recognized for their 'Sweet Sixteen' run in the WNIT last season. Banners were unveiled in the rafters, commemorating the accomplishments of the 2014-15 campaign.

GAME 19 • Jan. 27, 2016 • Stroth Center • Bowling Green, Ohio

Eastern Michigan	63
Bowling Green	67

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team mounted a late comeback but fell short on the road, Jan. 27, against Bowling Green State University. The Falcons (8-9, 4-4 MAC) led by as many as 16 before the Eagles (13-6, 4-4 MAC) pulled within a score with 37 seconds to play. However, Eastern's comeback fell short as Bowling Green scored the last four points of the game to sending EMU home with a 67-63 loss.

Junior Sheyna Deans had a career night, falling one rebound shy of her first double-double. Deans scored a career-high 10 points while grabbing a career-best nine boards in addition to three steals. Junior Cha Sweeney led the Eagles with 15 points while fellow juniors Phillis Webb and Janay Morton added 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Bowling Green broke the seal with an early three-pointer before senior Sera Ozcelci knocked down a triple for the Eagles to level the score at three early on. After a drive and kick from Morton that resulted in a bucket by senior Rachel Kehoe (St. Clair, Mich.-St. Clair), the Green and White held a one-point lead.

EMU's slim cushion only lasted temporarily as the Falcons used a 7-2 run to take an 11-7 lead at the first media timeout.

Out of the break, an early basket by BGSU extended their lead to 13-7 before the Eagles answered the call. A hustle play by sophomore Sasha Dailey re-energized the Green and White, ultimately resulting in a wide open layup for Webb. From there, a steal by Dailey and free throws by graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin evened the score at 13 with a minute left in the opening period.

The Falcons added a free throw and a jumper before the quarter came to a close to take a 16-13 lead into the second frame.

Eastern mustered just 11 points in the second quarter, nine of which came courtesy of Sweeney, as Bowling Green increased their lead to as many as 13 before carrying a 36-24 advantage into halftime.

The Eagles shot just 25.7 percent from the field over the first 20 minutes of play while the Falcons knocked down 61.9 percent of their shots, including 7-of-11 three-point attempts.

Ozcelci opened the second half with a triple, only to have Bowling Green knock down back-to-back threes to extend their lead to 15 before Deans turned the tide in favor of the Eagles. An offensive rebound and a put back by the Mt. Clemens, Mich. product were followed by a diving rebound and a charge, pulling the Eagles within 10, 42-32, midway through the third quarter.

Deans continued her strong play on both ends of the floor over the next five minutes, scoring four points and swiping a BGSU pass to fuel the Eagles' comeback effort. Baldwin added points from the charity stripe, cutting the deficit to six, 48-42, heading into the final frame.

Plagued by a slow start, the Eagles found themselves down by 12 with three minutes to play. Despite the deficit, the Eagles continued to rally around the play of Deans and Sweeney, to pull within six with 1:18 to play. From there, a three-pointer by Morton and baskets by Sweeney and Deans brought the Eagles within a basket with 37 ticks left on the clock. Unfortunately for the Green and White, the Falcons converted from the free throw line before sealing it with a layup just before time expired to hand the Eagles a 67-63 setback.

GAME 20 • Jan. 30, 2016 • James A. Rhodes Arena • Akron, Ohio

Eastern Michigan	72
Akron	75

AKRON, Ohio (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team fell in its Mid-American Conference cross-divisional tilt with the University of Akron, 75-72, Saturday, Jan. 30, at James A. Rhodes Arena. EMU (13-7, 4-5 MAC) led by as many as 12 points with 7:49 to play in the third quarter, but a 19-4 Akron run over a six minute span propelled the Zips (11-9, 5-4 MAC) back in front to begin the fourth quarter.

In the final frame, UA made 7-of-12 from the floor, but EMU still had a shot down the stretch thanks in part to poor free throw shooting by the home team. Down six with 26 seconds to play, junior Janay Morton drilled her six three-pointer to cut it to three at 73-70. Anita Brown, who finished with a game-high 27, made both free throws to push it back up to five. Junior Cha Sweeney quickly sprinted ahead and was fouled with six seconds still showing. Sweeney hit both but Akron threw over the top of the EMU defense and was fouled again with Brown going to the stripe. Luckily, for EMU she missed both but the Eagles' half court heave as time expired was blocked to seal the UA victory.

Sweeney finished with a team-high 23 points on 7-of-23 shooting while Morton hit a season-best six threes for 19 points in the loss. Sheyna Deans for the second consecutive game posted a career-best in points with 11, but EMU shot just 38.5 percent (26-of-65) for the contest.

Behind Brown's 27, Hannah Plybon finished with a season-best 24 points for the Zips who swept the season series from the Eagles in 2015-16.

The contest featured five ties and seven lead changes with Eastern Michigan owning its biggest lead, 48-36, with 7:49 left in the third quarter. Akron posted its largest margin in the game, six points, with 26 seconds remaining in the tilt. In total, the Green and White turned the ball over 15 times leading to 21 points off turnovers.

Eastern Michigan started off the game strong making a trio of three pointers to jump out to an 11-8 advantage. However, Akron tied the contest following a three pointer by Megan Sefcik at the 2:28 mark of the first quarter. The Eagles closed out the period with a 10-5 run to reclaim a 23-18 lead.

Akron began a gradual climb to even the affair with Eastern Michigan and eventually regained the lead, 32-30, after a long ball from Plybon with 3:03 left in the first half. With 2:08 left on the clock, the score was even 34-34 before the Eagles closed out the initial stanza on a 7-0 run to head into intermission with a 41-34 lead.

Eastern Michigan came out strong in the second half pushing its lead to double digits, 48-36, after a pair of free throws from Sweeney at the 7:49 mark.

Nevertheless, Akron ceased the momentum using a 19-4 spurt spearheaded by nine and eight points, respectively, from Brown and Plybon to take a 55-52 advantage into the final stanza.

The two teams traded baskets over the first three minutes of the fourth quarter until Eastern Michigan tied the game at 60 and went ahead for the final time, 63-60, on a triple from Morton at the 5:29 mark. After reclaiming the lead on a lay-up from Brown with four minutes left, Akron held on all the way to the end.

GAME 21 • Feb. 3, 2016 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

Central Michigan	65
Eastern Michigan	66

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team (13-8, 4-6 MAC) dropped a heartbreaker, 66-65, against Central Michigan University (14-7, 8-2 MAC), Feb. 3 at the Convocation Center in Mid-American Conference play. Despite a career day from junior Sheyna Deans, the EMU offense was unable to convert opportunities within the final minute to secure the victory.

Individually, the Eagles were paced by an overall solid game from Deans, who had 16 points, seven rebounds, and two steals on the night, shattering her previous career record of 11 points. Additionally, junior Cha Sweeney led the EMU offense, dropping 23 points and picking up a season-high eight rebounds. The final Eagle in double digits was graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin with 14 points, as well as six boards, and four blocks.

As a team, EMU forced the MAC West leading Chippewas into their most turnovers so far this season, as Central turned the ball over 25 times. On the other hand, EMU only gave the ball away seven times on the night. The Green and White also held a 14-2 advantage in fast break points, and edged CMU in points off of turnovers by a 23-4 margin.

Central opened the scoring on the day, taking an early 5-0 lead after a pair of layups and a free throw. The EMU offense could not find a rhythm through the opening minutes, as the Chips increased their lead to 9-0 with 6:07 to go in the first frame. Junior Phillis Webb got the Eagles on the board with a layup, after which Sweeney drained a long-ball to make the score 9-5. Following a steal, Sweeney managed to drive the hoop and convert an acrobatic layup while being fouled in the process. After making the free throw, the score stood at 11-10 in favor of CMU. Closing in on the final minute of the quarter, the Chippewas maintained a five-point lead, 15-10. At the end of the first, EMU trailed Central, 15-10.

Deans grabbed an offensive rebound and knocked down a jumper to bring the score to 15-12 within the opening minute of the second quarter. The Eagles then scored a quick seven points to take the lead, 19-18, at the 5:45 mark. With the Green and White defense clamping down, the Chips went scoreless for nearly four minutes. A three from CMU tied it up at 21 apiece, but Eastern quickly responded with a pair of baskets to put the score at 25-21. Neither team could score efficiently down the stretch, and at half, the Eagles maintained a 25-22 lead.

Both teams came out of the break firing, as the score increased to 31-28 with 7:30 left in the quarter. A three from Sweeney bumped the lead to 34-28 in favor of the Green and White. A pair of steals resulted in some fast break offense for the Eagles, who raced to a 10-point lead, 38-28, with 5:50 to go in the third. Defense was the name of the game for the Eagles, as the Chips had 18 turnovers through this point in the game. The teams then continued trading baskets, and at the 2:38 mark, EMU led 44-39. An and-one from Baldwin pushed the Eagles ahead 47-39, but the Chips mounted a short run to tie the game at 47. A layup by Central forced EMU to call a timeout after falling behind, 49-47. Going into the final quarter of play the Eagles trailed, 52-49.

The Chippewas stretched their lead to seven, 56-49, with eight minutes to go. A steal and layup from Deans brought the Eagles back within seven, and another quick basket made the score 58-53. Deans then sunk two from the line, and Sweeney nailed another three, reducing the Central lead to 61-58. Another long ball from Sweeney tied the game up at 61 apiece, before a pair at the line from Deans gave EMU the lead, 63-61, with 4:19 left. However, the Chips retook the lead, 66-65, with just under two minutes to play. A critical steal by junior Janay Morton gave the Eagles an opportunity to retake the lead with 25 seconds left on the clock. With that turnover, the Green and White forced the Chips to their most turnovers so far this season. After a foul against Central, Sweeney was sent to the line with an opportunity to tie or take the lead. However, both shots rattled on the rim and bounced out. After CMU stepped out of bounds, Eastern had one final opportunity to retake the lead. A desperation layup from Baldwin was not enough, however, as the Chips held on for a 66-65 victory.

GAME 22 • Feb. 6, 2016 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

	Western Michigan	66
	Eastern Michigan	70

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMU/Eagles.com) – In a double-overtime thriller, the Eastern Michigan University (14-8, 5-6 MAC) women's basketball team emerged victorious, 70-66, over Western Michigan University (13-10, 5-6 MAC) at the Convocation Center, Feb. 6. Clutch free throws down the stretch were the difference maker in securing the victory for the Eagles.

The Eagles were paced by junior Cha Sweeney (Toledo, Ohio – Rogers) with 21 points, six rebounds, and five assists. Four other EMU players also hit double digits, with junior Janay Morton notching 12 points and seven boards. Fellow junior Sheyna Deans also knocked down 12, while junior Phillis Webb contributed 11. Rounding out the double-digit scorers was senior Chanise Baldwin with 10 points and six boards.

As a team, the Green and White shot 25-of-66 from the floor, while also dominating on the boards. EMU posted 54 total rebounds, 15 of them offensive, in comparison to Western's 43. The EMU defense was vital down the stretch especially, as the Eagles forced the Broncos into 21 turnovers throughout the game. EMU did a much better job taking care of the ball, as the squad only gave it away 12 times.

Starting with the ball on offense, Deans gave the Eagles their first points of the game in her first career start. A pair of solid defensive possessions led to a bucket on the other end, as the Eagles jumped ahead, 6-2. Taking an early 10-2 lead, the Broncos were forced to call a timeout with six minutes left in the first quarter. The EMU defense continued causing problems for the Broncos, holding them to 2-of-10 shooting early on. However, the offense cooled down a bit in the closing minutes of the quarter, as the lead shrunk to 13-8. After a quarter of play, the Eagles held a 15-10 lead.

After a quick bucket to take a seven-point lead, the Broncos rattled off two straight baskets to bring the score to 17-14. A nice pass from Morton to Webb led to a layup and a foul, giving the Eagles some offensive momentum. However, Western then mounted a small run to reduce the lead to three at 21-18. A layup from Morton put the lead back to five, 23-18, with three minutes to go until halftime. A clutch three from Sweeney made the score 26-21 before a layup by Western cut it again to two. Going into the locker room, the Eagles held a slim 26-23 advantage.

Out of the break, the Broncos quickly took the lead, 27-26, on a pair of baskets. Teams continued trading baskets, with EMU regaining the lead, 30-29, approaching the halfway mark of the quarter. Baldwin then tied it up with a pair of free throws, which also put her at 10 on the day. After a layup by Webb, Sweeney swiped the inbound pass and converted a layup to put EMU back ahead, 36-34. Going into the final quarter of play, the Eagles were ahead, 40-38.

The Broncos quickly tied the game up at 40 apiece in the opening minute of the fourth. A jumper by Deans then put the Eagles back ahead, 42-40. The two teams were knotted up at 42 before a long three from Morton put the Green and White ahead by three. Morton then dropped in another bucket to put EMU up by four. However, a free throw from the Broncos dropped the lead back down to three. Sweeney then knocked down a nice jumper to put the lead back at five with 1:30 left to play. After a pair from the line by WMU, the lead was back down to three, 49-46, with 51 seconds to go. The Broncos would have one last opportunity with two seconds left on the clock to tie up the game, and a desperation three fell through to knot the game, 49-49, to force overtime.

Western knocked down a three to open the overtime period, but a jumper from Deans cut the Broncos' lead back down to one. However, the WMU offense then converted a basket and sunk a free throw to make the score 55-51. A pair from the line by Morton reduced the WMU lead to a pair with 2:45 left to play. A layup from Webb put the Eagles down by two with 15 seconds left to tie it up with a two, or take the lead with a three. After a missed shot from Sweeney fell short, Webb collected the offensive rebound and converted another layup to send the game to a second overtime.

The Broncos opened the period with the first basket again to take the lead, but a Sweeney three quickly gave the lead back to the Eagles, 60-59. A free throw from Morton then gave the Green and White a two-point lead with 3:25 left. Two free throws from Deans put EMU ahead, 63-59, within the final two minutes. Webb was then also sent to the line, converting one-of-two for a three-point lead, 64-61, in the final minute of play. A floater from Sweeney then put the Eagles up by five, 66-61, with 28 seconds left. However, a layup from Western fell through and the shooter was fouled. After converting the free throw, the Eastern lead fell to just two with 20 seconds left. Clutch free throws from Sweeney put the Eagles back ahead by four, before a Western layup put the lead back down to two. The Broncos fouled Sweeney again, and she dropped them both to put the lead back at four. Western was unable to get a good shot off on the other end, and the Eagles took home the 70-66 victory.

	Miami	46

OXFORD, Ohio (EMU/Eagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team forced the Miami University RedHawks into 29 turnovers in route to a 70-46 Mid-American Conference cross-divisional victory, Saturday, Feb. 13, inside Millett Hall.

Junior Cha Sweeney led the way for the Eagles (15-8, 6-6 MAC), scoring a game-high 24 on 10-of-20 shooting, including four three-pointers. Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin finished two rebounds shy of a double-double while scoring 13 points. Sophomore Sasha Dailey and senior Sera Ozelci also reached double figures, adding 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Eastern put on a defensive clinic in the win, forcing Miami (9-14, 3-9 MAC) to commit 29 turnovers, the highest total the Green and White have forced a Division I team into this season. Dailey led the Eagles with five steals while junior Sheyna Deans and Janay Morton swiped four apiece.

Sweeney scored seven of the Eagles' first 11 points, leading the Green and White to an early lead before Dailey provided a spark off the bench. Scoring four points and registering two steals, Dailey fueled Eastern to an 18-13 lead after one quarter of play.

Sweeney kept the Eagles rolling in the second quarter, corralling a pass from sophomore Micah Robinson and draining the three-ball to extend EMU's lead to eight.

Miami answered with a triple of their own before Baldwin pulled down an offensive rebound. Fighting through contact, Baldwin knocked down the put back and then completed the three-point play at the charity stripe.

Energized by a tenacious effort on defense, the Eagles pushed their lead to 15 after senior Rachel Kehoe (St. Clair, Mich.-St. Clair) tracked down an offensive rebound to give the Green and White a fresh shot clock. Working the ball around, Dailey whipped a pass to Sweeney in front of the Miami bench where the 5-foot-2 guard converted a triple to give the Eagles a 35-20 halftime lead.

Sweeney led the way for Eastern in the first half, scoring a game-high 15 points, while Dailey was not far behind. In addition to her three first half steals, Dailey chipped in 11 points.

EMU outscored Miami 25-10 in the third quarter behind a nine-point effort from Sweeney and seven points each from Baldwin and Ozelci, to take a 30-point lead into the final frame.

The RedHawks chipped away at the Eagles' lead in the fourth quarter, but EMU held off Miami for a 70-46 victory.

	Eastern Michigan
	Buffalo

BUFFALO, N.Y. (EMU/Eagles.com) – Completing a season sweep of the University at Buffalo, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team moved its winning streak to three, Feb. 17, at Alumni Arena. The Eagles (16-8, 7-6) defense overpowered the Bulls (12-12, 4-9) while the offense converted nearly 49 percent of its shots to give the Green and White a 70-55 Mid-American Conference victory at Alumni Arena.

Four double-digit scorers led a balanced offense for the Eagles. Junior Cha Sweeney led the way, scoring a team-high 19 while sophomore Sasha Dailey added 17 points, finishing one off her season-high. Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin posted her fifth double-double of the season, pitching in 13 points to go along with team-high 10 rebounds. The 6-foot-3 center also tied a season-best with four rejections to go along with two assists and a steal. Junior Janay Morton's rounded out the double-digit performances, adding 12 points and six rebounds.

Whistles kept either team from settling into a groove early on, leaving the game scoreless through the first two minutes of play. Baldwin ended the drought after junior Sheyna Deans drove the lane and dished to the 6-foot-3 post for an easy bucket.

Fouls continued to dictate the pace of the game, as two fouls on Deans and another pair on Sweeney forced the duo to the bench early.

Fortunately for Eastern, Dailey's defensive effort off the bench fueled the Eagles to an 11-8 lead midway through the period.

EMU pushed its lead to five before the Bulls evened the score at 19 with 22.2 ticks left in the first quarter. Dailey then ended the frame with a jumper just before the buzzer sounded to give the Green and White a two-point lead after 10 minutes of play.

A four-point run by Dailey pushed EMU's lead to six, 25-19, before the Bulls charged their way back. Despite a trio of denials by Baldwin, Buffalo pulled within two. After a free throw by senior Sera Ozelci, Sweeney went on five-point run. With her defending sagging inside the arc, Sweeney knocked down a triple before swiping a pass on the ensuing in-bounds and laying it in for two, giving the Green and White an eight-point cushion with 4:29 left in the quarter.

The Eagles extended their lead to as many as 12 but the Bulls used an 8-0 run to cut EMU's advantage to four before Morton's buzzer-beating layup gave Eastern a six-point lead at the half.

Eastern held Buffalo without a field goal for the first five minutes of play to open the third frame while a triple from Morton and baskets by Sweeney and Baldwin fueled the Eagles' offense. The Bulls knocked down five free throws over the course of the five-minute span, but Eastern held a 51-40 lead at the four-minute mark after Sweeney converted a three-ball.

UB continued to convert from the charity stripe, cutting the Eagles' lead to single digits before Sweeney split the Bulls' defense and slipped a pass to junior Phillis Webb. With the shot clock winding down, Webb hit the mid-range jumper to give Eastern an 11-point lead with 10 minutes to play.

Eastern coasted in the fourth quarter, outscoring the Bulls by a 12-8 margin to come away with a 70-55 victory.

GAME 25 - Feb. 20, 2016 - Convocation Center - Ypsilanti, Mich.

	Northern Illinois	60

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team (17-8, 8-6 MAC) ran away with an 84-60 victory over Northern Illinois (10-15, 3-11 MAC) today, Feb. 20. The Eagles grabbed the lead early, and did not relinquish it throughout the game.

Junior Cha Sweeney led the Eagle attack, finishing with 19 points, four rebounds, and four assists. Additionally, the junior was five-of-10 from downtown. Three other EMU players also finished in double-digits, with senior Chanise Baldwin dropping 17 to go along with six boards and two blocks. Finally, juniors Sheyna Deans (and Janay Morton both finished with 16 points. Deans also chipped in six rebounds, while Morton had three treys and three assists as well.

As a team, the Green and White finished 32-of-73 from the floor and 10-of-21 from three-point land. The Eagles were perfect from the free-throw line, going 10-of-10. Eastern's defense was a key part of the game, forcing the Huskies into 21 turnovers, of which 12 were EMU steals. EMU also held a huge advantage in points off turnovers at 26-10.

The Eagles got on board first, opening up an early 6-0 lead. The Eagle defense caused the Huskies problems early on, forcing three turnovers in the first five minutes. The offense got into a rhythm early on, opening a 12-4 lead with 4:44 left in the first quarter. Heading into the final three minutes, EMU maintained a 14-7 lead, before a three from Sweeney put the Eagles up by 10. Sweeney then kept the offense rolling, draining another long shot to put EMU up 22-9 with 41 seconds to go. With the clock ticking down, senior Sera Ozelci nailed a three from the corner to put the score at 25-9 at the end of the first quarter.

Early on in the second quarter, the Green and White held a big 27-9 lead before NIU sank a three. The Eagles, however, responded with a basket of their own. The offense continued their hot shooting, opening a 20-point lead, 32-12, with 6:49 remaining in the half. Both sides of the ball continued their hot start, as the offense shot 45 percent from the floor, and the defense held the Huskies to just 16 points through 17 minutes of play. With 2:48 left in the first half, the Eagles led by 24, 42-18. However, Northern began to find a rhythm on the offensive end, bringing the score to 44-25 at the half.

The Huskies got the scoring started with a three, after which Baldwin dropped in a contested layup. Both teams continued trading baskets, with Eastern maintaining a 20-point lead, 48-28. A three from Morton got the Eagles back on track, before the defense forced a steal on the other end. A couple of EMU turnovers gave the Huskies an opportunity to catch up on the offensive end, but the Eagle defense held strong. Within the final two minutes of the quarter, Morton converted a very tough layup, after which she sunk a free throw. Baldwin followed her with a contested layup of her own, also draining the free throw. At this point, EMU held a 59-36 lead. Ozelci, like in the first quarter, nailed another three as the clock ticked down to give EMU the 64-40 lead heading into the final quarter.

Sweeney opened the quarter with a quick layup, but the Huskies went down and sunk a basket of their own. Back-to-back threes from the Huskies brought the tally to 68-47 with 7:30 remaining. Morton dropped another quick three, giving her three on the day. Sweeney then sank one herself, giving EMU a 76-53 lead with five minutes to go. Baldwin continued bullying down low, dropping another tough layup. The Green and White then began to drain the clock, and ultimately finished with an 84-60 victory.

GAME 26 - Feb. 24, 2016 - Savage Arena - Toledo, Ohio

	Eastern Michigan	58
	Toledo	46

TOLEDO, Ohio (EMUEagles.com) – Junior Cha Sweeney fueled the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team to a crucial Mid-American Conference road win over the University of Toledo at Savage Arena, Feb. 24. The Eagles (18-8, 9-6 MAC) never trailed in the contest, cruising to a 58-46 win over the Rockets (15-11, 10-5 MAC).

Returning to her hometown, Sweeney finished one rebound shy of a double-double with a team-high 18 points on 7-of-17 shooting to go along with three assists and two steals. Fellow junior Janay Morton (Brooklyn Park, Minn.-Osseo) also reached double digit scoring, pouring in 14 points.

Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin (Pontiac, Mich.-Martin Luther King (Providence)) added four points and five rebounds while rejecting a season-high five shots. Baldwin's five blocks ranks as the most by an Eagle since 2003 when Melis Ulker matched the Pontiac, Mich. native's total versus Michigan State, Nov. 28.

As a team the Green and White knocked down shots at a 44.0 clip on 22-of-50 shooting from the floor while holding UT to a 37.5 shooting percentage. Eastern also held advantages in points off turnovers, 22-11, thanks to 21 Toledo miscues.

After back-to-back buckets by Sweeney put EMU in front early, five different Eagles' knocked down shots to fuel the Eagles to a 12-point lead after the first frame. Eastern put on a defensive clinic in the opening frame, holding the Rockets to just three field-goals on 3-of-12 shooting from the floor. Holding the Rockets scoreless for more than seven minutes, the Eagles closed the quarter on a 13-2 run.

The Green and White's hot-shooting carried over into the second quarter, as did its pesky high-pressure defense. Forcing the Rockets into six turnovers, the Eagles cashed in on the miscues for 11 points in the frame. Baldwin fired up the Eagles on the defensive end, swatting her third shot of the game. Sweeney then swiped the ensuing inbound pass and fired up court to Webb for an easy lay-in. The fast break bucket gave EMU a 22-8 edge with 7:55 to play in the half.

Eastern Michigan extended its lead to 17 after a three-point play by Dailey and a triple by Sweeney made the score 35-18, in favor of the Green and White. Toledo pulled within 13 late in the period before Dailey converted a jumper at the elbow to send EMU into the half in front, 37-22.

EMU's hot-shooting and pesky high-pressure defense carried over to the second half as the Eagles outscored the Rockets 17-5 in the third quarter. While the offense continued to click, the defense smothered Toledo, holding the home team without a field-goal for nearly six minutes. Morton paced the Eagles in the period, scoring nine of the team's 17 points to give Eastern a 54-27 advantage with 10 minutes to play.

The Eagles cushion proved to be too much for the Rockets to overcome as EMU came away with a 58-46 victory over UT, despite being outscored 19-4. The 46 points scored by Toledo is the second lowest total by an EMU opponent this season and lowest by a Division I foe this season. The Eagles previously held Madonna to 45 points back in December.

GAME 27 - Feb. 27, 2016 - Convocation Center - Ypsilanti, Mich.

	Ball State	67
	Eastern Michigan	63

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team was unable to overcome Ball State University's hot outside shooting in a 67-63 setback on Senior Day Saturday, Feb. 27, at the Convocation Center. The Cardinals (19-8, 11-5 MAC) went 12-for-26 (46.2 percent) from deep in the game to go along with controlling the glass with a +14 advantage (BSU 45, EMU 31).

Leading the game for EMU (18-9, 9-7 MAC) was junior Cha Sweeney with 22 points and four assists. Fellow juniors Phillis Webb and Janay Morton were the other Eagles in double figures, with 14 each. Morton also had a game-best six steals.

Overall the Green and White shot 38.3 percent (23-of-60) from the floor. They notched 12 team steals, compared to BSU's two, and forced 22 overall turnovers. They turned those into 17 of their points. Ultimately EMU could not overcome BSU's hot shooting, and game-high 28 points from Moriah Monaco, who went a career-best 8-for-15 from three point land.

Both teams began the game with some back and forth action, yet EMU lead the entire way by as many as six, but only by two midway through the period 12-10. The scoring was paced by five points by Morton and Webb.

Ball State closed the gap at the end of the first period, tying the game at 16 with around a minute left. After trading three pointers, Ball State hit a pair of free throws to take their first lead of the game at the end of the first quarter, 21-19. It was the Eagles' first deficit in four games. EMU last trailed against Western Michigan, Feb. 6.

The second quarter started much as the first did, with both teams scoring at a quick clip. EMU went ahead four at one point, but BSU did not go away; scoring seven in a row to take a 33-30 lead midway through the period.

From there both defenses clamped down as both teams combined for six points in the last five minutes, with neither team scoring in the final three minutes. At the half, the Cardinals led 35-34.

The Cardinals extended their lead to the largest of the game out of the half, going ahead 40-34 by scoring the first five points. Morton hit a three to get within three, but BSU rattled off the next five points, forcing EMU into a timeout at the 6:30 mark, trailing by eight.

The deficit extended to 11 not too long after, but the Eagles responded well to the adversity, knocking down six straight of their own, all from Sweeney, to get the BSU lead down to five at the three-minute mark.

As was the case in the second quarter, neither team scored a bucket in the final three minutes of the third, allowing BSU to lead 51-45 heading to the final frame.

The Eagles began the period by cutting the Cardinal lead down to three. BSU hit a three with a foul, and looked to go back ahead by seven. Following the missed free throw, Morton nailed a three pointer to cut it back to three.

Following back-to-back turnovers by the Cardinals, EMU retook the lead 56-54 at the six minute mark on a layup by Baldwin and a three pointer from Sweeney, forcing the BSU timeout.

The tide turned after the big three ball though, as BSU turned around and scored the next seven points, including two three pointers. The Eagles responded back with six points to tie the game at 61 apiece with just over a minute to play.

The final minute was not kind to EMU though, as BSU hit a three that was answered by a Sweeney jumper. That proved to be the final points for Eastern, as BSU hit three free throws down the stretch to secure the 67-63 win.

Saturday marked the final regular season game at the Convocation Center for four EMU seniors, KaBria Walker, Chanise Baldwin, Sera Ozelci, and Rachel Kehoe.

	Western Michigan	52

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – In a back and forth contest, the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team held off in-state conference rival Western Michigan University for a 63-52 victory Wednesday night, March 2, in Kalamazoo. Despite the EMU victory, wins by both Ball State and Toledo have assured that the Eagles will host a first round game at the Convocation Center Monday, March 7, in the opening round of the Mid-American Conference Tournament.

The Eagles were led by senior Chanise Baldwin who dominated down low for a career-high 19 points. She did most of her work from the free-throw line, hitting a career-best 11 from the stripe. Meanwhile, junior Janay Morton led the Eagles defensively, notching her second straight six-steal game. Two other Eagles finished in double figures as juniors Cha Sweeney and Phillis Webb, both had 10.

As a team, EMU shot 34 percent from the field (20-of-59) and kept WMU at bay by going 20-of-25 (80 percent) from the free throw line. EMU dominated down low, outscoring WMU 32-24 in the paint. The defense carried the day though, with the Green and White forcing WMU into 22 turnovers, with 19 of them coming as steals, a season high. That turned into 15 of EMU's points on the night.

Out of the gates, A Morton three ball and five points from junior Sheyna Deans had EMU leading 8-2. Meanwhile the defense stifled WMU, holding them to an almost three-minute scoring drought. Midway through the first period, EMU held the 8-4 advantage.

From there, both offenses were mostly stagnant, with EMU going 2-of-13 and WMU going 2-of-8 down the stretch. Both teams shot under 30 percent for the period, and as a result, EMU led just 12-9 after one.

Senior Sera Ozceli nailed a three to begin the second quarter, but WMU responded with two quick buckets, cutting EMU's lead to just two, 15-13. After trading points, EMU went on a quick 8-0 run thanks to two Bronco turnovers, to jump ahead to its largest lead of the night 25-15. WMU could not break the deficit, as EMU extended it to 11 before the half, leading 31-20.

After the break, WMU came out firing, outscoring the Eagles 14-4 to cut the lead down to just one midway through the frame, 35-34. WMU continued chipping away, taking their first lead of the night, 37-36, at the 2:48 mark on a three pointer. EMU responded immediately and the two teams proceeded to trade buckets. A free throw and layup from Baldwin right before the end of the quarter gave EMU a 42-39 lead going into the final period.

Three minutes, WMU had the game tied at 44-all, but then Baldwin knocked down EMU's next five points, extending the Eagle lead to 51-44 midway through the final quarter. Western went on to whittle that lead back down to two, 42-50, with three minutes to play.

From there, EMU locked down the defense, going on a 7-0 run thanks to three steals in a row, two of which came from Morton, locking up her second straight six-plus steal game. With 50 seconds to go EMU led 59-50, forcing WMU to start fouling to stay in the game. EMU hit enough of their freebies to stay comfortably ahead, sealing the win.

GAME 29 • March 5, 2016 • McGuirk Arena • Mt. Pleasant Mich.

	Eastern Michigan	70
	Central Michigan	78

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team dropped its final regular season game of the 2015-16 campaign, 78-70, to the Chippewas of Central Michigan University Saturday, March 5, at McGuirk Arena. Plenty was on the line between the two intrastate rivals, including final seeds in the upcoming Mid-American Conference Tournament, the Michigan MAC Trophy as well as CMU's opportunity to win the outright MAC West Division championship.

Eastern Michigan (19-10, 10-8 MAC) was led by junior Cha Sweeney's team-high 19 points and six assists while graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin and junior Phillis Webb also reached double-digits. Baldwin added 14 points and eight rebounds while Webb posted her fifth career double-double with 13 points and 10 boards.

A battle tested road squad, Head Coach Tory Verdi's club fell to 9-5 this season in road contests and has been the winners in its last four tilts away from Ypsilanti.

As a team, Eastern shot 43.3 percent from the floor and 34.6 percent from beyond the arc, going 9-for-26 in its loss to the Chippewas.

The Chippewas' offensive output was spread out evenly as they had five players notch double-digit scoring in the game. Jewel Cotton led all CMU players with 20 points, while Presley Hudson had 11 point and pulled down 11 rebounds. Reyna Frost added 14 points to the Chippewa tally and Da'Jourie Turner and Cassie Breen scored 14 and 13 points, respectively, for Central Michigan.

Hot shooting by both sides set the tone of the game early. Baldwin opened things up with a bucket before the Green and White went on to hit 5-of-7 three-pointers. First, junior Janay Morton drained a triple off of a hand-off from Webb before Baldwin whipped a weakside pass to senior Sera Ozceli. Spotting up on the arc, the Turkish sharp-shooter knocked down the trey. While the Chippewas kept pace with the Eagles, EMU continued to light it up from long range, maintaining the lead. Webb joined the three-point party after Morton dialed in from distance, hitting a baseline triple before Ozceli converted her second of the afternoon to give the Green and White a 23-19 lead with 3:35 to play in the first period.

The teams combined for just four points over the remainder of the quarter, giving the Eagles a 25-21 lead through the first 10 minutes of play.

EMU pushed its lead to seven in the second frame after a mid-range jumper by sophomore Sasha Dailey and back-to-back threes by Ozceli and Sweeney made the score 35-28 in favor of Eastern Michigan with 6:17 remaining in the half.

Paced by the play of Baldwin on the inside, the Eagles held a 40-33 lead at the break. Capitalizing on EMU miscues, the Chips regained the lead, 47-43, four minutes into the third quarter. The two-point deficit marked the first time the Eagles trailed in the game since early in the first frame. Central outscored the Eagles 14-3 over the first seven minutes of the stanza before a jumper from the elbow by Baldwin ended EMU's four-minute long scoring drought.

Facing a nine-point deficit, baskets by Sweeney and Webb pulled the Green and White within five, 54-49.

Central opened the final quarter on a 10-2 run, pushing its lead to a game-high 13, and forcing EMU Head Coach Tory Verdi to turn a timeout. CMU's 13-point edge stood for a majority of the quarter before Baldwin and Sweeney cut the deficit to four, 69-65, with two minutes to play.

The late rally by the Green and White ultimately proved to be too little too late as the Eagles fell by a final score of 78-70.

GAME 30 • March 7, 2016 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.

	#11 Kent State	60
	#6 Eastern Michigan	73

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team secured their ticket to the Mid-American Conference Tournament with a first-round victory over Kent State Monday night, March 7. Despite back and forth play throughout the game, the Eagles (20-10, 10-8 MAC) pulled away from the Golden Flashes (6-23, 3-15 MAC) in the final quarter.

The Green and White had four finish in double digits, highlighted by a double-double from junior Cha Sweeney. Sweeney finished with 14 points on the day, along with 10 assists and six steals, which tied her career-best. Additionally, fellow junior Janay Morton led the team in scoring with 17, along with shooting three-of-four from three-point land. Along with Morton, junior Phillis Webb and senior Chanise Baldwin pitched in 14 and 13, respectively. Baldwin also pulled down seven boards, three of which were on the offensive end.

The Eagles shot well from downtown throughout the game, finishing 8-of-15. Overall, the team was 24-of-52 from the floor while sharing the ball with 18 assists, their most against a Division I opponent this season. The defense held Kent State to just 2-of-17 from three-point land, along with forcing 18 turnovers, 12 of which were EMU steals.

The Eagle defense set the tempo early, forcing the Golden Flashes into a pair of turnovers on their first two possessions. After a three from Morton, a pair of Kent State buckets brought the score to 5-4 at the 6:52 mark. Kent then took the lead, but Webb quickly responded with a three to retake the lead. At the 3:40 mark, the Green and White held a 10-8 lead behind five from both Morton and Webb. Senior Sera Ozceli then got on the board with a three, but the Flashes went down the court and sunk a layup. At the first media timeout, the Eagles maintained a three-point lead, 13-10. Sweeney then got on the board with a pair of free throws, after which the Golden Flashes tied it at 15. Ozceli then nailed her second three-pointer of the game to put the Eagles ahead by three with 30 seconds left in the quarter. With the first quarter completed, the Eagles held an 18-15 lead.

Webb got the second quarter scoring started on a long jumper, but KSU quickly responded again. Morton then sunk her second three of the game to put the Eagles back ahead by four. Sweeney was fouled once again, converting both at the line to put the score at 24-21 at the halfway mark. At the media timeout, the two teams were tied at 24 apiece. Both offenses struggled putting points on the board, as the score was 28-24 with two minutes to go. Going into the locker rooms, the Eagles held a slim 31-30 lead.

Morton got the Green and White off to a quick start, knocking down her third three of the game, after which Baldwin got on the board to push the EMU lead to 36-30. Like the first half, the Golden Flashes continued fighting, going on a quick 9-0 run to take the lead, 39-36. Baldwin got the team back on track with a nice jumper, and then a Webb three tied it up at 41. A quick basket gave Kent State the lead again, but Sweeney drained another three to take the 44-43 lead. Back and forth play continued, with the Eagles remaining on top, 47-45, at the 2:45 mark. Senior Rachel Kehoe broke the tie at 47 with a layup, after which she nailed a free throw for the three-point play. Heading into the final quarter of play, the Eagles led by five, 52-47.

Sophomore Sasha Dailey kept it rolling into the fourth, dropping a layup on a nice assist from Sweeney to push EMU ahead 54-47. Sweeney then notched her ninth assist of the game, which led to an easy layup from Morton. She kept it rolling, tallying her 10th assist and nabbing a double on a Webb layup. At the six-minute mark, EMU led the Golden Flashes, 58-51. After a pair of free throws from Kent State, Baldwin sunk a tough layup. Although KSU continued scoring, so did the Eagles, who held a 62-55 lead with 4:45 remaining. After a Sweeney floater, the Green and White led 64-57 with just 2:30 to go. The Eagles then began to drain the clock, with the Flashes starting to foul. Baldwin sunk two at the line to put the lead at 10, 70-60, with less than a minute to go. The lead continued to grow on free throws, as the score with 37.5 on the clock was 73-60. Ultimately, the Eagles walked away with a 73-60 victory to secure their spot in Cleveland.

	Ball State	52

CLEVELAND, Ohio (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team avenged a pair of regular season losses to Ball State University Tuesday, March 9, bouncing the Cardinals from the Mid-American Conference Tournament for the second consecutive season. The Eagles (21-10) held off a third quarter push by the Cardinals (21-9) to punch their ticket to the semifinals with a 67-53 victory.

Junior Cha Sweeney scored a game-high 29 points to lead the Eagles, 19 of which came in the first half. Fellow junior Janay Morton added 12 points. Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin nearly recorded a double-double, falling one point shy while corralling a game-high 13 rebounds. Baldwin's control of the glass led the Eagles to a 48-43 rebounding advantage.

As a team, the Eagles shot 32.8 percent from the floor, connecting on 21-of-64 shot attempts. Meanwhile, the stifling defense of the Green and White held the Cardinals to a 30.6 field goal percentage on 19-of-62 shooting. Eastern made 25 trips to the charity stripe, knocking down 18 free throws to finish 72.0 from the line. BSU attempted just 12 free throws in the contest, converting nine.

"Our players competed for 40 minutes tonight," said Head Coach Tory Verdi. "I'm extremely proud of their effort and focus. We did an excellent job of executing our defensive game plan. Our pressure in the backcourt bottled them up, made them tired and affected their execution in the half court."

Behind hot shooting, Ball State ran out to a 10-2 lead just three minutes into the contest before the Eagles clawed their way back. Sweeney led the charge, scoring 10 points in the opening frame while the EMU defense held the Cardinals to 3-of-13 shooting from the floor.

Despite trailing in the early goings, the Green and White overcame a sluggish start, turning an eight-point deficit into an eight-point lead at halftime. Sophomore Sasha Dailey knocked down a pair of free throws from the charity stripe, giving EMU a 19-18 edge, its first of the contest moments into the second period. Eastern Michigan held the Cardinals to just six points in the quarter in addition to forcing four BSU miscues to take a 32-24 lead at the midway point.

In the third, Ball State pulled within one, 36-35, before Sweeney knocked down a baseline trey. The triple by Sweeney started a 9-2 run that ultimately gave Eastern a 45-37 lead heading into the final stanza.

Morton fueled the Eagles over the course of the final 10 minutes, consistently responding to Ball State buckets and overwhelming the Cardinals guards. The Brooklyn Park, Minn. native poured in nine points in the frame to pace the Green and White to a 67-53 victory.

	Eastern Michigan	70
	Central Michigan	78

CLEVELAND, Ohio (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team looked to secure a spot in the Mid-American Conference Championship when it tangled with No. 2 seed Central Michigan University in the semifinals, March 11. The Eagles (21-11, 10-8 MAC) could not overcome CMU's (22-9, 13-5 MAC) 15 three-pointers, falling by a final tally of 86-71.

A career-day from junior Phillis Webb paced the Green and White with 20 points. The Brooklyn Park, Minn. product knocked down a career-high four three-pointers while also adding six rebounds, a rebound, and an assist. Fellow juniors Cha Sweeney and Janay Morton also reached double figures, adding 18 and 12 points, respectively. Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin nearly collected a double-double, grabbing a team-high nine rebounds while also chipping in eight points. The 6-foot-3 center also tied a season-high with five blocks, becoming the first Eagle to reject five shots twice in a season in more than a decade.

Eastern converted 27-of-67 shots from the field good for a 40.3 field goal percentage, including a 9-of-28 performance from behind the arc. Meanwhile, Central knocked down 51.7 percent of its shots (31-of-60) and 15-of-27 triples. The Chippewas held a 41-29 advantage on the boards while the Eagles held the upperhand in the turnover battle, 18-12.

Following an early triple by Morton, Webb went on to hit 3-of-4 from downtown to fuel the Eagles to a 24-17 lead after one quarter. Central struck first, opening the game with a layup before Morton's trey. Feeding off the energy a stout defensive effort that forced CMU to three turnovers in the first three minutes, the Eagles continued to take advantage of their speed and the Chippewas' miscues. EMU held a 7-0 lead in fastbreak points in the opening period, allowing Eastern to take a 24-17 lead into the second quarter.

The Green and White continued to outwork the Chips in every facet of the game in the second half. Defensively, the Eagles forced CMU into three turnovers while cashing in on those miscues to the tune of seven points. Baldwin used her size and aggressiveness down low to provide the Eagles with extra possession offensively and limit the MAC's top offense in Central. Corraling an offensive rebound in the early goings, Baldwin kicked it out to Sweeney at the top of the key. With the defense completely collapsed in the paint, Sweeney drained the trey to extend EMU's lead. As shots kept falling for the Eagles, the Green and White became even more locked in defensively. On the ensuing inbound, EMU's full-court press forced a 10-second violation before sophomore Sasha Dailey converted a mid-range jumper to push Eastern's lead to double digits, 29-19.

After Sweeney kicked to Webb for a baseline three-pointer gave EMU its largest lead of the game, 37-24, Central Michigan called timeout with 5:24 left in the half. Despite scoring just four points over the course of the next five minutes, the Eagles held a 41-37 lead at halftime.

Central used a 32-point third quarter to take their largest lead of the game into the final period. CMU shot 68.4 percent in the frame, converting 13-of-19 shots compared to EMU's 7-of-15 shooting. More notably however was the Chippewas 6-of-8 shooting from distance.

Entering the fourth quarter trailing 69-58, the Eagles could not overcome the deficit despite forcing the Chippewas into seven turnovers. Converting just 6-of-20 shot attempts, the Eagles' offense sputtered, as the Green and White fell 86-71.

GAME 33 • March 17, 2016 • McKeon Pavilion • Moraga, Calif

	Eastern Michigan	74
	Saint Mary's	73

MORAGA, Calif. (EMUEagles.com) – Graduate transfer Chanise Baldwin's offensive rebound and put back with 1.8 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter lifted the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team to a 74-73 victory over Saint Mary's College in the opening round of the WNIT Thursday, March 17. The Eagles led by as many as nine, but needed Baldwin's late game heroics to propel the Green and White into the second round of the tournament.

With the win, EMU is one of just eight teams in the tournament to win a first round game on the road. It also marks the third consecutive season that EMU has won its opening game in the postseason, a first for the school.

The Eagles were led by Cha Sweeney's team-high 19 points on 7-of-21 shooting while the 5-foot-2 point guard also added seven assists and four steals. Junior Janay Morton poured in 16 points on 5-of-9 shooting, including a 5-of-6 effort from three-point range. Baldwin chipped in 16 points on 7-of-12 shooting to go along with eight rebounds, two assists, and one rejection. Junior Phillis Webb was the other Eagle to reach double figures, adding 11 points and seven rebounds in the win.

Playing in the state of California for just the second time in program history, the Eagles converted 27-of-75 field goal attempts and 10-of-22 from beyond the arc while St. Mary's shot just shy of 50 percent from the field (29-of-59) and 43.8 percent from long range (7-of-16). The Gaels entered the contest as the nation's leader in free throw makes on the season but mustered just eight makes from the charity stripe against the Eagles while the Green and White knocked down 10-of-13 freebies.

The Eagles defense overwhelmed the Gaels in the opening minutes, forcing SMC into several early turnovers and holding the home team without a field goal attempt for nearly two minutes. Despite the gritty defensive start, the Green and White offense opened 1-of-6 from the floor, allowing the Gaels to open with a 12-8 lead.

Baldwin corralled an offensive rebound and put it back for two, drawing a foul in the process. Converting the three-point play from the line, Baldwin pulled the Eagles within one, 12-11, near the midway mark of the first quarter.

Back-to-back triples by St. Mary's turned EMU's one-point lead into a five point deficit with three minutes to play in the period but the Eagles regained the lead at the buzzer. Sweeney knocked down her second triple of the game to give the Green and White a 21-20 lead after 10 minutes of play.

Patience and quick ball movement by the Eagles paid off in the first possession of the second frame as Baldwin converted a jumper from the elbow to push EMU's advantage to three, 23-20, with the shot clock winding down.

After the Gaels evened the ledger at 27, the Green and White pieced together an 8-0 run. Sweeney and Morton drained back-to-back triples before Webb's long jumper pushed Eastern Michigan's lead to 35-27.

Junior Sheyna Deans pushed the Eagles lead to nine with two minutes left in the half. Driving into the lane, Deans pulled up for a mid-range jumper and drew the hoop and the harm, ending a two-minute long scoring drought for the Green and White.

A relatively quiet final two minutes on both sides of the floor gave the Eagles a 38-33 lead at halftime.

A foul fest of a third quarter for the Eagles forced Sweeney and Baldwin to the bench, making way for a run by the Gaels. With the EMU duo on the bench, the Eastern offense struggled while St. Mary's flourished, pulling within one, 55-54, with less than a minute to play in the third period. Following a pair of misses from SMC at the charity stripe, Webb drove to the hoop and put it in for two as time expired, giving EMU a 57-54 lead with 10 minutes to play.

Dialing in from distance, Morton and senior Sera Ozleci sank back-to-back three-pointers to give the Eagles a six-point edge but the Gaels came right back, eventually taking the lead for the first time since the first period.

Head Coach Tory Verdi used a timeout amid a 7-0 run by the Gaels hoping to turn the momentum with his team trailing 69-65 with four minutes to go in regulation. The regrouping session did just that as the Eagles soared back, pulling within one, 71-70 with less than a minute left on the clock.

Sweeney crosses over a defender before splitting two more Gaels in the paint and floating in a 5-footer to put the Eagles in front by one. As they had done for a majority of the second half, St. Mary's responded, knocking down a baseline jumper to retake the lead, 73-72, with 7.7 ticks left.

Out of an EMU timeout, Sweeney's jumper from the free throw line rimmed off but Baldwin was there to corral the carom and put it back for two. Baldwin's second chance opportunity lifted the Eagles to a 74-73 lead with 1.7 seconds remaining. The last ditch effort by the Gaels was off the mark, giving Eastern Michigan the one-point win.

Game 34 - Schollmaier Arena - Fort Worth, Texas

TCU

Eastern Michigan

FORT WORTH, Texas (EMUEagles.com) -- The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team saw its 2015-16 campaign come to an end Saturday, March 19, in the second round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT). The Eagles (22-12) fell behind early and could not overcome a 21-point hole on the road as they came up short, 85-81, to the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs at Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena.

Despite shooting 50 percent in the second half of the game, the Eagles dropped the decision after connecting on just 40.6 percent of its shots for the game and 40.9 percent of its three point attempts. Three EMU student-athletes finished with 20-or-more points as Chanise Baldwin led the way with a career-best 26 points, on 10-of-14 shooting, to go with 13 rebounds. Additionally, the senior had four blocks in the game, while going 6-of-7 from the charity stripe. Juniors Cha Sweeney and Janay Morton added 24 and 20 points, respectively. Defensively, Morton had a postseason EMU record six steals and Sweeney had four thefts. As a team, EMU grabbed 15 steals in the game.

Baldwin opened up the scoring with a jumper, however the Horned Frogs responded with a quick 8-0 run in less than a minute to put TCU up in the early going. The Eagles came back with five straight to make it a one-point game, 8-7, with 7:51 on the clock in the first quarter. The quick run did not last long as Texas Christian grabbed five points in a row to extend their lead back to six.

With their last bucket at the 7:51 mark, the Green and White went on a five minute scoring drought, allowing the Horned Frogs to grab a 12-point lead, 19-7. Baldwin finally broke the scoring drought with 2:33 left on the clock when she connected on the free throw. TCU was able to continue to grow its lead connecting on the final two field goals of the first quarter to make it 23-10 to close the first 10 minutes of play. Texas Christian also held the Eagles to no field goal makes through the final 7:51 of the quarter and just three free throw makes during that span.

The Horned Frogs did not slow the pace to start the second quarter as they knocked down three-straight to extend their lead to 21, 31-10, as the Green and White crossed the 10 minute mark without scoring a field goal. Looking at the 21 point deficit, the Eastern Michigan offense came to life when Phillis Webb went for back-to-back layups and Sweeney grabbed one of her own within 53 seconds of action to make it a 31-16 deficit.

Texas Christian responded with a bucket before the media timeout at the five minute mark, but Morton came out of the break firing by knocking down a three-pointer to bring EMU within 14. Both squads traded buckets before a quick 7-2 run put the Horned Frogs back up 15, 40-25, with just over two minutes left in the first half. After going back and forth, Morton hit a triple to shrink the Eagles' deficit to 12, 42-30, as they went into the half.

After the first 20 minutes of play, Morton led the Green and White with 11 points on 4-of-7 shooting, while connecting on 3-of-5 from downtown. Baldwin nearly recorded a double double in the opening half, going for nine points and eight rebounds, while also blocking three shots. As a team, EMU shot just 31.4 percent from the floor and 30 percent from beyond the arc. Defensively, Eastern forced the Horned Frogs into 13 turnovers, 10 of which were on Eagle swipes. TCU was much more efficient from the floor, shooting at a 48.6 percent clip, while knocking down six triples in 12 chances. Alix and Hamilton led the Horned Frogs with 12 points apiece.

The Eagles opened up the scoring just like the first half as Baldwin connected on a layup but TCU responded with a three-pointer within the opening minute of play. Over the next minute, Eastern had back-to-back old fashioned three point plays to cut the deficit to seven, 47-40, with 7:26 left on the clock. The Eagles' offense continued its flurry scoring five in a row following a TCU layup to make it a four-point, 49-45, game, with just under six minutes to go in the third quarter.

The Horned Frogs answered the EMU run with seven in a row to give themselves another double digit lead, but the Eagles continued to fight, looking at a 62-52 deficit at the end of the third.

TCU extended its lead to begin the fourth quarter but EMU rallied back. Trailing by 16, the Eagles scored eight-straight points before Texas Christian connected on a pair of free throws to give the Horned Frogs a 10-point, 80-70, lead with 2:29 left in the game. Baldwin responded with six points in a row, getting the Eagles to within four, 80-76, with just under a minute to go.

Free throws proved to be the clincher down the stretch for Texas Christian as the Horned Frogs led the game down the stretch with five free throw makes in the final minute to seal the 85-81 win.

The Eastern Michigan University Department of Athletics announced June 28, 2015, that the Eagles will produce live content that will be aired nationally on ESPN3. The University's production program, a component of the Mid-American Conference's 13-year agreement with ESPN, will allow for a minimum of 35 EMU Athletics sporting events to be carried exclusively on ESPN3.

The programming will be produced entirely by members of the Eastern Michigan University community, including athletics department staff members, distinguished professionals and students from the Department of Communication, Media & Theatre Arts. EMU students will receive valuable hands-on experience working with professional equipment and producing content for a national audience. It will be a unique opportunity for students to gain working knowledge and real-time experience. All events will be delivered on ESPN3, with the option to cut to any event for inclusion on other ESPN platforms.

"We are very excited about the opportunity this agreement provides for our student-athletes and our department as a whole," said EMU Vice President and Director of Athletics Heather Lyke. "The ability to have our home games delivered on ESPN3 gives our fans, alumni and prospective student-athletes the chance to watch us play no matter where they live. This allows us to spread the name and brand of EMU Athletics and the University. Additionally, we will be continuing to expand our relationship on-campus so we can provide EMU students with access to hands-on learning with state-of-the-art television production equipment."

In year one, the Eagles produced 35 events between volleyball, men's basketball, women's basketball and other special events.

About ESPN3

ESPN3 is ESPN's live multi-screen sports network, a destination that delivers thousands of exclusive sports events annually. It is accessible online at WatchESPN.com, on smartphones and tablets via the WatchESPN app and streamed on televisions through Amazon Fire TV and Fire

TV STick, Apple TV, Chromecast, Roku, Xbox 360 and Xbox One. The network is currently available to more than 99 million homes at no additional cost to fans who receive their high-speed Internet connection or video subscription from an affiliated service provider. The network is also available at no cost to approximately 21 million U.S. college students and U.S.-based military personnel via computers, smartphones and tablets connected to on-campus educational and on-base military broadband and Wi-Fi networks.

JAMES PLAYS IN THE PAN AM GAMES E

Eastern Michigan University guard Tavelyn James (Detroit, Mich.-Mumford) earned a spot on the roster of the USA women's basketball team that participated in the 2011 Pan American Games, Oct. 21-25, in Guadalajara, Mexico.

James became not only the first EMU player to compete in the event, but also the first student-athlete from a Mid-American Conference institution to be selected for the team's roster.

"I am honored and excited to represent the USA team, EMU and the MAC," said James at the announcement. "I am looking forward to playing with players from across the country and learn new things from the Team USA coaching staff. The experience will provide a new prospective for me and I am looking forward to becoming a better and more well rounded player."

"This is such a tremendous honor for Tavelyn and our program, as well as for the MAC," said former EMU Head Women's Basketball Coach AnnMarie Gilbert when the teams were announced. "I have always believed that she would one day be invited to play for USA Basketball. She is, in my opinion, one of the best and fastest small guards in the country. The opportunity for Tavelyn to represent the United States and to compete with and against some of the nation's top players will be a rewarding and unforgettable experience for her. She has worked extremely hard and is so deserving of this special honor."

Besides James, the official 12-member USA roster included: Breanna Stewart (Cicero-North Syracuse H.S.-North Syracuse, N.Y.), a high school senior who helped the USA to a gold medal and earned a spot on the five-person all-tournament team at the 2011 FIBA U19 World Championship this past July; alongside NCAA student-athletes Shante Evans (Hofstra); Christine Flores (Missouri); Emilie Johnson (UC Santa Barbara); Marissa Kastanek (North Carolina State); Kevi Luper (Oral Roberts); Valencia McFarland (Mississippi); Katelan Redmon (Gonzaga); Kayla Standish (Gonzaga); April Sykes (Rutgers); and Avery Warley (Liberty). The player selections were made by the USA Basketball Women's National Team Committee.

The U.S. squad opened training camp on Oct. 15 with an evening practice in Houston, Texas, followed by two practices, Oct. 16 and 17, and a morning session, Oct. 18. The team then departed for Guadalajara and the 2011 Pan American Games on Oct. 18, and had a practice Oct. 19 and 20 before the competition started on Oct. 21.

The 2011 USA Women's Pan American Games Team included seven players who are set to graduate from college in 2012, three members of the junior class who will graduate in 2013, and one college sophomore. Stewart has one year of high school remaining before she is expected to head to the University of Connecticut in the fall of 2012, where she has verbally committed to attend.

James started all four games for the USA, averaging 9.8 points, 3.3 rebounds and 2.3 assists in 24.5 minutes per game. Her nine assists led the squad, while her 39 points and 13 made field goals were second most.

The Pan American Games are a multi-sport competition held every four years

(2011, 2015, etc.) in the year preceding the Olympics. Organized by the Pan American Sports Organization (PASO), the Games are open to men and women representing countries from North, South and Central America and the Caribbean.

Overall, the USA women in Pan American Games competitions have won seven of 14 gold medals, as well as four silver and two bronze medals, compiling a 72-12 overall record.

Former players of note that have competed in the Pan American Games include: Jennifer Azzi (1991); Cynthia Cooper (1987); Anne Donovan (1983 and 1987); Teresa Edwards (1987 and 1991); Pat Head Summitt (1975); Nancy Lieberman (1975 and 1979); Janel McCarville (2003); Katrina McClain (1987 and 1991); Carla McGhee (1995); Ann Meyers (1975 and 1979); Cheryl Miller (1983); Dawn Staley (1995); and Sheryl Swoopes (1995).

E THE 2003-04 CHAMPIONSHIP RUN

At times, dreams seem to arrive out of nowhere. For the Eastern Michigan University women's basketball program, the 2003-04 campaign was one of those dreams.

In the sixth year under the tutelage of head coach Suzy Merchant, a collection of underclassmen and one senior were able to accomplish what any young, up-and-coming program needs to gain recognition at the national level: qualify for an NCAA tournament.

The Eagles did accomplish that feat, but it did not arrive without a season full of "firsts."

That series of occurrences began midway through the regular Mid-American Conference season. After starting the league slate with a 5-3 record, the Eagles hosted their archenemies in the MAC over the past 12 years, the Kent State Golden Flashes, Feb. 4. EMU had not defeated Kent since 1992, and the Golden Flashes came into the contest with an unusually mediocre 4-3 conference mark. Eastern held a slim lead throughout the majority of the game, but a combined 36 points from senior co-captain Marion Crandall and freshman Sarah VanMetre gave the Eagles a much-needed 63-58 win, the first time any EMU player had tasted victory over the Golden Flashes in more than a decade.

Prior to that game, EMU had won back-to-back contests versus Bowling Green and at Western Michigan, but the emotional victory over Kent State may have triggered what was to come for the remainder of the conference schedule. The Eagles rolled off five consecutive wins, including blowout victories over Marshall and Toledo. EMU did absorb one more loss, an 89-81 decision at Ohio, Feb. 25. But that may have been exactly what the Eagles needed heading into the MAC tournament. In all, Eastern won nine out of its final 10 games heading into the postseason, but none was more important than the season finale at Central Michigan, March 2.

Eastern had clinched at least a share of its first-ever MAC West title with an 84-74 decision over Ball State, Feb. 21, but the team wanted the championship all to itself. The loss at Ohio prevented the celebration, however, and EMU would have to come up with a win at arch-rival CMU's Rose Arena to gain sole possession of the division championship. It was apparent that the Eagles didn't want things to come down to the wire, as they opened up a 45-28 lead and coasted to victory in the second half, putting four players in double figures in the effort.

The ensuing stop on EMU's magical season was the 2004 Kraft MAC Tournament. The Eagles were awarded the second seed in the field, and were able to sit out the first round with a bye. EMU started its tournament run in Cleveland, Ohio, where EMU had yet to win a game in Gund Arena. The Eagles' first round opponent was seventh-seeded Toledo, a team with which EMU had split the regular-season series. A clock delay seemed to alter both teams' rhythms in the first half, as sloppy play turned into a turnover-plagued fist frame, and EMU entered the locker room at halftime with a slim 24-23 lead.

The second half was a different story, however, as the Eagles' defense clamped down not allowing a Toledo field goal for the opening 4:40 of the half, opening up a 35-25 lead at the initial media time-out. Junior sharpshooter Ryan Coleman provided the team a quick scare, as she hit the floor hard with 17:30 left, and would not return until the 5:45 mark. Her return sparked the Eagles, however, as she scored seven points on 3-for-3 shooting from the field and helped EMU open up a 55-43 lead with 2:31 left, letting EMU coast to the semifinals with a 60-47 win.

Next up for the Eagles in their pursuit of a conference tournament title was a matchup with No. 6 Marshall, arguably the most physical team in the MAC. In the two teams' lone meeting of the regular season, the Eagles came away with a 66-49 win in Huntington, W.Va., in the game following the win over Kent State. The semifinal matchup would be much closer. Marshall cut a six-point EMU lead to 65-64 with under three minutes remaining in the game, but the Eagles converted a perfect 8-for-8 from the free-throw line in the final 2:12. Success at the charity stripe proved to be the difference, and perhaps the only defining statistic that EMU had a significant advantage over the Thundering Herd. For the game, the Eagles were 22-of-28 from the line in what head coach Suzy Merchant called "one of the most physical games this program has ever played in." EMU was outrebounded 44-32, but in the end, was a 75-70 winner, advancing to the championship round of the tournament.

The Eagles' opponent in the finals was a surprise to many MAC fans. Bowling Green, the No. 4 seed, needed two back-to-back buzzer beaters to oust Western Michigan and Miami to advance to the championship, setting up a game with EMU that had occurred just once in the regular season. In that lone meeting, the Falcons threw everything they had at the Eagles in Ypsilanti, as EMU escaped with a 61-59 victory, Jan. 27. In the finals, however, the Eagles were able to take control of the game in its early stages. EMU never trailed in the contest, and led by double-digits for much of the first half, limiting the Falcons to just two field goals over the final 12:17.

The Eagles entered the locker room at halftime with an eight-point lead, but Bowling Green would not fade in the second half. The Falcons cut the lead to five with under 10 minutes remaining, but a balanced scoring effort that saw each EMU player score at least seven points and effective late-game free-throw shooting proved to be the difference, as the Eagles won their last 12th out of 13 games. It turned out to be the most important and influential win in the program's history. With the regular-season and tournament championships in hand, the Eagles were poised for their next mission, which would be even more unfamiliar: a berth and run in the 2004 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. With the tournament final occurring on Saturday (March 20), Eastern would have to wait one more day for the fate of its first-round opponent.

The team gathered for a celebration dinner and "selection-show" party at the Washtenaw Country Club the following day, and when ESPN aired the show, Eastern learned it would be a No.14 seed in the Midwest Region, and would draw No. 3 seeded Boston College, which had recently wrapped up a championship itself by winning the Big East tournament.

History was not on EMU's side. While upsets occur regularly on the men's side of the NCAA's, a 14-seeded team had never beaten a third seed in the history of the women's NCAA field. The game was scheduled for March 20 at St. John Arena on the campus of the Ohio State University.

EMU fans rallied around the success of the team, and before its bus departure from Ypsilanti, March 23, a group of more than 100 Eastern fans gathered in the atrium of the Convocation Center to send the team off and show their appreciation for what had already been accomplished. They were also led to US-23 by a police escort to begin the trip.

When the team arrived in Columbus, it was all business. The team had scheduled news conferences and a shoot-around shortly thereafter, March 24, and was slated to play its game in the second slot, March 25, following the Ohio State versus West Virginia contest.

While the home Ohio State crowd dwindled minimally, 8,159 fans were still in attendance for EMU-Boston College, by far and away the largest crowd EMU had played in front of this season. The atmosphere was also much different than a home game at the Convocation Center. It was a neutral site with many neutral fans, and the game was televised nationally in its entirety on ESPN 2 and ESPN.

Shortly after the opening tip, it seemed as if the unfamiliar surroundings had begun to influence the Eagles' composure. Boston College came out of the gate firing, converting its first nine field goals, forcing EMU into a time-out with 14:20 left, already trailing by 18 points, 22-4. Following the break, however, the Eagles went on a quick 7-2 run on back-to-back field goals by VanMetre and junior Melis Ulker, to pull within 15, 24-9, with 11:18 remaining. The Eagles kept chipping away at the BC advantage, and pulled within single digits for the first time on a VanMetre three-point field goal with 6:24 left, trimming the edge to 28-20.

The teams combined for just four field goals for the remainder of the first half, and with five seconds left, a jumper by Boston College's Jessica Deveny gave the BC Eagles a 34-24 lead heading into the intermission. VanMetre paced the Eagles with six points, while BC was led by All-American Amber Jacobs with nine first-half points.

BC opened up as large as a 13-point lead in the first five minutes of the second half, but back-to-back Ulker field goals kept EMU within 11, 40-29, heading into the first media time-out at 15:09. The edge fluctuated between eight and 13 points over the next 7:20, and the Eagles were within 10, 50-40, with 7:52 remaining. Over the next 4:05, EMU posted a 12-3 run, paced by six quick points by Coleman, and pulled within just one point, 53-52, on a jumper by junior Erika Ford that led into the game's final media time-out (3:48 left).

Eastern took its only lead of the game with 3:22 left, when Coleman came out of the media time-out and hit a jumper to give EMU a 54-53 edge. BC's Deveny answered the next time down the floor, however, with a three-pointer to give the lead back to BC, 56-54, with 3:02 left. Neither team scored for the ensuing 2:20 before sophomore Nikki Knapp tied the game at 56-56 with 40 seconds left on an inside power layup. BC immediately called a time-out and drew up what would be the go-ahead shot. BC missed the initial jumper with 28 seconds left, but grabbed the offensive rebound that set up Kathrin Röss' layup underneath the basket with 12 seconds left, leaving EMU trailing by two points.

The Eagles took a time-out and set up a play for their best scorer, Coleman. EMU went for the win, but Coleman's three-pointer at the buzzer fell short of the goal, and the comeback effort ended in the 58-56 loss. Overall, for the final 35 minutes of the game, EMU outscored BC, 52-36.

While the entire season was a series of "firsts," Merchant did not believe that her 2004 team's appearance in the NCAA tournament will be the last time it will make a mark on the national level.

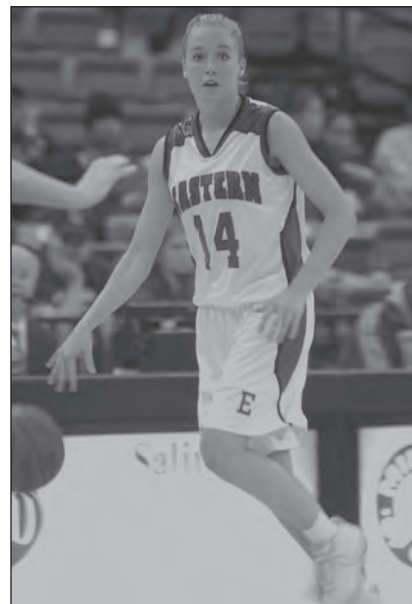

"We'll be back," Merchant said following the game. "This group (Crandall is the only loss for next season) is so levelheaded, there are no prima donnas on this team. There's a target on our backs now, and I think we're ready for that if we keep outworking people. We're not some one-hit wonder where the ride is over. We'll be back."

Coleman and Ford, both captains, seconded their coaches' comments: "That was one of many big shots to come in the NCAA tournament," Coleman said after coming up short on the game's final play. "I look forward to shooting more of them, and next time, that shot is going to fall."

"We're going to be as good, if not better next year," Ford added.

While EMU's team racked up honors in their dream run, the individuals on the team were also recognized for their accomplishments in the 2003-04 season.

The Eagles landed four players on All-MAC squads with Coleman being named to the first-team, Knapp to the second-team, Crandall, an honorable mention pick, and VanMetre to the All-Freshman squad, along with being named Sixth Man of the Year.

E THE 2011-12 CHAMPIONSHIP RUN

Unlike the surprising success of the 2003-04 championship season, the championship season of 2011-12 was quite predictable.

Entering her fifth season as the head coach at EMU, AnnMarie Gilbert boasted the most talented roster yet with the Eagles, and the team was returning from a season that saw numerous records broken, including most wins in a season (24), en route to a WNIT "Sweet 16" appearance.

Naturally, the 2011-12 season began with high expectations, and the Eagles did not disappoint. The season began with a convincing win against Northeastern, and a record setting performance from senior guard Tavelyn James. Not only did the Team USA representative pour in a school single-game record 42 points, she also became the first woman in MAC history to score 40 or more points in the first game of the season.

Next up for the Green and White was a record setting 110-31 victory over Marygrove in the second game of the season. The 79-point victory set program record for total points scored in a single game.

The Eagles third game of the season was a road contest against 23rd ranked Wisconsin-Green Bay. The Eagles would score first on a layup from sophomore forward Olivia Fouty, but things seemed to fall apart from there. EMU shot just 25 percent from the field, while Green Bay hit on 46.0 percent of its shots. Perhaps as telling as the gap in shooting percentage was the 23 Eagle turnovers that led to 38 points for the Phoenix.

The Green and White got back on track with their next game at Loyola-Chicago. Senior forward Paige Redditt led the way with her fifth career double-double scoring 17 points and bringing down a career-best 18 rebounds to go along with three assists. The effort on the boards was crucial, as EMU out-rebounded Loyola, 46-26, on its way to a 63-55 victory.

After a close win against Cornell, the Eagles traveled to Buffalo, N.Y. to play the Golden Griffins of Canisius. Sophomore forward Natachia Watkins led the way this time, scoring 16 second half points to finish with a game-high 21 in the Eagles 65-53 win.

EMU struggled for the next month, playing around the .500 mark, including three overtime losses against Michigan State, Missouri-Kansas City and Detroit.

Sandwiched between those OT losses, came the teams second consecutive win over Michigan in a rematch from the WNIT last season. The Green and White proved that the win last season was no fluke, winning 77-64. The game also saw another record-breaking performance from James. The 2012 Pomeroy Naismith Award winner scored 38 points on her way to the EMU all-time career scoring record.

The first conference game of the season was a road trip to Ball State. The Eagles struggled offensively, shooting just 29.0 percent from the field as they fell to an 0-1 record in MAC play, dropping the game by a score of 54-51.

Just when it seemed as though the EMU women may be in line for a disappointing season, the team caught fire. It all began with a matchup, Jan. 8, against the Huskies of Northern Illinois. The team was led by a 17 point, eight rebound effort from Redditt, who also blocked two shots and moved into second place on the EMU career blocked shots list. Despite the turnover-plagued first half, the game was never in doubt as the Eagles won 64-52.

The win restored the team's confidence and the women of Eastern Michigan went on to win 14 of the next 16 games to finish out the regular season, including a nine-game win streak which covered Jan. 25 to Feb. 25. The most impressive win throughout the streak came, Jan. 28, at the Convocation Center against the Akron Zips. The Eagles dominated their opponent from start to finish on their way to a 91-46 victory. The EMU offense was explosive as usual, shooting nearly 45 percent from the field, while the defense held the Zips to 24.5 percent shooting (13 of 53).

The next blowout victory of the season came on Feb. 11 in the Convocation Center against Kent State. James had another record-setting day, tying the MAC record for three-pointers made in a single game with 10. James finished with 40 points, nearly outscoring the Golden Flashes on her own. The Eagles cruised to an 83-47 demolition of KSU.

Eastern Michigan University Women's Basketball

Next up for the Eagles was in-state rival Western Michigan University at University Arena in Kalamazoo, Mich. James again led the way with 30 points. EMU never trailed, playing smothering defense in holding the Broncos to a 28.8 shooting percentage. Eastern led 43-24 at halftime, and things did not change in the second half as EMU proved far too much for the Broncos cruising to an 83-56 victory.

Three days later, the Eagles trekked to DeKalb, Ill. for a rematch against Northern Illinois. The beginning of the game was a true battle with six lead changes in the first half. With seven minutes left in the opening twenty, EMU found a rhythm and closed the half with an 18-8 run. The Eagles expanded their lead in the second half and won the game by a score of 77-57, their third consecutive win of 20 points or more. James led all scorers with 29 points, her 17th game of the season with at least 20 points. Watkins posted a double-double, scoring 18 with 12 rebounds.

The Eagles came home next for a crucial matchup against the Toledo Rockets. Both teams entered the game tied for first place in the MAC West division, and a head-to-head match so late in the season would go a long way in deciding the division champion. The Eagles would post a 54-33 win over the Rockets to take a sole lead of the MAC West division. James led the Eagles with 20 points, while Watkins and Redditt each had double-figure scoring affairs.

The last game of the win streak came at home against Ball State, Feb. 25. James again led all scorers with 23 points, and sophomore forward Fouty added 17 points and nine rebounds. The game guaranteed EMU at least a share of the MAC West Division title and avenged a 54-51 loss at Ball State earlier in the year. The second meeting between the two teams was not nearly as competitive, as the Eagles notched their fourth blowout victory in the last five games with a 74-43 win.

The team was good enough during the regular season to secure the number two seed in the 2012 Mid-American Conference Women's Basketball Tournament. Earning the two-seed offered the Eagles an automatic bye to the semi-finals of the tournament where Eastern faced its West Division co-champion Toledo. EMU trailed by a score of 51-41 with just 7:45 remaining in the game when things began to click. The Green and White finished the game on an 18-6 run to secure the team's third win over Toledo on the season, 59-57. The win also secured the team's second consecutive trip to the MAC Tournament Championship Game. James again paced the team in scoring with 19. The senior was joined by sophomore Watkins, who added 19 of her own, 12 of which came in the second half. Next up would be a rematch against in-state rival Central Michigan with a trip to the NCAA Tournament on the line.

In a close game, the Eagles needed just one field goal in the final 8:14 of play to dispatch fifth-seeded Central Michigan University, 72-71, Saturday afternoon, March 10, in the championship game of the 2012 Mid-American Conference Women's Basketball Tournament at Quicken Loans Arena. Redditt stuffed home the game-winning layup with 1.8 seconds left to earn the Eagles their first MAC title since 2004 and an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament. Sophomore guard Desyree Thomas recorded 10 assists and four steals as the Eagles secured their second MAC Tournament Championship. James and Watkins were named to the MAC All-Tournament team and James also earned tournament MVP honors.

The Eagles season ended a week later in West Lafayette, Ind. at the hands of the No. 5-seeded South Carolina Gamecocks. South Carolina played smothering defense, holding EMU to just 48 points, paced by Redditt with 14 points and 12 rebounds. The postseason game gave Redditt the opportunity to reach 1,000 career points, finishing with her final year with 1,001.

EMU finished the season with a record of 23-9, one win away from tying the program record and earning the team's second ever trip to the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. James earned MAC Player of the Year, All-MAC First Team, MAC Player of the Week honors six times, and WBCA and Associated Press All-American Honorable Mention honors. Redditt and Watkins each earned All-MAC Third Team honors, while Watkins also was named to the Academic All-MAC team. The Eagles won eight games by 20 points or more, and five games by 30 points or more in one of the greatest seasons in EMU Women's Basketball history.

Suzanne Huff (1979-83) led the Eagles in rebounding her final three seasons, the only player to ever lead Eastern in rebounding three seasons.

A LOOK AT THE BIGGEST SINGLE-SEASON TURNAROUNDS IN MAC HISTORY: With its 14-game win improvement in 2009-10, EMU ranks among the top 15 single-season MAC turnarounds since the 1982-83 campaign.

The 14-game improvement from eight wins in 2008-09 to the 22 victories was the biggest in school history. The previous standard of a nine-game turnaround came during the 2003-04 campaign, when the Eagles went from 13 victories to 22 wins en route to the MAC Tournament championship.

Eight 20+-Victory Seasons and Eight Postseason Appearances Since 2003-04

2004 NCAA Tournament • 2005 Postseason WNIT • 2006 Postseason WNIT • 2010 Postseason WNIT • 2011 Postseason WNIT • 2012 NCAA Tournament • 2014 WBI • 2015 Postseason WNIT • 2016 Postseason WNIT

Laurie Byrd, who was the program's all-time leading scorer with 1,899 career points, became the first EMU women's basketball player to have her jersey hung in the Convocation Center rafters. She joins EMU men's basketball greats George Gervin, Grant Long, Kennedy McIntosh and Earl Boykins as the only other players to have the honor bestowed upon them.

A prolific scorer while at EMU, Byrd remained the program's all-time leading scorer for 29 seasons. She is the only player in the program's history to lead her team in scoring and assists in each season in which she competed. Additionally, Byrd held EMU career records for scoring average (19.2 ppg), field goals made (854) and field goals attempted (1,788).

Formerly an assistant coach for the WNBA's Washington Mystics, Byrd previously served as an assistant coach with the Houston Comets in 2008. In the 2007 season, she was the Comets' director of player personnel. Prior to heading to Houston, Byrd served as an assistant coach for three seasons (2003-2005) with the Detroit Shock, which included the 2003 WNBA Championship.

She first entered the coaching ranks at the University of Detroit Mercy as an assistant for three seasons (1999-2002).

Byrd had an extensive professional playing career in the American Basketball League and the Women's Basketball Association. She played on the San Jose Lasers and the Atlanta Glory with the ABL and played on the Kentucky Marauders and the Chicago Spirits with the WBL. Byrd also spent time playing overseas. She played seven seasons on numerous basketball clubs in Sweden, Italy, Spain and Switzerland.

The Flint, Mich. native has received many awards and honors during her career, including being inducted into the E-Club Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993 and the AAU Hall of Fame in 1993. In 2003, she was the Think Detroit Honorary Double Goal Coach of the Year.
